FOREWORD

To present you a lasting record of this year's happenings
—To give you a means to remember the friends and fun of this year—To recall some of the highlights of your learning and those who instigated it—To visualize your memories—
These are the reasons for this book's existence.

DEDICATION

We take this opportunity on behalf of the entire student body to express our appreciation by dedicating this annual to the many people responsible for the planning and the building of our new library.
LIBRARY DEDICATION

The O.C.E. library dedication was held on October 14, 1951. Dr. Roben J. Maaske was Master of Ceremonies and Dr. Charles D. Byrne was the main speaker.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the faculty lounge.

Collecto Coeds and Staff & Key girls served refreshments at the reception.

This marks the end of Dr. Maaske's second year as President of Oregon College of Education. President Maaske also serves as Director of Elementary Teacher Education, Oregon State System of Higher Education.

The challenge to a college of education, always significant, becomes doubly so during a period of extensive population increase and the continuing need for additional well-prepared elementary school teachers. Here at the Oregon College of Education we are meeting this challenge by the constant study and improvement of the teacher education program, by the erection of new buildings and facilities, by additions to the staff, and by the inauguration of a master's degree program.

The success of these efforts is, and will continue to be, evidenced by the cooperative efforts of our student body members and by the high professional standing of OCE's many graduates in educational positions throughout the state and nation.

ROBEN J. MAASKE.
Miss Seavey has been a valuable counselor of student problems and welfare at O.C.E. since 1946. She also serves as Assistant Professor of English.

The powerful Wolves of Oregon College of Education wrapped up their second consecutive conference championship, as they pounded out a convincing 47-14 victory over their visiting cousins from Eastern Oregon. The November 3 contest provided a successful homecoming for scores of alumni who crowded the Monmouth stadium to see the undefeated Wolves in action.

The Lobos went ahead on the third play from scrimmage when quarterback Leroy Coleman plowed through the line for 10 yards to make the score 7-0. Left End Lyle Hay, who had seconded the Mountain View, and halfback Whitey Pinnell scored the second touchdown on a 15-yard pass from quarterback Bob Adams. The Lobos took a 14-7 lead in the second quarter on a 17-yard run by Bob Adams.

The second quarter was scoreless, statistically untied once, the Lobos moving only 20 yards from their own end zone. Lyle Hay, left end, caught a 55-yard pass in the first period, but the drive was stopped on the one-yard line. In the second quarter, the Wolves got on the board when Lyle Hay, left end, rammed the ball for a touchdown from the one-yard line after a 40-yard run from scrimmage.

The Oregon College of Education offense is a well-balanced unit, consisting of seven members of the championship Oregon college squad. The defense also is strong, and four on the OCE, quarters, Ross, Skizz, and Neil, was a double tackle, an accomplishment shared by Bob Cooley, quarterback, and Leroy Coleman.

The key to the Lobos' game was the running back from Oregon Tech, Foreman, who gained 130 yards on 17 carries. Lyle Hay, left end, and Ross, right end, filled the roles of the backfield. The Lobos gained 230 yards on 36 carries for an average of 6.4 yards per carry.

Attempts Fall Through For Post-Season Games
Three Picked on Coast Team

The three members of the Oregon College of Education football team were chosen last week to positions on the International News Service Small College All-Coast squad. Lyle Hay, diminutive Wolfback, was selected to an end slot on the second team, and Quarterback Leroy Coleman was selected to the second team, and Quarterback Leroy Coleman was selected to the second team, and Quarterback Leroy Coleman was selected to the second team.

The INS selections are made by newspapers and sportswriters from the Pacific Coast, and include those whose performances would not otherwise be recognized because of schedule limitations or college enrollments.

The INS selections are made by newspapers and sportswriters from the Pacific Coast, and include those whose performances would not otherwise be recognized because of schedule limitations or college enrollments.

Such institutions as San Francisco State, Loyola of Los Angeles, Lewis and Clark of Portland, and Pacific Lutheran are representative of the scope of the picks.

These are the first OCE gridironers to be honored. Since the selection of Robin Lee to a halfback spot for his outstanding performances during the 1949 undefeated season.
The 1951 gridiron edition of the perennially powerful OCE Wolfpack roared through a seven-game schedule to present Head Coach Bill McArthur with his second undefeated season in the last three years at OCE. The Wolves combined their devastating offense with sturdy defensive play to roll up a total of 224 points, while holding their opponents to a mere 45. Only a midseason 6-6 tie with the rugged Linfield College Wildcats marred their otherwise unscathed record.

The Wolfpack maintained their record of never having lost an Oregon Collegiate Conference football game as they rolled to decisive victories over Oregon Technical Institute, Vanport and Eastern Oregon College. Other wins were posted at the expense of George Fox, Southern Oregon and the University of British Columbia.

Lin Coach John Chamberlain and Assistant Coach Bob Livingston ably assisted McArthur in his coaching duties. Seniors Lyle Hoy, left end, and Bob Downing, center, were elected by their teammates at the conclusion of the season as honorary captain and most valuable player, respectively. Hoy was also selected at end on the International News Service Little All-Coast second team, and Quarterbacks Roger Dasch and LeRoy Coleman received honorable mention on the Little All-American team. Other Wolves selected on various all-star aggregations were as follows: Bill Palmquist, Jack Pomeroy, Jim Dyal, Dick Vanderzanden, Bud Michaels, and Ray Hubbard.

The OCE Wolves, under the guidance of their able young mentor, Bob Livingston, enjoyed the most successful basketball season on this campus since pre-war years, winning 18 of their 25 regular season games. They finished in second place in the Oregon Collegiate Conference, losing the championship to Vancouvers strong Vikings in the final league game. Their successful season was climaxed by a bid to the District 2 NAIB Tournament in Portland, where they succumbed to Willamette University and Lewis and Clark on successive nights.

The Wolfpack lacked both height and individual stars, but more than compensated for these handicaps with their aggressiveness and hustle. They were paced throughout the season by Center Hal Pitcher, who was selected Honorary Captain by his teammates, and was named to the OCC All-star Team. Guard Bob Bushnell and Forward Charley Pinion also received post-season all-star mention.

Words of praise are due Dr. Livingston for his fine work in his first year at OCE. He took virtually the same team which had suffered a dismal season in 1950-51 and molded them into this season's well-rounded ball club. The aggressiveness and sportsmanship which Livingston instilled in his team served as its trademark throughout the entire season.
