YEARBOOK OF THE ASSOCIATED STUDENTS
OREGON COLLEGE OF EDUCATION • Monmouth, Oregon
BETTY CLANTON, Editor  STEPHEN MOSHER, Manager
DEDICATION

To Mrs. Pearl B. Heath the Associated Students appreciatively dedicate the 1943 Grove.

May the world one day see the beauty in life as she sees it.

May it possess the sense of fairness and the sense of humor that she possesses.

Then there will be war no more.
SERVICE MEN ROLL CALL

The threat to the way of life in which America believes has called many students and graduates of the Oregon College of Education into the service of their country. With pride we present the names of those men and women.

We bid them Godspeed.

The respect and devotion President Howard receives from the faculty and students of the Oregon College of Education are the results of his sincere interest and his quiet, but reassuringly friendly, personality.

Well known as an educational leader in Oregon, Dr. Howard many times has shown his faith in youth, and for that, we, the College Youth of 1943, thank him.
Beginning in June, 1942, the Oregon College of Education was permitted to grant the degree of Bachelor of Science to persons completing 192 hours of college work. This was the decision of the State Board of Higher Education. Making such decisions is the purpose of this capable group who direct the complicated business of higher education in the state of Oregon.

Dr. Ivan Milhous
DIRECTOR OF TRAINING SCHOOL
More than a busy person is Dr. Ivan C. Milhous, director of the training schools and head of the departments of psychology and education. Still he finds time to take a personal interest in every student on the campus.

Faith K. Black
DEAN OF WOMEN
A personal friend of the women students on the campus, Dean Black is perfectly suited for her office.

Delmer R. Dewey
DEAN OF MEN
Friendly and informal, Dean Dewey is a popular member of any campus activity.

In spite of decreased enrollment and thwarted plans, the Student Council lost neither its enthusiasm nor its desire to arrange a student program that was varied and interesting. Although planning entertainment on a slender budget was the first worry, gasoline rationing solved that problem; there seemed to be no one to bring to the campus.

If the entertainment came not in quantity, it ranked high in quality, for there came to the college Robert Johnson, Negro singer, Jeanne Welty, charming monodramatist, Henri Arcand, pianist, and for the second time, the English duo, Victoria Anderson and Viola Morris.
Campus activities included the traditional Homecoming fall term, and a very successful Campus Clean-up at the end of winter term.

Members of the governmental machinery included the Executive Committee, faculty advisors, and the student commissioners.

The Executive Committee: Archie Dunsmoor, president, A.S.O.C.E., Marjorie Rieck, vice-president, and president of Student Council, and Helen Macpherson, secretary.

The Faculty advisors: Mr. Ellis Stebbins, Registrar; Mrs. Faith Kimball Black, Dean of Women, and Mr. Delmer Dewey, Dean of Men.

The Commissioners: Maxine Loosley, entertainment; Lois Loosley, women's athletics; Miles Olsen, men's athletics; Helen Wiest, social activities; Charles Phelps, publications; Charles Wilbur, publicity; George Winegar, clubs. Other council members were Jeanne Stanton, Doris Bjork, Doris Johnson, Dale Crippen, and Frank Swaski.

Managed and edited by the students, this four page weekly publication contains news of organizations, sports, social activities, associated students, and features.

The Lamron has been aided this year by the class in Journalism, which wrote stories other than those covered by club reporters and special beats.

Weekly columns for the 1942-43 Lamron included "Co-Ed's Co-op," the sports feature story, and editorials. Various feature columns appeared throughout the year.
THE GROVE
Wartime restrictions limited the content of the 1943 Grove but did not curb the enthusiasm of the staff or student body, as shown by a sale of books greater than the spring term enrollment.

True to Grove tradition, the editors have aimed to present an accurate picture of campus life. Here in black and white, the never to be forgotten college days are kept fresh and living.

Staff members include: Kay Wimmer, Agnes Nelsen, Lyle Shum, Valorie O’Connor, Helen Dower, Helen Wiest, Nonda Pirtle, Laura Smith, Lily Waggoner, Marjorie Marr, Al Neet, and Charleen Jensvold.

