REFLECTION

I know where there’s a sea of sky;
Where red brick walls are reaching high,
Where, through the day, the clouds or rain
Remain to hush the swallow’s cry.

I know where there’s a mirror for
The stars, the moon, the midnight blue;
A mirror that will hold the dreams
That make the night winds sing of you.

I know where memories are seen;
Your precious memories and mine;
Where they will cling, forever stilled.
Near every twisted ivy vine.

A red brick wall, a window tall;
They hold the carefree songs today.
They hold the moods, the spirit strong,
Of those who passed along this way.

You know the place, you know it well—:
It’s there beside the old fir tree.
It’s a gothic window tall
That mirrors life for you and me.

—Joyce Tverberg
1948 Julia McCulloch Smith Award Winner

With the presentation of this annual award the sponsors bestow a coveted honor upon a junior or senior woman. This year the faculty committee chose Lidy Lu Swofford. In her they found most nearly exemplified the qualities meriting this honor: graciousness, love of knowledge, and unselfish leadership. To her go the twenty-five dollar award and the congratulations of faculty and students.

1948 Phi Beta Kappa Award Winner

George Forgard has received the signal honor of being chosen for the award presented by the Central Willamette Valley Association of Phi Beta Kappa. Each year since 1942 a faculty committee has selected an outstanding freshman student whose excellence in scholarship reflects the high standards of the donors.
DEDICATION

In Memoriam

This issue of the GROVE is dedicated to the memory of Professor Harvey Edgar Inlow. Closing a long and successful career as an Oregon educator, Professor Inlow passed from this life on New Year's Day, 1948. An Oregon College of Education faculty member for a decade, he had previously held city school superintendencies at Forest Grove and Pendleton, as well as the presidency of our sister institution at La Grande from 1929 to 1937.

Scholarly, loyal, firm of purpose—Professor Inlow exemplified to a high degree those qualities set forth in this passage from the ancient writings of India:

"In good fortune not elated,
In ill fortune not dismayed,
Ever eloquent in council
Never in the fight afraid,
Proudly emulous of honor,
Steadfastly on wisdom set;
These six virtues in the nature
Of a noble soul are met."

—J.F.S.
I believe that we can boast of the past school year as one of the most progressive in the history of the school. However, there are still two roads that lie open to the student of Oregon College of Education. We must soon travel along one or the other. The first of these roads leads to a happy, normal college life in a college that one can be proud of in years to come. The second road leads to a non-spirited, chaotic, and misunderstood school. In facing either Utopia or social and educational jumble, our school is not unlike other schools in the state. We have brought into being a student body that is far from normal. The students are older and more serious, and the enrollment has reached a long-sought-for standard. The students of today aren’t satisfied with what before the war was considered sufficient entertainment and enlightenment. Today they are concerned with classes, methods of instruction, the personnel giving the instruction, international affairs, and their own individual wants for recreation.

To secure these things and to have them organized properly, we have student government instead of a chaotic mob.

The student government has learned and kept in mind the various wants of affiliated and unaffiliated student groups and has tried to satisfy these wants and to promote school spirit. Some of the major accomplishments during the past school year are as follows: the lease of our football field and the installation of floodlights; the allocation from the State Board of Higher Education of six thousands dollars for the remodeling of our recreation hall; the increase of five dollars per term for student body membership to finance and promote better school activities; the establishment of a permanent student body office to keep school records; and the financing and encouragement of campus activities and off-campus conferences.

The student government, with an eye always on the future, has tried to work toward a better and more systemized school system. However, the correct road cannot be traveled by only the few students that constitute the council; but it must be traveled by each and every student with a willingness to do his part and to let his opinions be known to the proper persons. I think that the following quotation very aptly sums up what I have been trying to say:

"Coming together is a beginning
Keeping together is progress
Working together is success."

