SCHOOL TO USE SIREN FOR PERIOD CHANGES

Beginning Monday, May 31, the use of a siren at the high school for the passing of classes will be started, it was disclosed.

Considerable difficulty has been encountered at the school in making the students in the classrooms hear either a bugle or the small electric buzzers which had been obtained for a signal system.

Through the cooperation of the State Fish and Game Department, the Tri-State High School has secured the use of a hand-operated fire siren, which has been installed.

Centers To Be Investigated

The Dies committee will start a hearing on June 7 on reports of its field investigators that Japanese in relocation centers are being pampered and thousands are being released without proper surveillance, reports from Washington are disclosed.

Officials of the WRA will be asked to testify, Robert E. Stripling, committee secretary said.

At the high school office,

This notice is being put in the paper so that the residents near the high school will not be unduly alarmed at the repeated warnings of the fire siren.

NEA WRITER VISITS GILA

The Gila Center can expect more publicity soon as the result of a visit by feature writer Harlow Church of the Philadelphia Leader and the Anne News-Pictures, according to the May 20 issue of the Gila News-Courier.

Church had previously visited Boston and was scheduled to go to Manzanar to write special news articles.

When questioned about whether he thought evacuees were being pampered, he said: "I don't think anyone can be pampered on 41 cents a day food allowance.

Before a record-breaking crowd yesterday afternoon, the Tule Lake All-Stars started the 1943 campaign by whitewashing the Klamath Falls Felines by 16-0 score.

Pitchers George Coto and John Nakao limited the Felines to 4 scattered hits in 7 innings.

2 Volunteers On Furlough

Taking advantage of the seven-day furlough, two of the six volunteers for the combat unit who left for Safford City a week ago, James Okube and Hisao Hayashi, came back to the center for a brief visit Friday and Saturday.

One volunteer, it was reported, went back to Sacramento. Some went east for their furlough.
OGI DESCRIBES LIVING CONDITIONS IN WISCONSIN

Chester Ogi, who was on the Research Staff of the Tule Lake Planning Board, in his recent letter to Don Elbereon, advisor to the Tule Lake Cooperative Enterprise, says, "the trip here was another pleasant episode of meeting the various people that came in and out of our car. Soldiers, civilians and drunks paid no attention to my nationality. We just had a merry old bull-session way into the night."

Mr. Ogi is now employed by the Central Cooperative Wholesale of Superior, Wisconsin. Due to its sound and conservative management it has steadily grown to be one of the largest cooperative organizations of its kind in the country.

With regards to living conditions, Chester Ogi says, "the rent ranges from $15 to $40 for a house. Went into a Co-op grocery store and things aren't too expensive, but they are far lower than I have seen anywhere on the outside at the present time."

"None," he concludes, "will get anywhere by sitting back hoping that a position is going to be thrown on even a dirty platter."

YBA RALLY FOR WARDS 3, 4, AND 7 SET

The YBA pre-conference Bussed rally for Wards 3, 4, and 7 will be held on June 3, it was announced by Tak Hitomi, general chairman for the affair. Bids for the rally are now on sale for $50, and may be obtained at the block representatives of the above mentioned wards. After June 1, bids will be on sale at $50 and at the Tulean Dispatch office.

Chaparrones for the evening will be Moses and Matsueda, John Fujiiya and Chi Chi, Teraoka, Haverly, E. Liao and G. Hirabayashi.

The coming of summer has driven the "fatrine prophets" out of their nightly meeting place into a more wholesome atmosphere.

This strange group came into existence when with the coming of cold weather stoves were installed in the shower rooms. Old men and even young men stood around the stove and just "showed the rode" for hours. Here they discussed the topic of the day, wired their views and made predictions of things to come. Hence, the term "fatrine prophets." They were the same hub from which all rumors and gossips radiated throughout the colony. "Yes, we're going to move to Minnesota. This news came straight from shower room in the next block." This is just a sample of the kind of talk which went on at the gathering of this group. Opinions expressed here were interpreted as the gospel truth.

Fathers and mothers—yes, they had their group too—want to take their children and go home for two three hours. Just like the play "Drunkard," the children often had to go and bring them home with "father, mother, please come home, the baby is hungry, the house is a mess. You've been out every night this month."

Now that summer is here this group has dispersed. People have met in sorts of peculiar places either to discuss affairs of the state or just gossip, but the "Center of the Bunch of the Fatrine Location Centers" is quite unique.

In all the annals of history it is doubtful if one can find anything comparable to it.

Co-op Loses 2 More Workers

The Tule Lake Co-op, which has been feeling the effects of the Man relocation program, will soon be dealt another heavy blow when Miss Arisy Oga and Mr. Yoshimi Shigata depart from the Project on June 1, reports Maeko Kawada, educational director. Miss Oga, until her resignation, was office supervisor and chief accountant at the business office of the Co-op. She had been with the Co-op since its inception. Prior to its organization, she had been employed at the Farmers Union. She is leaving the Project to accept a position with the Eastern Co-op Wholesale in Brooklyn, New York.

RESIDENTS MUST OBSERVE HOSPITAL VISITING HOURS

Strict observance of visiting hours at the Base Hospital was urgently requested in a memorandum from Wilson W. Sugiyama, acting head of the hospital yesterday.

Mr. Yoshimi Shigata, whose services the Co-op was able to enlist in November 1942, was assistant general manager until his resignation. As an assistant manager, he can be attributed the unbroken continuity between the management and the employees," according to Kawada.

Mr. Chibata has accepted a position with the Pacific Paper Company. He will leave the Project in June.

The following jobs are open at Placement office:

- Stenographer to assist with the Co-op program.
- Event coordinator.
- Teacher, male or female, to teach nursery teachers in Ward Y, as soon as possible.

A very impressive program featuring the first discovery of America was put on by Mrs. Alice, third graders of the Hillrock School at 9002-A in honor of their friends and relatives in the armed services of the United States.

- Five World War I veterans: W.M. Ogle, Mr. Soriki, H. Kodani, T. Isahara, and T. Yamamoto assisted with the flag service.

Many guests were present from Klamath Falls and Tule Lake villages.

BOOK ORDER TAKEN

Orders for the anniversary book are being taken at John D. Cooke's office at the Ad. Bldg.

Since copies are very limited, those who wish to get a copy should place their orders immediately.

HOSPITAL VISITING HOURS

Violation of this schedule is causing an unnecessary hardship on the limited staff of nurses and doctors and disrupting the patients' regular routines of sleep and rest.

The visiting hours are plainly posted and honest visitors will be strictly observed. Whether it be a family gathering, a social group, or any other reason, any interruption of routine of the hospital will not be tolerated," it was stated.

Colonists were also asked to discontinue the practice of calling on the doctors at their home for professional advice. These doctors have long and tiresome hours while on duty and deserve their rest while at home.