Art staff: Sylvia Claggett, Vivian Hagan, Doris Johnson, Barbara McClellen, Betty Miller, Charles Phelps, Charles Sears, Virginia Stovall, and Betty Clanton.

Photography: Dr. Ivan C. Milhous, Charles Wilbur.
Moving toward the goal of closer student unity, the Associated Women Students have sponsored weekly teas in the Student Lounge in charge of various campus organizations. Almost every student on the campus actively participated in this gesture of good fellowship several times during the school year, and thus helped build in the student body and faculty a deeper feeling of unity of purpose.

The purpose of this organization is to encourage full participation of all the men on the campus in social activities. Although the membership in this organization was small, the Associated Men Students sponsored several activities for the benefit and enjoyment of the student body. With the majority of the men joining the armed forces the membership diminished decidedly.
Each spring term finds the seniors busy with student teaching and all the required classes that they have put off until the last. Most of them know what the next year will bring. A contract signed and sealed or a letter from the draft board or government may substantiate that knowledge.

The Junior Class began the year by electing a new president to take the place of Will Henderson, who had joined the armed forces. Then under the leadership of Dick Taylor the class carried on the Freshman initiation which was very ably and well done.

The other large event of the Juniors was the Sweetheart Ball in which they collaborated with the Collecto Coeds to make it a huge success.

During the year the class lost its president, Dick Taylor, and two council representatives, George Winegar and Charles Wilbur, to the armed forces.

Choosing Kenny Brisbane as their president, the freshman class started its college career.

In traditional freshman style, the class presented a program, “Bubble of Nothing,” followed by a student-body dance.

Not to be outdone by their upper classmates, ten of the freshman boys took part in the year’s sports.

The girls took an active part in W. A. A., winning the volleyball championship.

Although several of the boys were called into service, the class successfully progressed through the year.

Officers elected to guide the class were:

Coach Al Cox had only seven returning lettermen with which to build the 1942 OCE football team.

Returning men were: Nance, C. Phelps, and Taylor in the backfield, and Dunsmoor, Winegar, Winters, and Gregg in the line.

Last season's reserves Wilson and Holt and the following freshmen: Crook, Smith, Byers, Crippen, Brisbane, and Peoples, completed the letter-winning squad.

The team won two out of five games played.
Dick Taylor was chosen as the most valuable player of the season.
BASKETBALL

The Oregon College of Education won third place in the Oregon Intercollegiate Conference with six wins and five losses.

There were only two returning lettermen on the nine man squad. They were Tom Wilson, Captain, and Leonard Hyman, sophomore flash.

Other positions were filled by Lyle Duncan, 6'5" freshman from Boise, Idaho; Dick Taylor, non-playing reserve from last season, and Chuck Holt, senior up from the super varsity.

Other players who saw a lot of action were Ray Smith, Bob Crook, Ken Byers, all freshmen, and Chuck Phelps, senior.

The team won a total of 11 games out of 22 played.

Highlights of the season were the split series with the strong Humboldt College team at Arcata, California, and the election of Hyman as the most valuable player on the team.
Twelve men turned out for the '43 baseball season. Four lettermen were back from last year's combination. They were "Doc" Phelps, catcher; "Chuck" Phelps, heavy hitting centerfielder; Leonard Garmire, third baseman; and Archie Dunsmoor, outfielder. Other players new this year were Cecil Dill, Tom Wilson, Stanley Rieber, Ken Brisbane, Lyle Shum, Bob Peoples, Frank Swaski, and Hal Fox.

Games were played with Pacific College and a number of teams from Camp Adair.
The Women’s Athletic Association has offered a varied program of sports for women students on the campus, aiming to further sportsmanship, leadership, and skill, as well as to provide relaxation and playing for fun.

This year’s W.A.A. Council included the president of the association, Ruth Ehrlich; the vice-president, Helen Macpherson; the secretary, Ruth Dieckhoff; and the treasurer, Jean Park.