ALLAN J. PETERSDORF, President
Associated Students of O.C.E.
The pages of this book will constitute a record of your associates and your activities at the Oregon College of Education during the memorable 1947-48 year. I trust this year at the College has been a happy and a profitable one for you.

The times are momentous. The entire world, including our own nation, is going through the pangs of post-war adjustment. Feeding the hungry of the world, housing the homeless in all lands, and developing a program of education for lasting peace and for the freedom and the integrity of all men everywhere are the great problems of this decade. It is my hope and the desire of the staff of this College that you have become better equipped to solve these problems,—our problems—because you spent this year in training.

My first year with you has been a happy one. I trust the years ahead will build for each one of you a path of retrospect paved with memories of achievement and success in the work which you have chosen.

No, we aren’t all going to be teachers. Right now we are stalking the illusive "J.C.," but one day we will proudly proclaim our right to the title of Lawyer, Engineer, Home Economist, Business Administrator, or even Interior Decorator or Dentist.

Today you find us delving in the archives of American History, touring the world via the Geography Department, puzzling through a maze of pedigrees and checker boards, or splashing paint on a complaining canvas.

Sixth row: S. Thomson, J. Burnett, Dr. Santee, Mr. Leuallen, J. Howard, J. Mackey.

Sigma Epsilon Pi, women’s scholastic honorary fraternity, has concluded its sixteenth year on the O.C.E. campus. Advisers to the organization are Miss Edna Mingus, Miss Joan Seavey, and Miss Jane Dale.

Theta Delta Phi, national honorary scholastic fraternity for men, is composed of campus men chosen for their scholastic achievements. The Beta chapter of O.C.E. was host to the organization’s annual district convention, which was held in the spring term. At this time they sponsored a banquet and dance.
Fourth row: C. Bumbarger, A. Hayden, J. Beach, G. Jensen, E. Lewis.

Phi Beta Sigma, national teacher's honorary, selects its members on the basis of scholarship, leadership, and service.

This organization's main event was the annual homecoming banquet and dance. Other activities included the publication of the "Phi Beta News Letter," and a dinner at Miss Henkle's. The spring picnic culminated the year's activities.

Charting this year's progress were Mort Howard, president, and Miss Henkle, adviser.

Alpha, Alpha Chapter of Kappa Pi, honorary art fraternity was organized May 19, 1946. Eligibility for membership in Kappa Pi is dependent upon high scholarship and artistic attainments, a majority vote of chapter membership, and upon recommendation of the faculty of the art department.
Organized to keep alive campus traditions, to uphold scholastic and social standards, and to create a spirit of friendliness among students, the Wolf Knights have enjoyed a successful year. The club began a tradition this year when it selected a "Sweetheart." The lucky girl was presented a silver loving cup at the annual "Sweetheart Ball." Throughout the year, the Knights have contributed support to the various athletic functions at O.C.E.

Collecto Coeds is a women's service honorary organized in 1928. The purpose of the club is to offer service to the school, to create friendly relations, and to promote school spirit and cooperation. Services rendered throughout the year are in the form of ushering at social functions, selling tickets at games, and duty in the Rec. Hall. Collectos sponsor different social affairs during the school year; a main event is the "Sweetheart Ball" of the winter term.
Staff and Key, a women's service honorary has taken an active part in campus affairs during the past year. Some of their main accomplishments have included the popular "All American" formal dance, the winter term "Progressive Dance," and the spring term "Print" dance. The members have assisted at many of the educational and social activities sponsored by the associated students.

Student Christian Association is an active non-denominational organization on this campus. It is associated with the International Y.W.C.A. and the Y.M.C.A. The organization's theme for 1947-48 has been Community and World Relatedness. Activities for the year have included a cider and doughnut sale, the proceeds of which were used to sponsor a party for the seventh and eighth grade students of the Monmouth Grade School; an International Festival in connection with the World Student Service Fund Drive; and a weekend retreat to the coast during the spring term.
O.C.E. CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP, a chapter of the national Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship, is an active Christian club on the campus. Its two-fold purpose is to provide fellowship for Christian students and to witness the power of Jesus Christ before fellow students.

