TO THE FRESHMEN

With the turning of the leaves and the shortening of the days, the doors of Oregon College of Education again open, welcoming the 75th class of freshmen. The 75 years have made our college old, rather than decrepit, for they have aided to keep it young, always striving for new goals, as each new class passes through the doors full of hope and hunger for knowledge.

The first few weeks will have great influence upon the future for from the confusion, the pattern for the future years will be established. Confusion at this early stage is normal. If you need help, do not hesitate to ask for it. The very nature and many tradi- tions of OCE are responsible for the reputation for friendliness our school is so proud of. The students and faculty are anxious and ready to lend a helping hand where needed.

Above all, do not become flustered by the haste and bustle of these first few weeks. Sit down and take time to get your bearings. If you find your college life you will soon find it an almost unconscious habit. You will know what you are going to do and where.

Once you become settled to the pattern you have established you will find things much easier than you expected. Do not let this fool you, however, college is much harder than high school. If you set your mind to it this work will be fun: learn to enjoy it for the next four years will pass only too fast and you will in later years look back upon them as some of the best and most fruitful years of your life.

With the Fall in sight let’s settle down to a year of hard work and a lot of fun. We are happy to have you join us and hope you will stay. Everyone will help you all they can. You may only be what you make it. Above all else, keep your goal in sight and remember why you are here. You are the 75th class at OCE — help us to be proud of you.

OREGON YOUTH OFFERED CHANCE TO LIVE ABROAD

Oregon youth who want a first-hand view of life overseas, have an opportunity to live abroad next year at a nominal expense-paid, if they can qualify for an International Farm Youth Exchange delegates.

State 4-H extension agent Mrs. W. C. Spencer reports that Oregon State college says that young men and women will be chosen in January to make trips during the summer and of the college’s official farm families.

Mrs. Spencer lists qualifications for IFY’s: Single men and women between 18 and 20 years of age, willing to be part of a group of farm life and work; sincere interest in understanding other people and a willingness to study language, history, geology, agriculture and culture of the United States and the country to be visited.

Delegates chosen for trips live with farm families overseas for about six months, learning about life at the “grass roots” level.

About 140 Oregonians from the United States are exchanged each year with 180 youth from 40 different countries. This year for five to eight months under the IFE program Oregon has four delegates and is overseas at present.

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS

by Dick Bibler

"WITH SO MANY NEW FACULTY COMING IN—YER LUCKY YOU EVEN GOT AN OFFICE!"

by George Q. Davison

This column will be written primarily about subjects on the national scene which we think will be of interest to students. Most of the topics will be controversial, primarily to stimulate your thinking. I would appreciate your comments, letters and criticism. Anything goes, except brass knuckles.

Mr. Eisenhower's answer to Mr. Stevenson's two sided statement concerning peacetime military conscription gave me a delayed shock. We fought a war with Germany whose political philosophy was that, "people exist to serve the state." The democratic philosophy is that the "state exists to serve the people." Have we, as America suggests possible, selfishly exchanged a democratic option for a totalitarian point of view by winning the war? Have we instead been conquered by "their" ideas and iron­ fist now proclaim the same goas they proclaimed in 1938?

Mr. Eisenhower's statement seems to indicate that since we have accepted the responsibility of a world power, our allies which make pro-conscription impossible to do without. I maintain that we, as a government, should be willing to compete on the labor market in our own economy for the personnel necessary to fill the ranks of our armed services. This means more taxes as long as we are not willing to pay our way out of our pockets, and adversely supply ourselves out of the lives of kids who won't even be able to vote for two years. We have traded a way of life and a heritage which is rich in the refinement of justice, for one of degradation and decay.

We have made patriotism cheap. We force our junior citizens to make conscription forced! Is there a dire emergency of war? Mr. Nixon can tell you the differences between war and peace.

Men who are called libera and middle-of-the-roaders in both parties in 1946, would have been called conservatives in 1938. This is progress! (Mr. Stevenson next week. The "lax" come first my dear Gaston.)

Commuters’ Comments
by Alvin Warren

This column in general will bring you information and news regarding commuters which we hope will be of interest and value to you. If you have any news items you want to have printed, we would welcome your contribution. Leave them either in the Lamron student post office box or in box 402.

Bennie Sanders, commuter from Salem, has enrolled at OCE in several education courses. Ronnie has a BA degree from Stanford and is now working towards a BS degree in elementary education.

Mrs. Ethel Schilling, Dallas, is back on campus after being absent several months due to major surgery on her back. She spent her summer in a cast but is able to attend school this fall. Welcome back, Mrs. Schilling.

Just a reminder to those of you who park cars in and around the campus. Don’t waste space between cars and there will be room for all.

