OF OREGON COLLEGE OF EDUCATION

-In recognition of the recent improvements

within this department-

WE DEDICATE . . .
PRESENTED
ASSOCIATED STUDENTS of the
Oregon College of Education
Monmouth, Oregon
MRS. OMA BELLE McBEE

A respected teacher and sincere friend to all who know her, Mrs. McBee has served on this campus for thirty-one years. Her work with joint degree students and the visitation program deserves much recognition and gratitude.
Students and Friends of OCE:

I note with pride the many activities portrayed in this year's GROVE. To the student body officers, publication editors, staff, and to all others who have had a part in its preparation, I extend my sincere commendation.

A college student body carries a considerable responsibility. Theirs is the task of preserving the best inherited from the past and improving the program each year as a heritage to pass along to those who follow in their footsteps.

With the new curricular programs in Secondary Education and General Studies to be inaugurated next year, OCE is on the threshold of a new and interesting era. We as students, staff, and alumni, working together, accept this challenge to render even greater service to Oregon's youth.

The "Hello Dance", being held September 21, was a period for the new students and the old students to get acquainted. This was done amid an overture of "Hello! What is your name?" or "Hi! Where have you been? What did you do this summer?"

The 1953 Homecoming Weekend was held on November 6 and 7. The highlight of the weekend was the winning of the Homecoming Game against Portland State which gave OCE the championship for the fourth straight year. Frances Williams was crowned Queen for the 1953 festivities during the halftime. The Homecoming Dance climaxed one of the most successful Homecomings in OCE history.
The Homecoming activities require much planning. Some of the results of Saturday were shown on the preceding page. Here are some of the activities on Friday night.

Homecoming co-chairmen Don Brostrom, Ann Hansen, and Jim Riggs.

The noise parade and the bonfire add extra excitement and anticipation to the expectations of the crowd.
Girls took the initiative at the Sadie Hawkins Dance, November 14, which was sponsored by Collecto Coeds and Wolf Knights. Nancy Cross and Gil Little were chosen as the best dressed couple; Dorothy Peterson and Morris Culver were picked for having the best individual costumes. Candidates for the most eligible spinsters and bachelors were Darlene Kinslow, Pat Patterson, and Lucy Goyak; Norman Robinson, Mouse Davis, and Don Wickstrand. From this group Darlene and Don were chosen to reign over the Sadie Hawkins Dance.

The OCE Victory Bell is inspected by Sabra McGowan and Pat Todd.

Meeting for a friendly chat are Donnale Smith, Mary Ann Hudson, and Dot Swigart. The modern design of the library lends a pleasant background for this.

Donnale Smith and Don Wickstrand seem to be having a good time as they practice a squad dance step in the Faculty Lounge.
The right book for studying is given to Eric Jacobson by Evelyn Lebold.

All work and no play is not an adage believed in by Dot Swigart, Don Kipp, Pat Watt, and Don Wickstrand as they gather around the piano for a song-fest.

Relaxing in Maple Hall are Sabra McGowan and Pat Todd as they take time off for a few minutes to enjoy a cup of coffee.
FOLKS'

On January 29 and 30, the annual Folks' Festival was held on the OCE campus. Parents were invited to come and enjoy a program put on by the student body.

Among the activities were tours of the campus conducted by Staff and Key and Collecto Coeds, a Talent Show, and a Luncheon in Todd Hall.

Highlight of the evening was the announcement of the Sweethearts chosen by the two clubs. The presidents presented the two to the awaiting crowd.
ALL-CAMPUS SING

The first All-Campus Sing was held this year with a large number of participants entering the contest. The theme was "Rhapsody In Blue" and all songs sung contained the word blue in the title.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

Each year FTA holds many informative meetings; a meeting may concern opportunities for foreign teaching, the general procedure of an interview, the codes of ethics for teaching, or a social meeting.

Collectos is one of the girls' service organizations on the campus. Two activities co-sponsored by this club are the Sadie Hawkin's Dance and the Sweetheart Ball.

A new award, the Jacqueline Stockard Memorial Award, is presented by this club to the outstanding music student of the year.

COLLECTO COEDS

STAFF AND KEY

Also a service organization, Staff and Key helps with many of the activities on the OCE campus. Its main activity of the year, is the All-American Formal presented each fall. Staff and Key also sponsors a dance during spring term.

