Dear Brother it is with pleasure that I embrace the present opportunity of telling you that we are all well at present It is impossible for me to write a long letter we are getting ourselves into trouble out here in Oregon the Indians have broken out up north of the Columbia river we meet to day at the County Seat to raise volunteers to fight them they have also broken out South murdered 20 families and ravage river-daine 300 miles South of us, I volunteered and expect to start day after tomorrow (I have the office of 2nd Sergeant) My object in penning this letter was to tell you to make a deed to Father of that land I let him have, I want you to sell that small piece of land belonging to me and Mr. Hucinson and deed it to Father if I am not at home, If I should never get back all I have is to go to Father unless otherwise ordered I shall write how every chance which will not be many times I shall now leave to a close by asking your prayers for my safety
