Hail, stately, leafy vegetable,
Which on the glaring afternoons
Of one of Oregon's daintier Junes
Tries nature's rasping edge to dull!

The best things in this universe
Are, so intones the prayer, scot free.
So, carping critic spare that tree,
Even though it seems no boon to verse.

The poet says poems are made by fools,
But trees provide us shade by schools.

THE '59
President's Message

Oregon College of Education was established as a state-supported educational institution in 1882. OCE's rich history, however, began much earlier and actually pre-dates the admission of Oregon into the Union. For it was in 1856 that Monmouth University, a private Christian college, was organized on the present site of Campbell Hall. Taking into account this early history as a privately-supported college, OCE is easily the oldest institution in the Oregon System of Higher Education.

Pride in one's historical antecedents is always pardonable. During Oregon's Centennial Year failure to note and to emphasize the rich background which the past century has contributed to this college would be unthinkable.

The development of teacher education in Oregon may be charted by the curricular and administrative changes outlined in our bulletins. The progress in public school education in Oregon is interwoven with the influence and activities of the faculty and alumni of this institution. Graduates of Monmouth University, Christian College, Oregon State Normal School, Oregon Normal School, and now Oregon College of Education have influenced Oregon's educational history far beyond their numerical expectations.

Those of us who constitute the current faculty and students of OCE gain stimulation from our historical traditions. We must also accept the responsibility of continuing the pattern of responsible leadership established by our institutional forefathers. I urge you to join me in dedicating ourselves to the Centennial spirit with its emphasis upon creating our future rather than merely revering our past.

Sincerely,

[Signature]

Wolves Knock Vikings into League Cellar

OCE's Wolves pushed Portland State deeper into the cellar of the OCC by trouncing the Vikings 22 to 7 at Roosevelt high school. The score was 7-0 at the half.

Saturday's contest was a one-sided affair as OCE ground out 188 yards on the ground while holding the Vikings to a mere 34. The passing game of the Wolves was below par due to a muddy turf but the running of Jack Kapp, Charlie Harris, Mel Marquardt, Jerry Flug, Walt Pond, and Herb Graves proved to be more than enough to overpower the sluggish Viking squad.

After missing scoring opportunities in the first period the Wolves' Stan Kenyon picked off a Viking pass on the Portland State 16 yard line to set the stage for the first score of the game. Four plays later Jack Kapp plunged into the end zone for a six point lead which OCE held at halftime.

PSC took the second half kickoff but lost the ball as Charlie Harris hit halfback Gene Hedrick causing him to fumble on the Viking 7 yard line. Francis Tresler, OCE guard, recovered and the Wolves took it from there. Once again it was Kapp diving over for the score from 2 yards out. George Ross converted to increase the OCE lead to a 13 to 0 count.

Later in the fourth period Bowlen recovered a PSC fumble and the Wolves reached the Viking 8 yard line before returning the ball via the fumble route. On the next play Viking quarterback Gary Behnke, was dropped in the end zone by Herb Herman for a safety to give OCE two more points.

Portland State once again kicked to the Wolves who quickly began a sustained drive that led them to the Viking 18. On the next play Bowlen handed off to who went all the way down the field for the final touchdown. The score was 22 to 7.

George Fox jumped to an early lead which they held until halftime at the 8:37 mark on a field goal by the Wolves' Jim Claus. This gave the Wolves a 14 to 13 lead and they were never headed the rest of the game.

Behind the steady scoring of Hal Sherk and forward Harry Hendy the Wolves moved to 17 halftime bulge. Henry is a second-year All-stater from Dallas, where he has field goals and added 10 points during the last half. Hendy, who scored with 19 seconds remaining, has the highest scorer of the 17 Quakers, hitting 5 long shots and 2 points in OCE's victory.

The second half of the game was controlled by the Wolves in the second half coach Busty Burton substituting for the inexperienced squad. Dennis Spencer and Randy Jones hit all four in five personal attempts for the Quakers hit 9 of 19 gift them a 13 and 11 point margin.

The Wolves went on to Vancouver, B.C., where the University of British Columbia in a game scheduled.

Sports

Who had this to say about the University of British Columbia's win over OCE?

McArthur: "They are just going to have to do in order to win the game."
The 1958 season was a rebuilding year for the Wolves with 15 of the 25 lettermen being first year men. The three seniors on the team — fullback Charlie Harris, halfback Stan Kenyon, and center Len Breuer — were all selected to the Oregon Collegiate Conference first team along with freshman end Frank Colburn. Honorable mention selections to the All Conference team from OCE were Jerry Flug, Don Habel, and Jack Kapp.

Freshman halfback Jack Kapp lead the team scoring with 46 points and the yards gained rushing with 352 yards in 64 carries for a 5.5 yards per carry average. The season’s completion saw Charlie Harris selected by his teammates as honorary captain, Herb Hermann as most valuable player, Jack Kapp as outstanding freshman back, and Frank Colburn as outstanding freshman lineman.

The season’s record of 5 wins and 4 losses compiled with the 3 wins and 1 forfeit in conference play by a freshman dominated team was considered by the team members and the coaching staff to be a highly successful season.

The old Wolverton Home, built during the 1880's, was acquired by the College in 1927 and served as "temporary facilities for the Music Department" for more than thirty years. The construction of the present building provides for the first time in the history of the institution adequate housing for music instruction and activities.

The new Music Building not only adds to the beauty of the campus, but more importantly, it provides much-needed classrooms and other instructional facilities.

The O.C.E. Wolves barely missed the play-off of the NAIA District Championship by losing one game. The team started slow but progressed rapidly as the season went along.

The four graduating players were Dick Gilbert, Gary Milton, John Sutton, and Dean Sorenson. Ray Derrah was voted the most valuable player of the year.
The O.C.E. Golf Team, with very few returning lettermen, had a slow season. The mainstays of the team were George Ross and Dewey Tuttle. The opponents of O.C.E. were Pacific University, Lewis and Clark College, Linfield, Portland State, and Willamette University. O.C.E. placed third in the OCC Championships.

The two graduating seniors of the team are George Ross and Dewey Tuttle. With four returning veterans, next year should be a very successful year.
