OUTSTANDING SUMMER SCHOOL TEACHING STAFF ASSEMBLED

VARIED COURSES FOR ADULTS PLANNED

Drawing on personnel of leading educational institutions, the Adult Education Department has assembled an outstanding summer school staff.

From University of Nevada, in Reno, comes Professor Alice B. Marsh who holds a master's degree in home economics and in education. Mrs. Marsh has also had extensive experience in the organization and management of food processing enterprises and in institutional management.

Mrs. Marsh will offer courses here in waitress training and housekeeping for year-round project workers, and try aid those wishing to prepare for vocational opportunities outside.

The first opportunities will be presented to project employees already working in these fields.

If needed equipment can be secured, Mrs. Marsh will also assist in supervision of the Agricultural Division's canning project. In that event, OSYA canning class will be scheduled.

ART EXHIBIT DECLARED SUCCESSFUL

First prize in the Relocation Center art exhibit at Cambridge, Mass., was awarded to Professor Chiura Obata of Topaz for his painting, "New Moon," according to word received at Tule Lake Center.

"BI-LINGUAL MEETING WILL BE HELD FOR RESIDENTS

Mr. U. B. Herr, principal of the Modoc Adult High School, will offer a new service in bi-lingual meetings devoted to "Understanding America," in Marion. Francis announced.

All recently, the War Department prohibited teaching in Japanese; but the ban has been finally lifted.

Courses such as "Understanding America," in which latest news will be briefly summarized and during which important topics for consultation with the class will be undertaken will clear up many misunderstandings. Interpreters will make it possible for non-Japanese speaking residents to express themselves as well as to ask questions so that they may fully understand what is being said.

Schedule of meetings will be announced later.

NOTICE

The local Red Cross organization wish to get in touch with Seizu Hashimoto whose former address was R.F. 1, Box 148 A, Costeana, Calif. Anyone knowing his whereabouts contact 3001-A.
TULE LAKE FIRST TO HAVE HOG FARM, SLAUGHTERHOUSE

Tule Lake Project was the first among all the centers to have a hog raising farm and a slaughterhouse. The hog farm and the slaughterhouse are combined under the title of Agriculture Marketing.

Heading the slaughterhouse crew is Kai Kinoshita, foreman, with Tom Tani as head of the herd crew, and Mickey Takagi, assistant foreman. There are approximately 20 other workers, most of whom had experience in butchering before.

An average of 50 hogs per week are slaughtered for Project use. After the hogs are killed and cleaned, then they are cut into bacon, loin, ham, shoulders, and ribs. The bacon is salted and smoked by Tom Tani who is an expert in that line.

FLOWER CLASS

A Sanke Mortuna-Ru class will start Wednesday, June 9, at 5038 with Miss Aiko Yokota in charge and classes will be held thereafter from 2-4 p.m. every Wednesday. Registration will be taken at the opening class.

WANTED: Workers for the Co-op. Apply at the Co-op office at 77-N.

JOE NAKAMURA

...of the Dispatch has a very important staff going around in circles. So intent is he in getting this issue out by June 11 (a near impossibility) that he has the staff working on a 24-hour day basis.

And, too, Joe is very much determined to wipe out his reputation as the "Tsunfud" Nakamura. He has been busy free or to engage the help of the Pink Ladies (No doubt he believes in pleasure while working—pleasure for himself, work for the C.R. girls.) If the magazine doesn't come out on time don't blame Joe. Joe has a magazine the Dispatch office is greeted by a busy office, (uncommon to that place—??) cluttered up with papers and more papers. Also one can notice bags under each worker's eyes—a result of Joe's monotonous salary-driving tactics.

Incidentally, the anniversary issue is going to be magnificent according to the editor. "It's selling like hot cakes, so you'd better assure yourself of a copy now," huskily states Joe. Wonder what is going on in the newsroom? Like the hot cakes we get for breakfast each morning at our messes. We MUST CERTAINLY...will miss Tootie Nakanura, our editor-in-chief and Bill Ogura, our research editor, when they return from this project next Tuesday, June 8.

We have looked upon Tootie as a permanent fixture. His humor and personality will miss considerably. He is a newspaper man and has been acting editor and now editor and member of the editorial board of the Dispatch for the last months. As a quiet, unassuming and efficient editor, he was connected with the Logar. He was one of the few veterans left in the administration and Dispatch.

S.F.'S FORMER JAPANESE TOWN WAS SHABBY...SAYS MASHIHARA

John Mashihara, No. 1-A, who was in San Francisco for a series of meetings, upon his return to the Project, Monday, Mashihara apparently won the case and it is being decided outside the court. Mashihara said that he was unnoticed on the city streets. "Probably they thought I was a Chinese," he remarked. "When they did find out that I was a Japanese, first thing I was asked was not what I was doing in the Prohibited Area, but what a certain Tto or a Sato who ran a store down the street was doing. Were they in the same camp as I am?"

The former Haywood newspaperman said that the San Francisco's former Japanese town was shabby and dirty. Drunkeards are littering on the streets.

Photo picture of Mashihara taken in court was used to accompany one of the series of articles in the S.F. Chronicle written by Milton Silverman.

LOST: A red tricycle with a finish around Canteen No. 1. Please return to 706-B.

OUR EDITOR LEAVES TOMORROW

Teuyedi Nakamura, intimately known as "Tootie" amongst his friends, has been the editor and member of the editorial board of the Dispatch for the last months. As a quiet, unassuming and efficient editor, he was connected with the Logar. He was one of the few veterans left in the administration and Dispatch.
INTENSIVE ADULT SUMMER CLASSES PLANNED HERE