NEWMAN CLUB has enjoyed its second year of activity on the campus of Oregon College of Education. The fundamental purpose of this organization is to promote religious activities among the Catholic students on the campus. Social gatherings are the second objective of the club, and these have been enjoyed through the use of the Monmouth Youth Center.
The Campfire Girls have been very successful in accomplishing the purposes of their organization during the past year. These purposes are to promote service, to provide social activities, and to train Campfire leaders. Among the more important activities of the year were the selling of hot dogs at football games, the selling of Christmas cards, the sponsoring of a hair style show and a tea early in the winter term, and during the spring term, the sponsoring of "Skit Night" for Mother's Weekend and an outing for all members at Camp Kilowan.

Omicron Pi Omega is a social club for women students who are twenty-five or more years of age. The club, especially active during the summer sessions, was organized to carry on activities of special interest to the older women students.
The curtain raiser this year was the three-act farce, "Her Husband's Wife," presented to a capacity audience in mid November. Other fall activities included an initiation banquet, presentation of several one-act plays, informal parties, and the presentation of the Christmas play, "A Christmas Gift."

"A Murder Has Been Arranged," chilling audiences two successive nights in March, brought winter term activities to a climax.

The annual tour of one-act plays, traveling to more than a score of high schools, occupied the organization during spring term. Crimson "O's" highly successful year has been the result of hard work on the part of the members and the excellent supervision of the adviser, George Harding.
THE CRIMSON "O" GETS TOGETHER FOR "A MURDER HAS BEEN ARRANGED."

A CHILLING MOMENT ON CURTAIN NIGHT.

The Kappa Mu Cast of Alpha Psi Omega, National Dramatic Honorary Fraternity, was established on the O.C.E. campus in 1947. This chapter is one of the 228 chapters that are organized in colleges in all parts of the U.S.

The purposes of Alpha Psi Omega are as follows: to stimulate interest in dramatic activities; to secure for the college all the advantages and mutual helpfulness provided by a large national honorary fraternity; and by electing deserving students to membership, to serve as a reward for worthy effort in campus dramatic productions.

The organization was established at O.C.E. through the efforts of Mr. George Harding, the faculty director. Charter members include Betty Lou Elliott, Carol Fischer, Dona Canutt, Jerome Wilma, Alice Wilkinson Allen, and Leonard Emery.
The debate squad has ended a very active and successful year. Events of importance in which the squad participated were a practice tournament in Portland, a College of Puget Sound tournament in which Jewelle Schmidt and Helen Madison won second place in debate, and a tournament at Linfield in which eleven western states were represented. Jewelle Schmidt and Helen Mattison were selected as two of the five finalists for extemporaneous speaking in the Linfield tournament.

BAND—The O.C.E. band, under the direction of Francis McKay, has played at many school events and has added color to the basketball games held on the local court.
The O.C.E. Choir, under the direction of Mrs. Florence Hutchinson, has appeared in concert many times during the past year. Homecoming Church Service, Christmas Vespers, and the Educational Conference were some of the more important events which were "highlighted" by the appearance of the choir. Augmented this year by many new members, especially in the tenor and base section, the choir has been able to sing a wider variety of musical numbers. Many of the choir members taking voice lessons have been featured as soloists at the various events.

Because of their outstanding services to the Oregon College of Education, the above students were selected to appear in the annual publication of Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

We sincerely hope that the 1948 Grove will, in future years, bring you who turn these pages, happy memories of student days at O.C.E. By the use of pen and camera, we have attempted to record events and people that have made this a memorable year. Our efforts will have been rewarded if this book brings you happiness in reminding you of college days.

