FOREWORD

You must listen and know
That we are the trees.....
For in our sighs and soft-breathed murmurings
We hear the record of the things past.
And while time is steadily, stealthily moving on
We reach out - and grasp those forms and atmospheres
Which you may have forgotten.....
Listen to us --
We are the trees. ..
We are the pillars of memory. ..

CHARLES STOWELL

Selected by the student council as the faculty member who has made the greatest contribution to the welfare and development of the students and school during the year 1952-153.

One of Mr. Stowell's many activities, directing the band.
The school is a human garden, and the teacher is a cultivator of human beings.

... Francis Parker
A college is as great or small as the people who make it up, whether they be faculty or student. And a college progresses as these people progress to new levels of tolerance, understanding, and achievement. The publication of this 1952 GROVE is a graphic history of one year in the life of this college.

The review of such a history awakens us all to an appreciation of the things well done and an inspiration to work together for still greater progress.

Winter term registration ushered in several changes. The scene was changed from the gym to Maple Hall.

Classes started in the afternoon.

The women once more outnumbered the men--253 to 198.
The O. C. E. Victory Bell, purchased in 1889, was "spirited" away by Portland State students following a basketball game. Three weeks later Portland State president, Jim Caughlin, and other PSC representatives returned the quarter-ton bell and presented during a special assembly a small bell to become a traditional exchange trophy.

The life and career of Joan of Arc was presented for the O. C. E. student body November 19th and 21st, under the able direction of George Harding.

The story was brought forth as a play within a play, and as a result some of the cast members played two and sometimes three parts.

Assistant directors were Eleanor Fulmore and Holly Campbell.
"Years Ago"

The spring play, "Years Ago", was presented arena style in Maple Hall on March 4th and 6th. The play, an autobiographical comedy, featured two complete casts.

FOOTBALL-1952
Jim Dyal, a Senior, from Sandy, Oregon was elected captain by the team members. Jim, a husky, 205 pound tackle, finished three years of outstanding football for coaches McArthur and Chamberlain.

Most valuable players of the year were Charlie Pinion and Ray Cummings, who will still be with us next year. Charlie plays halfback and was the team's leading scorer. Ray anchored the center spot and contributed outstanding play at all times.
Again, for the fourth time in a row, the Wolves won the OCC conference championship. By easily defeating Eastern Oregon and Port. St., then easing past the highly rated OTI team, the crown was assured.

VARSITY SQUAD

Right--A lull in the generally torrid action carried on against our rivals of SOCE from Ashland, Oregon. Bob Frantz (23) and "Whitey" get into position for the rebound.

Left--Charley Pinion (20) drives for the bucket as Frank Rosenstock (25) tries to lend a hand.

Right--Frank Grove goes high over the defense with a jump-shot. Bob Bushnell (14) moves toward basket.
Bob charts a new play to increase the team's offensive power.
When that ball comes down something's going to happen. Howard Sullivan (13), Bob Bushnell (14), and "Whitey" get ready to move in.

The Wolves control the tip-off in the opening seconds of the Portland State series.

Right--Charley Pinion attempts to make good with a gift toss. Sam McKenzie (10) and Bob Frantz (23) tensely wait for a rebound.
Below—Frank Rosenstock guides a high-arcing shot over the outstretched fingers of an anxious opponent.

TRACK

Track prospects for this year looked very good; then the Army removed the boys from school and only five men were left. All performed very well and McKenzie, who was high point man, was chosen to be most valuable. The season ended with Coach McArthur's crew finishing second in the conference standings. Next year O. C. E. will have one of the best tracks available for the boys to run on.

McKenzie's jump is measured by Coach McArthur.

BASEBALL

After a slow start due partly to the stubbornness of Jupiter Pluvius, the Wolf "troops" came through and knocked off some big games including the Northwest conference champs and runners-up, Willamette and Linfield, respectively. OCE failed to regain its OCC baseball crown in the annual tournament as Portland State edged the Wolves 9 to 8 in the championship game. Thus the overall season record of 7 wins and 6 losses failed to impress; but behind it all, the season was successful in providing a means of learning the valuable sportsman-like attitude in winning and in losing.

BACK ROW: Left to Right: Jolma, Tupper, Frantz, Dasch, Miller, Huston, Sittser, Coach Livingston.
SECOND ROW: Camp, Robinson, Palmquist, Grassman, Montgomery, Knudsen, Lewis.
Right—Eager for the call to play ball, the sluggers get those war clubs up for action and that old "blood in the eye" look that caused opposing pitchers to tremble in their spikes.

Left—These veterans performed under OCE banners for the last time as they completed their eligibility with the close of the 1953 season.
Coach Ruckman was greeted by a veteran team this year and they responded with a very good season. S. O. C. E. was beaten once and Portland State was defeated twice. Doug Nelson proved to be the man of the hour as he consistently won his matches. Teammates realized this as they elected him the most valuable player. The conference meet was rained out as were several others.
