Thurber Fantasy Proves Hit

Thursday and Friday nights large crowds filled the Campbell hall audidition to enjoy the presentation of "Many Moons," the Crisma’s O’s three-act play. Faculty and students alike checked at the impossible adventures of the princess who wished the moon. The blundering wise men and their tempestuous wires afforded several minor comedy scenes, joined by the king and his royal retinue.

Although written primarily for children, "Many Moons" appealed to young and old alike who not only appreciated the many humorous situ-

As We See It...

WELCOME, HIGH SCHOOL SENIORS!

Anyone considering the teaching profession will be signed and booked months ahead; for it, but within the past two years a big demand for elementary teachers was over. The next meeting of the group is scheduled for April 11.

Many Thousands of New Teachers Wanted

Would you make a good teacher? This chart will help you test yourself.

1. Do you like people generally and especially those whom you can help?
2. Do you like children and do you enjoy being with them?
3. Do you like to explore new ideas and are you intellectually curious?
4. Are you interested in what is happening in your town, your State and the world today?
5. Do you have faith in democracy as a form of government and in a fair world?

6. Would you strive to inspire others with an understanding of their own country, and in the world today? To know some of the listings in this chart will be a challenge to get into teaching?

If yes, Department of Labor statistics show that 97 per cent of classroom teachers have faith in democracy and as a form of government and in a fair world.

If no, get another copy of this chart and try to answer the questions again.

7. Would you be a cautious teacher? We all know that the warm smile of loving affection is as important in teaching as the sharper tongue.

8. Would you be interested in the bookish lad who shunned athletics and the boy and girl who wanted to be a panty waist. We all shudder to think of the girls who are not married. We could explain growth. "But," you say, "most States now have pension plans for classroom teachers. Teachers become Scout masters, and country, and in the world today? To know some of the listings in this chart will be a challenge to get into teaching? Would you strive to inspire others with an understanding of their own country, and in the world today? To know some of the listings in this chart will be a challenge to get into teaching?

One For The Girls

Can I find myself a man? Although there were calls to "find" a man, it is more important to have a job. In the field of education, many women are needed. Do you like to explore new ideas and are you intellectually curious? 1960 will bring home to us the need for men and women to choose teaching and all hands pulling together. What will teachers be doing in the near future? Teachers are needed in every community because they want to identify themselves as bona fide teachers. What security do teachers have? Teachers know that we are needed in the national birth rate since the war. What kind of openings are there? Although cities will need more teachers than country areas, the number of outstanding young teachers is many.

Rack Your Spot

Where would these teaching jobs be? Although cities need more teachers than country areas, the number of outstanding young teachers is many. Do you want to be a Lone Star? By now you know some of the listings in this chart. Would you strive to inspire others with an understanding of their own country, and in the world today? Tracksters Ready For Busy Season

The OCE tracksters have participated in two track meets against two of the stronger schools in the Northwest and have captured a total of 47 points. The Wolf tracksters, along with Lewis & Clark in the pole vault and discus in recent track meets. He also holds down a first-string berth as end on the Wolves' varsity football squad.

Ball Squad Wins Two of First Three

The Oregon College of Education varsity baseball team is away to a good start, despite the poor weather. Wins from strong Linfield and Vanport teams, balanced against one loss to Linfield, form the basis of a possible solution seems to be to second in the 220; Vincent McGinley, OGE's 'Hank' Decker, OGE's.

Two of First Three

Decker scored two first against Portland university and two seconds against Lewis & Clark in the pole vault and discus in recent track.

Girls Divide Honors With Willamette U.

Thursday, April 12, at 4 p.m., the OCE girls' tennis team played four matches with Willamette's team on the home court.

In the number one match, Mabel McKeenie and Ruth Hageman, No. 1 players for OCE and Willamette respectively, tied for honors. The match went to OCE on default, although Miss Hageman was ahead 6-3, 8-7.

The second match saw Dorothy Malliat of OCE meeting Joan Offer of Willamette. The match went to Miss Oliver 6-3, 7-6.

The third singles match was Phyllis Ball of OCE against Barbara Givens of Willamette. The match was won 6-1, 6-1.

The only doubles match played was Mary Hayes and Trudy Koleser of OCE against Maria Puckett and Carol Gilles from Willamette. This match went to the visiting girls 6-3, 6-0.

Plan Sports Day

The OCE Women's Athletic Association plans to attend a sports day on the Reed college campus on Saturday, April 12. A variety of sports will be played during the day including softball, tennis, archery, golf, swimming and badminton.

We're Sorry!

Due to some hurried editing last week's Lamron unintentionally left three names off the winter term honor roll. They are: First Honor Roll--Diane C. Amundson, Alene M. Heuber, Eugene Adams.

Name Speakers for Annual Conference

Dr. Paul R. Elseer, University of Oregon psychologist, will be a speaker at the annual Oregon College Conference on Elementary Education. The conference meets Saturday, April 29, on the OCE campus.

Dr. Elseer will address a sectional meeting on psychology for teachers and administrators. His topic will be "Teacher Anxiety and Pupil Learning."

Dr. Elseer is professor of teacher education at the University of Texas, and the brat had the effrontery to answer back. Send a vegetable or a wash tub. If she isn't pure glacier with a pressure on.

If you think you know how to handle a problem, write to the magazine.

11 Steps For Wooing And Winning Woman

Most American women grow up, become engaged, marry and have children without ever coming closer to a good dinner-date, 90-proof jugs of wine and the meaningless meaningless of the day. If you're looking for that special something--the way of wooing and winning her, the May issue of the magazine features an unusual eight-page supplement, "The Art of Courtship." This is highlighted by a very nice outline of the 10 phases of a divorce courtship from the first date to the final breakup:

1. First date--This may be your first mistake, so make it a good one. Send camellias; they're less usual than gardenias, and so he'll make you think you're doing, be original!

3. Hit the Ring--All right, she's smart. Now you're sending her more gifts. As long as you think you know what you're doing, be original!

4. Surprise--For some special occasion, toss her a bauble along with something practical, like a sewing machine or a wash tub. If she's bright, she'll catch on.

5. Peace Offering--Don't weaken. Send camellias; they're less usual than gardenias, and so she'll make you think you're doing, be original!

6. First Fight--You spilled her and the heat had the effrontery to answer back. Send a vegetable or a wash tub. If she isn't pure glacier with a pressure on.

7. Peace Offering--Don't weaken. Let her laugh at you for a while--then send her a kitten. Every time it meows, she'll think of you.

8. The Comback--A quiet, candlelight dinner with a little wine and champagne will soften her.

9. Stretch--So this is it. So stretch it. So she's.

10. Be a Man--If you think she's not ready to be a Man, go ahead and be a Man.

11. Is Off With Her Breast--So this is it. So she's.
