DEDICATION

To Miss Helen Mary Moore, Dean of Women, the Associated Students respectfully dedicate the 1946 Grove.

All women on the campus deeply appreciate her generous nature and friendly advice. She gives admirable assistance to many campus activities and her experiences in travel are incentives to many future teachers.

The Alumni Association has had a very busy year organizing groups over the state. Susie B. Emmons, ’22, is president. One of its main activities has been supporting legislative measures for the betterment of the state schools. The enthusiasm and interest of the group was displayed by the success of its luncheon in Portland during the O.S.T.A. conference. The luncheon was given at the Imperial Hotel and over a hundred were regretfully turned away because of the lack of seating capacity. It was a very joyful reunion for all Alumni members present.

There are several active Alumni groups over the state, but at present the Campus Group is the most active. The Campus Group, composed of faculty members includes: Mrs. Heath, Mrs. Hefstetter, Mrs. Barnum, Miss Henkle, Mrs. Bolt, Mrs. McBee, Miss Donaldson, Miss Wolfer, Miss Hill, Mr. Vent, and Mr. Gronquist. Christmas cards were sent to all members in the armed forces again this year. “Thanks for a job well done” was the sentiment expressed this year. The OCEAN was published this term by Miss Henkle, Mrs. Heath, and Mrs. Hefstetter. The Oregon College of Education Alumni News is a paper every Alumni member looks forward to. The Campus Group is now busy making plans for the Senior Breakfast.

The Alumni Association is looking forward to a very busy year again next year with many more bricks added to its wall of good deeds.
For the past several years a class reunion has been held on the Oregon College of Education campus for the fifty year class. Pictured on this page is the class of 1895 which held its reunion during the spring of 1945.
STUDENT ADMINISTRATION
For the past several years the enrollment at O.C.E. has been small, but this year after the close of the war, students began returning. The year 1945-1946 has been a turning point. Numerous activities have been enjoyed by the students. Basketball, baseball, and plans for football next fall have been started. The Student Council has felt themselves fortunate to present such artists as George Broughton, violinist, Eleanor King, modern dancer, and the Fisk Jubilee Singers.
Student Council

The student council is an administrative body representing the students. It is composed of elected students and takes problems of student interest into discussion and determines what should be done about them.

The executive committee this year has included:
Helen Peterson.........president
Clarence Irving.........vice-president
Rue Aaron Crooks.........Secretary

Commissioners were:
Seniors:
Mildred Fox...............Social
Rosemary Wilken..........Publications
Juniors:

Delmer R. Dewey, dean of men, is advisor of the group and the following officers were elected:
President............Hugh Hassell
Vice-president.........Allan Petersdorf

It is the hope of the group that this organization will be able to function as it did in the years gone by. In those years it sponsored dances, smokers, assembly programs, and in general, all the things that make an organization popular with its members.

Associated Women and Men Students

The Juniors started the year by sponsoring a fall dance which was regarded as a genuine success.

One of the many activities in which the class members participated was the sponsoring of the project of painting the windows in the Recreation Hall.

For advisor this year the Juniors elected Mr. Oscar Christensen.
Freshman Class

The freshman class started the year right, by electing Ann Akerson as president during a meeting held while they were in the process of being initiated. As a climax of this eventful initiation they offered their various talents to the student body in an assembly, closing with the class song which was written by Betsy Dreier, assisted by Stephen Foster.

Then to repay the Juniors for their kindness, the Freshmen gave a party at the Youth Center, in honor of the Juniors.

At first there were but three men; however, the winter term saw several more join the class.

The members are now looking eagerly forward to next year's freshmen and the privilege of teaching them campus behavior.
Under the leadership of two capable presidents, Hope Samson, fall term, Dona Canutt, winter and spring term, plus the understanding guidance of Miss Helen Mary Moore, the girls of Jessica Todd Hall have concluded another happy and successful year on the Oregon College of Education Campus.

This has been an especially interesting year with the added enthusiasm of a large group of freshman girls and the return of girls who have been serving with the armed forces.

The activities of the year have included a silver tea, an open house, formal dinners, and firesides. Also of interest was the inter-house basketball tournament which was won by the team composed of girls who live in the front section of second floor.

The ten students in Winegar Apartments make up one of the largest of the off-campus houses. They have taken part in many school activities, won honorable mention for their skit, "The Run-away Donkey" at the Campfire Skit Night; and made up a volleyball team. One of the outstanding events of the year was a wedding ceremony that took place in the living room. They have appreciated the help and friendliness of the housemother, Mrs. A. H. Swindell.

In spite of the decrease in attendance of men students at O.C.E. during the war years, West House opened its door to twenty men students, for winter term. Spring term showed an increase.

West House sponsored a get-acquainted party which proved one of the most outstanding events of the term. Guests included young women from East House and off campus men and their wives.

Mr. Delmer Dewey, Dean of Men, is the advisor for West House.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES
The choir, under the capable direction of Mrs. Hutchinson, has completed another successful year. This organization is composed of about thirty members. One important event this year was the Christmas program which was largely attended and much enjoyed.