To all faculty members and students who have so freely contributed their time and efforts, we wish to express our sincere thanks.
The 1947 Homecoming weekend was the highlight of the fall term. During the three days starting on Friday evening of October 31, and ending Sunday noon, November 2, 1947, the alumni of O.C.E. were presented with three power-packed days of fun and frolic. Events for the Homecoming this year featured a rally show, the annual freshmen bonfire, alumni get-together dance in the Rec. Hall, alumni luncheon before the game, the traditional football classic, refreshments for grads after the game, the alumni banquet sponsored by alumni association and the annual victory dance in the P.E. building. A new feature this year was college chapel which closed the Homecoming week-end.

From all indications a good time was had by those who attended. The businessmen of Monmouth are to be thanked for their cooperation by closing their stores during the game. The students and faculty members who participated in the Homecoming arrangements are to be congratulated for a fine job,—an excellent Homecoming and WELL DONE.

Dad's Club

Dad's Weekend, sponsored by the Associated Students and supervised by Bill Brewster got off to a good start on this campus.

Planned to acquaint the dads with O.C.E. and its potentialities, a varied program was presented. It included the Vanport-O.C.E. football game; the Dad's dance sponsored by Staff and Key; a luncheon; the election of officers; a matinee program featuring the play "Little Darling," presented by Crimson O, and selections by the college choir; a smoker; and the famed monologist, Dorothy Crawford.

MOTHER'S WEEKEND, sponsored by the Associated Women Students was initiated on the O.C.E. campus May 1 and 2.

Friday evening the mothers were entertained by original skits of the clubs on the campus. Other things presented during their stay here were a luncheon, a tea, and a concert. The weekend was completed by chapel Sunday morning with singing by the choir. Dr. Victor P. Morris was the main speaker.

In charge of arrangements for Mothers' Weekend were chairmen Vivienne Hannah and Jane Yant.

Officers elected to guide the new Mothers' Club were as follows: President, Mrs. H. F. Thompson; Vice President, Mrs. C. A. Pittman; Treasurer, Mrs. A. T. King.
Dear Graduates:

The Alumni Association of the Oregon College of Education congratulates you! We extend an invitation to each of you to join our organization.

We have many goals which you may help us to achieve. During the past year, the Association held its annual Homecoming banquet, with approximately eighty former students in attendance.

The Alumni luncheon of O.C.E. during the Oregon Education Association convention in Portland was well attended, with one hundred fifty tickets sold.

We contacted every county superintendent in the state, as well as every principal in Multnomah county, in an effort to locate every alumni who is teaching in Oregon.

The last issue of the OCEAN (Oregon College of Education Alumni News) was sent to 1800 of these former students.

The annual Senior Breakfast, which is sponsored by the alumni, will be held in the spring.

At present we are undertaking a project to assist in teacher recruitment. We are sponsoring a movie of college life on our campus to be shown to high school students throughout the state.

We hope that you will help our organization become a great educational force in our state. You may help accomplish this goal by becoming an active member of the Alumni Association.

Sincerely yours,

(Signed) Sylvia J. Claggett

The O.C.E. Wolves started their 1947 football season under the guidance of new mentor Bill McArthur, former grid and track great at Santa Barbara State College and more recently of the Chicago Rockets Professional football squad.

Coach McArthur built his team around nine returning lettermen, several transfers, and a few promising freshmen. Experimenting with the T formation in the first two games, McArthur found that his squad lacked the experience to make it click. Switching to the reliable Notre Dame box in the third game, the Wolves scored 39-0 against the Pacific Quakers.

In the fourth game against the strong Red Raiders of Southern Oregon, the Wolves got their offense rolling. They piled up 394 yards to S.O.C.E.'s 363, but continually bogged down inside the enemy ten-yard line. Two long Raider passes, an a 90-yard run, totalling some 200 yards, accounted for three touchdowns and the margin of victory.

Encouraged by their strong showing down south, the Wolves came home to blank the Vanport Vikings 13-0.

A large homecoming crowd saw the Wolves drop a hard-fought contest to the Eastern Oregon Mountaineers 6-0 on a sloppy field.

