Creed

I BELIEVE IN OREGON COLLEGE OF EDUCATION, THE HOME OF THOSE WHO PREPARE OUR YOUTH OF TOMORROW, THE STAFF OF ENLIGHTENMENT FOR OUR POSTERITY, AND THE MEMORIAL TO THOSE WHO HAVE HELPED US COME THIS FAR. I BELIEVE IN THE TRADITIONS IN HER UNWRITTEN BOOK OF STANDARDS, IN HER CLOSE-KNIT BAND OF BROTHERHOOD AND HER HELPING HAND EXTENDED FOR THE MULTITUDE THAT GRASPS FOR IT. HER HIGH IDEALS FOR SCHOLASTIC ABILITY AND SPORTSMANSHIP SHALL BE AN INCENTIVE AND EXAMPLE TO HELP MAKE OUR WORLD A BETTER PLACE IN WHICH TO LIVE.

I PLEDGE MY UNWAVERING LOYALTY AND DEVOTION TO HER AS DOES THE TAWNY WOLF THAT BEARS HER NAME: I SHALL PROCLAIM HER TO ALL AS A SYMBOL OF PROTECTION FOR TODAY, SECURITY FOR TOMORROW, AND A BETTER WORLD FOR ALL IN THE FUTURE.
Dedication

DR. R. E. LIEUALLEN

who for many years served the students of Oregon College of Education with devotion and dedication. As president of our college, Dr. Lieuallen gave to our campus that genius which is characteristic only of great men of education, and in so doing, he gave to all those present and to follow, the genius of a flame which shall burn forever, and which shall be a torch lighting the way for education in a world where darkness so often reigns. Dr. Lieuallen's leadership now, as Chancellor of the State System of Higher Education, only carries forward into greater perspective that great leadership he gave, and is giving, and which we follow.

Administration
Dear OCE Students:

While going about trying to get acquainted in Oregon, I have been inspired by the number of leaders in Oregon communities and in Oregon education who are OCE graduates and by the respect in which OCE students are generally held. Being new, perhaps I risk error in attempting to characterize you so as to explain this condition, but perhaps fresh eyes and a background elsewhere for comparison will compensate somewhat for newness.

I am not the only new person on the campus to observe a general lack of affectation and pretense in students here and a disposition to be frank and open. A minimum amount of self pity, to me the most destructive emotion wasting young lives in our times, may account for the absence of spitefulness and whining which you evidence. If there are any snobs among you, I have not seen one, nor have I seen an inverted snob; neither have I observed the overly familiar. Respect for knowledge protects you from sentimentality. Sense of humor keeps you from taking yourselves, and me, too seriously.

In many projects this year you have demonstrated the competence and the sense of responsibility which the best adult leaders possess. This demonstration is no surprise to one who knows you. That you will demonstrate the same sense of responsibility and competence in your professional and community lives appears certain. I would not be surprised if seventeen years from now some interested person coming into the state for the first time and going about attempting to get acquainted will remark with wonder how many educational and community leaders are graduates of OCE.

The institution will be proud of you, as it is now, and some of us will say that this is just what we predicted.

Sincerely,

LEONARD W. RICE, President

Living Groups
Arbuthnot Hall

Katharine Arbuthnot Hall was dedicated on January 27, 1963. It is organized under the Honor System, a democratic government, which places residents on their honor to comply with basic courteous conduct codes that are conductive to harmonious group living. The basic concept is one of personal and individual responsibility rather than one of imposed authority. The dormitory also strives to create an atmosphere of friendliness and cooperation.

Todd Hall

Jessica Todd Hall is a living organization housing one hundred eighty-five women. Dormitory life is governed by the Dormitory Council which consists of the officers, counselors and house mother. There are six units in the dormitory with a counselor in charge of each unit.

The women of Jessica Todd Hall have been very active this year achieving high honors in competitive campus functions. Members of the dormitory have worked together as a close knit group throughout the year. The closeness that has been exemplified is a very unique factor for a living organization of this size.

The Cottage

The Cottage is a living group housing twenty-nine women. It is run on the honor system with the counselor acting as the resident housemother. Each girl acts as a general hostess for the dorm and is an integral part of the dorm’s functioning. Dorm life is governed by the House Council which consists of the officers and counselors.

The unity of the Cottage has been displayed throughout the year by the many awards and achievements its members have won.

Arnold Arms

The goal of Arnold Arms is to provide a congenial atmosphere conducive to both social and intellectual development. To achieve this goal the men of A.A. choose their own student government and are encouraged to participate in deciding on the activities and living procedures for the dorm. This provides an opportunity for each individual of the dorm to make the most of his college experience.

Roben J. Maaske Memorial Hall is a men’s residence hall that houses 100 men. The men of Maaske are self-governed and work together to provide a more organized government, to promote good will among the residents, and to foster better relations between the campus student government and their hall. They eagerly worked throughout the year to gain possession of the inter-dorm most active dormitory award, which they won the previous year. To further the success of the all campus drive, they held a pancake benefit in February and donated part of the money to the A.C.D. Fund. A further portion of the money was donated to the local boy scout troop.
Vet's Village

O.C.E.'s first co-educational dorm, Vets Village, housed 56 male and female students in the fall term of 1962. These students worked together throughout the term on various campus projects.

The Co-ed Dorm, with its 16 girls and 40 boys, created a feeling of closeness and friendliness amongst the members. Not only did they get to know each other well, but also became aware of the problems and difficulties which had to be overcome by co-ed living.

Intercollegiate Knights

Fall term, 1962, the Wolf Knight Chapter of Intercollegiate Knights were very active. They initiated nine new pledges, put on their annual barbeque, nominated Caroline Richen as region princess and took her to E.O.C. to participate in the Region II Princess Contest held there. At the same time, seven members of the Wolf Knight Chapter attended the Region II conference. They also co-sponsored the Sadie Hawkins dance and are looking forward to co-sponsoring a winter formal with Collectos. With a membership of thirty-one members, the Wolf Knights are looking forward to a very good year in 1963.