Some of the duties of the service clubs include ushering or selling refreshments at the different college functions.
Wolf Knights is the men's service honorary. This club assists at athletic functions, assemblies and plays. Winter term Wolf Knights co-sponsors the Sweetheart Ball.

WOLF KNIGHTS

WRA

The Women's Recreational Association participates in three major sports: volleyball, basketball, and softball. Activities include both intermural and intramural play. Individual sports such as tennis, badminton, and ping pong are played.

Sig Ep is the women's scholastic honorary. It performs many services such as helping with the Blood Bank and publishing the Wolf Calls each year. In addition to serving the school, the club strives to promote scholarship.

SIGMA EPSILON PI

THETA DELTA PHI

Theta Delta Phi, men's scholastic honorary, for- thers scholarship and citizenship on the OCE cam- pus. Each Thursday a noon luncheon is held at Arnold Arms. Once a term, the club holds a banquet at which time a guest speaker talks with the group.
Going, going, gone! John Pizzuti sells a pie at the Phi Beta Pie Social.

Enjoying the results of the evening are DeVos, Yuranek, Avina, Pizziti, Mayer, and Hendrickson.

Phi Beta is a teachers’ honorary designed to develop professional attitudes and to further scholarship.

Among its activities this year were the publishing of a "Newspaper", the annual banquet, and a pie social to raise funds for a TV set in Maple Hall.
The main activity of Alpha Psi is the presentation of plays to the student body and the public. This is a national honorary to promote interest in dramatics and may be joined only after participation in dramatic productions.

Crimson O is a dramatics club open to anyone interested in acting or in plays. Members give assistance to Alpha Psi in the presentation of the plays and other activities.
Kappa Pi is a national art fraternity in the United States. Its purpose is to promote art interest, scholarship, and ability. This year the OCE chapter, assisted at a tea given during the showing of water colors taken from the Ford and Lincoln-Mercury Times magazine.

The paintings shown in the gallery were studied by students and public during the Ford Exhibition.

Art is not only in paintings as shown by the centerpiece on the table in front of Mrs. Heath and Mrs. Robin Maaske.
The folk and square dance club on campus is d'OCE-do. The club's many activities include the rhythms program at Mac Laren's, School for Boys, exhibitions during the half-time at basketball games, and folk and square dance festivals with other colleges.

Most of the dances are called by members of the club. An all-school folk and square dance is sponsored each term.

"Rah! Rah! Wolves!" is the familiar cry of the girls who belong to the Pep Club. The Wolvettes can be seen at every home game lending their support to the school teams.

Besides their presence at games, they sponsor half-time entertainment for all home games and they present a marching drill for the enjoyment of the spectators of the basketball game.
The OCE Wolves capped a successful gridiron season by winning the Oregon Collegiate Conference championship for the fourth consecutive year. The Wolves opened the season in the Myrtle Bowl game at Coos Bay, and bounced the Southern Oregon College Red Raiders 40-14. Following this victory the Wolves lost decisions to Pacific University 26-14, Linfield College 19-8 and the University of British Columbia 20-6. In the opening conference action, OCE emerged on the long end of a 19-0 victory over the Oregon Tech Owls. The next game found the Humbolt Lumberjacks too much by 13-0. Returning to league action the Wolves edged Eastern Oregon 24-20, and then in the annual homecoming game defeated PSC 27-0 for the OCC championship.

Brilliant senior Charley Pinion, a nominee for little All-American, along with Ray Hubbard, Ray Cummings and Arden Detering were placed on the OCC all star first team.

Determination
The 1953-54 Wolves definitely suffered from lack of height. This inability to cope with the advantageous height to their opponents was a drawback for the otherwise fast, spirited, and capable team. The teams never say die spirit proved to make them popular wherever they performed. Seniors Bob Frantz, Frank Grove, and Charles Pinion closed out their basketball careers at Oregon College and their empty shoes will be hard to fill.

The contributions these men have made to this school in their colorful and sportsman like careers cannot be repaid in any single act; but our appreciation can be shown by saying "Thanks for a job well done," and meaning every word of it. Good luck Frank, Chuck, and Bob.
The Women's Recreational Association has a thorough volleyball program which includes several different volleyball teams. These are the two traveling teams from the group. Some of the colleges they have played in their schedule are George Fox, Oregon State, Portland State, and Clark College.