In their final game at Portland, the Wolves dropped a 6-0 decision to Lewis and Clark after playing in Pioneer territory for three quarters.

The lack of a scoring punch plagued the Wolves all season, but they showed much promise of a powerful offense. On defense, the main weakness was against passes. The huge line, which averaged 215 pounds per man, was almost impregnable.

The schedule for next year has been made out and O.C.E. can look forward to a very successful season.

BASKETBALL 1947-48 SEASON

The Oregon College of Education Varsity basketball team, coached by Bob Knox, enjoyed a fair season. The squad won a third of their games and broke even with teams from the strong Northwest Conference.

On hand for their second year were lettermen Walt Baglien, Marv Hiebert, Harrel Smith, Rollie Hamer, Claude Buckley, and Curly Mattison. Transfers Jack McElravy and Bob McKee, together with freshmen Herb Kirby, Henry Proctor, Scott Thompson, and Dave Powell, rounded out the squad.

Biggest prize in the Wolves’ victory sack was the surprise trouncing they handed the highly-touted Willamette Bearcats 60-58. This game saw the Knox system of offense hit its peak.

The Wolves “pass, cut, and replace” system, together with deadly accuracy from the field, was in most cases almost enough to counter-balance the opponents’ inevitable superiority in height. However, lack of height and experience usually told in the final minutes. Leading scorer was Captain Bob McKee with 217 points. He was followed closely by Harrel Smith with 216. Other top scorers were Jack McElravy, 187; Marv Hiebert, 159; and Rollie Hamer, 157.

The Junior Varsity Basketball team was organized by Coach Knox in order to give more students an opportunity to participate in competitive sports, and to train the younger players for later varsity participation. The team, under the capable guidance of Bill McArthur, enjoyed a fair season and won 16 out of 26 games.

Track

Spring 1948 found track back on the O.C.E. campus after an absence of seven years. Coach Bill McArthur has scheduled meets with St. Martin’s, Linfield, Willamette, Clark J.C., Vanport, and Pacific University. Outstanding prospects are as follows: Bothwell and Gregg, sprints; Slocum, Ivy, and Reed, 440; Tom Jones, and Collings, 880; G. Smith, mile; Langrell, high jump; Redden, Kirby, and Thomson, low hurdles; B. Nelson, high hurdles; Dan Moore, shot put; Ranis, javelin and discus; Mullins, broad jump.
BASEBALL 1947 SEASON

The 1947 baseball season proved to be a fair year although only three lettermen were available. The Wolves were definitely an up-and-down team all season. After getting off to a slow start they managed to win six out of sixteen. The O.C.E. nine held victories over Vanport, Willamette, Vancouver J.C., Multnomah, and Reed.

Coach Knox expects a good season this year with thirteen lettermen back from his 1947 squad. Returning lettermen are John Nasman and Leland Hufford, catchers; Bruce Hamilton, Rollie Hamer, and Claude Buckley, pitchers; Allan Petersdorf, Stan Karejwa, and Muss Harris, infielders; Pete Jones, Ray Smith, Marv Hiebert, Hal Lohbeck, and Chet Bumbarger, outfielders.

RALLY SQUAD—Betty Buhler, Wally Agee, and Louise Kinney.

VARSITY "O"

Varsity "O," the men’s letterman club, consists of those men who have earned letters in one or more varsity sports and have been duly initiated into the order of the "O." Their purpose is to preserve the dignity of the letter and to promote interest in varsity athletics. Throughout the year, members have ushered at athletic events and have worked in cooperation with Staff and Key in the sponsoring of social functions.

The Women's Athletic Association was organized to provide opportunity for women students to participate in a variety of sports. Tournaments and practice competition in such activities as volleyball, basketball, ping-pong, softball, and folk dancing, offer a year-round program for the women of the organization.

W.A.A. members have an opportunity to earn letters and sweaters by attending a certain percentage of practices, and by playing in tournament games.