Heads of sports have been: Kathryn Nash, volleyball; Virginia Johnson, basketball; Barbara McClellan, softball; Jean Pesheck, tumbling; Neva Helt, badminton; Gloria Gebers, tennis; Alice Thompson, folk-dancing; Alma Peterson, hiking; and Alice Loron, archery.
A great number of girl athletes enjoyed this year's basketball season. The tournament between Halls was played first, the Dorm second floor team being victorious. Lois Loosley captained this team. The class tournament was played by the single elimination method. The junior class emerged the champions by winning their game with the seniors.

Members of each team were as follows:

Freshman—Hart, captain; Chapman, Bjork, Cahill, Wimmer, E. Johnson, Steffen, and Matthes.

Seniors—Park, captain; Petersen, Ehrlich, V. Johnson, Dieckhoff, McClellan, M. Loosley, Alexander, and Eykelbosch.
The freshman volleyball team were class champions for the fall '43 season. This is the outstanding girls' sport in the fall before basketball begins.

Juniors: Kathryn Nash, Lois Loosley, Emily Andrew, Genevieve Lovcik, Emily Colfelt.

Seniors: Jean Park, Barbara McClellen, Virginia Johnson, Alma Peterson, Ruth Erlich, Ruth Dieckhoff, and Maxine Loosley.
ORGANIZATIONS
STAFF AND KEY

Staff and Key is one of the two women’s service clubs on the campus. The club was organized to keep alive campus traditions, to uphold scholastic and social standards, and to create a spirit of friendliness among the students.

Girls elected into the club must have a grade point average of 2.5; and they must be outstanding in leadership, cooperation, friendship, character and loyalty.

Some of the outstanding events in 1942-1943 sponsored by Staff and Key are as follows: helped in sale of faculty and student body cards, served refreshments after the Homecoming game in the fall, and assisted with the decorations for the Homecoming dance, provided a tennis court dance spring term, and sponsored an all school carnival.

COLLECTO CO-EDS

The Collecto Coeds are a group of very active and busy girls who have been of service to the school this year as for many years.

They took tickets at games and dances, and acted as ushers for special programs, besides sponsoring several activities themselves. The columns of names of service men from OCE which hang in the student lounge is another activity accomplished by this group.

The Collectos sponsored the annual Sweetheart ball with the help of the Junior Class, electing Archie Dunsmoor as Sweetheart of 1943. The "Crowning" event of the year for these very popular girls was the yearly May Day celebration.

INTER-VARSITY

Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship is one of the oldest evangelical Christian student organizations. It had its beginning at Cambridge University in England in 1877.

The two-fold purpose of Inter-Varsity is to present Christ on college campuses: first, by providing fellowship for Christian students through daily prayer meetings, Bible studies, conferences, and socials; second, by stimulating Christian students in an effective witness to the saving power of Jesus Christ before fellow-students.

The OCE chapter of the IVCF was organized in 1939 and has been active since that time.

CAMP FIRE

The purpose of Campfire on the OCE campus is to acquaint prospective teachers with the fundamentals of Campfire leadership.

Some of the campus activities sponsored by the Campfire group were the Skit night, faculty tea, all school hike, and the sale of Christmas cards and war saving stamps.

TOKOPHILITES

Archery enthusiasts make up the membership of this club. Winter term found it a very active organization when many of its number were practicing for participation in the National Tournament.

With the arrival of spring-outdoor events with accompanying picnics were among the activities arranged.

CRIMSON O

The Crimson O is a highly popular dramatic organization on the campus. Each term Crimson O presents three one-act plays to provide entertainment for the students and the community. Not only does this organization provide a good deal of worthwhile entertainment but also aids the cultivation of dramatic ability.

Social activities of the club include a Homecoming banquet at the Monmouth hotel for alumni members, an initiation dance during the fall term and a party with St. Valentine’s Day as the theme.

The winter term plays including, “At The Junction,” “Shanghai,” and “The Tangled Web,” were presented at Camp Adair for the entertainment of the Hospital Unit. This was under the auspices of the Red Cross.

Despite the small number of men in the organization, the club was highly successful in its purpose. Much enjoyment and experience was gained on the part of its members.

WEST HOUSE

With the opening of the Fall term West House included the all-time high of 24 men. As the year progressed, Uncle Sam had a decidedly noticeable effect on the membership until only 11 remained during the Spring term.