Samples of Winston cigarettes were passed out in Maple hall Wednesday, compliments of Tool Logan, representative for Camel cigarettes.

Beach Outing Planned
An all campus beach trip is planned for Sunday, October 14. Transportation will be by buses which will leave at 9 a.m. and return at 3 p.m.

Cost will be $1. Those interested should sign up on the list posted in Campbell hall and in the Administration building. The tickets can be purchased in the business office. Sales start on Wednesday and will continue through the week.

CUPID’S CAPERS
By Dolly and Flossy

Dolly and I have decided, a completely compiled Cupid’s Capers column is out of the question. After checking around this week in all the cars, corners and parlors, we’re absolutely sure our early summary of Cupid’s doings is doomed. It’s not even spring and we see signs of it already!

We do want to pass along to you the following marriages of the past summer: Donnalee Smith and Dale Harp; Pat Smith and John Agaska; July Silverstone and Wayno Gage, and Jo Ann Link and Bob Knight. Engaged: Pat Blair and George Jopich; Carole James and Dick Greaves.

I WONDER IF I'M ELIGIBLE, COACH?

OCE's football coaching staff is still checking over the transcriptions of the grades of students who entered if he would be eligible to play football this fall. Coach Bill McArthur promptly asked the young gridiron hopeful how he had done at his high school. Eighties he had passed at his crass school was the reply. "What was your grade-point" asks McArthur? "A 2.83," I think," was the reply. "You mean a 2.83, don't you," queries McArthur. "No," replies the prospective lineman, "I goofed up and got a 2 in English." Guess the guy figured he had to have a four-point to play football.

KSLM TO BROADCAST OCE FOOTBALL GAMES

We are extremely delighted that Oregon College of Education football games will be broadcast this year by radio station KSLM of Salem. All home games will be carried live. The Eastern Oregon game at La Grande will be live also, but the sportscast will originate from a LaGrande station. The Portland State game in Portland will not be broadcast, but a 15-minute phone report immediately after the game will be aired by the Salem station.

These broadcasts, with veteran sportscaster Steve Brody doing the play-by-play, will give OCE fans every opportunity to keep abreast of the Wolves all through the season. We hope that every one who tunes in the games over the airways will take the time to drop the Salem station a note to express appreciation to them for the service they are providing. We also hope that the broadcasts will improve interest in OCE fans throughout the Willamette valley. Memorial Stadium doesn't hold over 2000 fans, but we'd like to see the SBO (standing room only) sign hung out for every home game.

SEASON TICKET SALES OFFER GOOD BARGAIN

No doubt many students attending OCE fall from communities not too far removed from the Monmouth area. We'd like to have mom and dad for boosters of our athletic program (and other non-sports events, too) sign up for season tickets. But if the folks want to be regular grandstand observers, we'd like to suggest that you try and interest them in season tickets.

For the die-hard OCE home game fans in all sports, costs only $10.00; a season football ticket costs just $5.00; and a season ticket for the swimming meets costs $12.00. Of course, you may not mention this plan to your folks next time you are home, or when you write?

NATIONAL LEAGUE RACE GOING TO THE WIRE

By the time this page dries the National League pennant race may be over. We hope his Bums finished second. In fact, as the writer hinted, Brooklyn's pitching staff went a little awry last October 3. Lists will be posted on exte nsion 43.

Wolves Travel to LaGrande for Tilt This Week-end

This Saturday night the OCE Wolves travel to La Grande to meet the ROCE Mountaineers. The game promises to be a real scrap as these two teams, along with Southern Oregon, tied for the conference crown last year. The Mounties have everyone back from last year's squad and are favored again this year.

The Mounties operate out of a split T formation which is led by halfback Elvin Doggett, last year's leading ground gainer in the Oregon Collegiate Conference, and Bill West, a crushing 215 pound fullback who once rushed for Oregon State. Other key men are Jack Harmon, a two year all-league man at end, quarterback Bob Brown and halfback Dick Quillen. Another man to see considerable action is Dale Dixon a fine freshman quarterback.

The Mounties opened their season with a 7-6 win over West college. Last week they absorbed a 7-12 defeat at the hands of College of Idaho, the favored team in the Northwest conference.

Go-ed Tennis Tourney Offered First Time

The first co-educational tennis and volleyball tournament being offered by the intramural athletic committee was headed by Carolyn White and Zel Gernhardt. Tennis will begin immediately, September 28, with signup with partners before October 3. Lists will be posted on the bulletin board in PE 13. Faculty members are invited to participate.

Bob Jones, senior from Portland, is hospitalized at St. Vincent's hospital in Portland. He is suffering from a knee injury.