The concert given in March was another marked success. A. E. Stoars, tenor-baritone, assisted in several numbers on this program.

Several girls formed quartets and trios, and two, Mina Catherine Zebley and Phyllis Lauderback, were outstanding in their solo work.

Staff and Key is a service club which was created to bestow service and foster in all students an active interest in school affairs.

The girls elected to membership are those who possess outstanding qualities of friendship, cooperation, loyalty, leadership and scholarship.

Activities in which Staff and Key participated were: Thursday evening teas, Campfire Skit Night, annual Collecto-Staff and Key spring picnic, all school carnival, rush tea, and a breakfast for all members during the Conference Week-end.

Staff and Key
With the friendly help of Miss Lautenbach, faculty advisor, Campfire successfully accomplished many activities. The group sponsored the annual Skit Night, sold Christmas cards and participated in other interesting projects. Two of the members proved their ability by leading the Campfire and Blue Bird groups of the Training School.

The purpose of Campfire on the O.C.E. campus is to instruct the future teachers of Oregon in the fundamentals of Campfire leadership.

Crimson "O" has carried on a very active year as the dramatic organization of the campus. Two one-act plays were presented in the fall, entitled, "Three Taps on The Wall" and "Tell Dorie Not To Cry." A three-act comedy, "Don't Take My Penny!" was given during the spring term.

Membership in the club increased throughout the year following formal tryouts. A special dinner was given each term to introduce and initiate the new members.

The International Relations Club is sponsored by the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace. The purpose of the club is to broaden the understanding of world affairs among college students by sponsoring speakers and forum discussions of international events. Special speakers this year have been returned veterans.
This four-page weekly publication which contains news reports of organizations, girls' sports, social activities, news of students, alumni, and faculty is managed and edited by the students.

A journalism course is offered and many students have learned the art of putting ideas together and contributing them to their school paper for the benefit of others. In order that they might also see the accuracy and dependability needed, students are given the opportunity to witness and assist in the process of printing the Lamron.

Poison Ivy Blossoms and Wolf Sports have proved the outstanding columns. News of Alumni is steadily increasing in scope, and the Fashion Flashes arouses much interest from all.

The faculty advisor, Dr. J. F. Santee, has been successful in stimulating students to work hard. His sincere interest and wide range of experience in journalism contributed much to the Lamron's success.
Did you know that our Annual has changed its name six times in the course of its interesting and varied history of forty years?

It was in 1906 that the first publication was issued under the name of, The Courier. From that year down to 1909, at the time the Normal School closed, there were four issues each year.

Publications resumed in 1911 were called The Norm, and continued under that name until 1932. The busiest year of all for editors was 1913-14 when seven different issues were brought out; one each at Thanksgiving, Christmas, mid-year Commencement, Easter, June Commencement, Summer, and two extras, one in April and one in July. On 1914-15 only one Norm was printed.

During 1916-17 the new name of Annual was decided upon.

In tribute to the student veterans of World War I, the 1918-19 issue was called, Soldier's Norm.

From 1919 through 1932 the Annual was printed once yearly. Although it was discontinued in 1932 it was revived in 1936 only to die again until 1939.

In 1940 the present name of The Grove was given the annual publication, and this name is retained to the present.

SPORTS
The Women's Athletic Association has provided a great variety of sports for students throughout the year. This club's aim is to further sportsmanship, leadership, and skill, as well as to provide relaxation and play.

Members of W.A.A. earn letters and sweaters by attending three-fourths of the sport practices and by playing on house and class teams.

W.A.A. added to the past year's social calendar by sponsoring play nights, folk dances and Thursday night teas. The members entered a skit in the Skit Night contest, and also took part in the Winter Carnival.

The sports managers were: Eloise Strain—volleyball; Lorraine Burton—basketball; Jeanne Matteson—softball; Betty June Bierbower—tumbling; Harriet Strain—badminton and tennis; Blanche Green—folk dancing; Virginia Fretwell—hiking and bicycling.
Men's Basketball

Winter term found enough men on the O.C.E. campus for a revival of men's athletics after several years of little or no activity in this department.

When Dick Gronquist, the new coach, issued a call for basketball players there were about fifteen men, nearly all veterans who turned out for this sport. There were no lettermen and few with any college basketball experience. Nevertheless, a winning team which competed successfully with squads from larger schools and leading independent teams was developed. The last two games of the season with Eastern Oregon College of Education (played at La Grande) renewed a traditional rivalry with that institution.

The starting lineup for O.C.E. was George Bullion and Claude Buckley, forwards; Robert Crook, center; Ellis Neal and Hugh Hassell, guards. Others who played on the Wolf team are: Robert Hansmann, Allan Petersdorf, Percy Buss, Trevor Russell, Ward Stanley, George Winegar and George Hocking. Bullion, Buckley and Crook were the high scoring men on the team.
