THE CITY: HOSPITAL ACTS TO FORM BLOOD RESERVOIR

BLOOD DONORS REQUESTED

With the increase in hospital patients and the expected rise in illnesses due to the extreme cold, the medical staff saw the need for a list of possible blood donors. Those who wish to volunteer for this service are asked to come to the medical laboratory, where the donors may have even a blood test and be cataloged. The laboratory is open from 9 AM to 4 PM. As the need is immediate, civic-minded residents will render a great aid to their community by prompt replies to the hospital appeal, it was added.

Meanwhile, it was revealed that the hospital is now equipped with complete X-ray machinery. It will now be possible to take pictures as well as utilize the fluoroscope to see moving organs within the body. E. McKenna, of the Los Angeles branch of the Kelly-Kott Manufacturing Co. (makers of X-ray equipment at Covington, Ky.) is here to install the equipment.

The hospital's new X-ray machine is large and capable of taking pictures at a very short exposure of 1/50 of a second. It is one of the newest types manufactured and is completely shock-proof. Pictures may be taken in both horizontal and vertical positions. The control stand is automatic to protect the X-ray equipment and the patient.

McKenna, who has had 56 years of experience in the X-ray line, will instruct technicians of Topaz, Dr. Selzo Murata, Kazumi Negri, and Hide Kawahara, on the operation of the instrument and also on the development of films.

RUMORS OF TRUST FUND DISPENSED

In order to dispel wild rumors which are circulating throughout the City, it was stated explicitly at the meeting of the Community Council Monday afternoon that "no trust fund of any sort has as yet been set up."

It was also pointed out that there was a difference between an "evacuee trust fund" and "community fund." According to the WRA manual, three trustees, selected by workers, will be in charge of an "evacuee trust fund" and its disbursements will only go to workers, so that in other words an "evacuee trust fund" is a workers' trust fund. A "community fund," however, will be used for the residents and will be controlled by the self-government.

The need of educating the residents on all phases of the labor situation was urged strongly at the meeting.

A preliminary report on the City charter was made by James Hishinuma. Final draft of the charter will be ready by next Monday, Hishinuma said. As an interesting sidelight, he read the charter of Manzanar.

MAXIM SCHAPIRO: That the President's should be cited for rising above the toils of their duties was the assertion of Maxim Schapiro, after a 3-day visit in Topaz City. Schapiro, noted Russian pianist, left Monday for his San Francisco home, after completing a concert tour of New York and other American cities. Radiating his pleasures in being among former friends and students, the pianist declared, "I'm here to get the feel of camp life through first-hand information, because from the very beginning I've had a personal and human interest in the evacuation movement."

"I'm especially happy to be here, because there is a wonderful report to this tragedy—the Japanese people are wonderful about this whole war. There's hope in the people. The people are the whole salvation of this thing, evacuation," he concluded.

One of his former students who was here to welcome him was Mina Kii, whom Schapiro left as an artist with the name in her own right.

TEIGU NOSUCHI: Though the advantages of agriculture are limited in Topaz as compared to Boston, this is compensated by the quality of the "evacuee" farmers here, observed Irasu Nosuchi, noted sculptor. At the conclusion of his 3-day stay, Nosuchi arrived Sunday for Tora Emery's wedding, and left Monday afternoon for New York, manifesting an enthusiastic interest and admiration in the residents.