West House was active in school activities. Among them are included a Social Hour, Waffle Breakfast for the faculty men, Stag Nite, as well as a hilarious program for assembly hour. The topic of this program was a typical day at West House.

JESSICA TODD HALL

Jessica Todd Hall, largest women's living quarters on the campus, is headed by president, Betty Lou Shelley, and housemother, Miss Hilda Swenson.

In spite of war conditions, Jolly Todd has tried to meet its previous social program. Several successful banquets and dances were held during the year. Firesides were less in number but just as enjoyable.

Because of the co-operation and friendliness of the dormitory girls, life in Jessica Todd Hall has been one of the high-lights of the 1942-1943 school year.

OFFICERS

Winter Term President - VIRGINIA JOHNSON
Spring Term President - - RUTH EHRlich
INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS

The International Relations Club functions under the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace.

During the year discussion meetings are held, speakers on world topics are presented, and books on current affairs are given to the college library, in an effort to encourage among college students the study of international relations.

This year the emphasis has been placed on subjects directly concerned with the second world war and the conditions that may exist when peace is established.

BAND

The band under the leadership of C. Robert Laxson suffered from the lowered enrollment this year. During the first two terms the group appeared on several occasions. Chief among their activities was the support they provided at the basketball games. With the draft taking some of the men the organization was badly crippled. On the whole, however, the member provided much entertainment at school activities.
WOMEN'S CHOIR

Women's Choir, under the able directorship of Mrs. Florence Hutchinson, is composed of a group of women students, who enjoy singing together. Until spring term the members of this organization received no academic credit for participation.

This year the Women's choir sang for an assembly program fall term, for the Christmas program in the library, for the Educational Conference in the spring, and for graduation in May.

A CAPELLA CHOIR

In fall term the a cappella choir sang in assembly and figured prominently in the Christmas vespers. The group in conjunction with the string ensemble presented an assembly in winter term. The organization was unable to perform out-of-town because of gas rationing.

Spring term the members voted to disband the a cappella choir because so many men were called into the armed forces. Several women members joined the Women’s Choir. Whenever conditions allow, the a cappella choir will be resumed.
The CCYM is an organization affiliated with the student associations of the Y.M.C.A. and Y.W.C.A., and is open to any student who is interested.

The theme chosen for this year was "Interpreting Christianity for a World Community." The Religious Emphasis Week, held during the winter term, was built around this theme, as were discussions throughout the year.
With "Building America" as their theme, Phi Beta Sigma, under the able direction of Sylvia Claggett, presented a picturesque pageant as its outstanding project for the school year.

Since this organization is a national educational honorary society for teachers, members maintain a grade point average of 2.5 or better, are interested in the teaching profession, and contribute to campus activities. Faculty advisers are Miss Emma Henkle and Dr. Arne Jensen.

THETA DELTA PHI

This is the men's national honorary fraternity. Only those meeting stipulated scholastic requirements are eligible for membership in the organization. The central purpose of Theta Delta Phi is to foster high ideals and professional standards in scholarship. Membership in this organization included not more than 12 at any one time. New members during the year were Archie Dunsmoor and Lyle Shum. Initiation parties for each of them were held at the home of the adviser, Oscar C. Christensen. This organization met for luncheon every Thursday noon.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The success of a year book is dependent upon the combined efforts of staff, administration, and publisher. The 1943 Grove was handicapped in some ways, but the cooperation from all participants was outstanding.

To MR. EDWIN THOMAS, the STATESMAN PUBLISHING COMPANY, and THE SALEM ENGRAVING COMPANY, go our unlimited thanks. At best the publication of an annual is a job. Not only our newness to the publishing business, but financial and time limitations added new headaches this year.

To DR. IVAN C. MILHOUS we say thank you sincerely for taking, developing, and printing, the individual photographs found throughout the book.

Again this year the JESTIN-MILLER STUDIO furnished the senior pictures and took club pictures. We thank MR. TONNING especially for using his gas and materials when they are so scarce.

MISS EDNA MINGUS, advisor, and MRS. PEARL HEATH, art advisor, spent much time in helping the staff compile the book.

The STUDENTS receive my thanks on behalf of the staff for the privilege of making their annual.
