Red Devils Get Cold Shower
Instead of Arnold's 'Devil'

by Mary Wyman

The Lower Columbia junior college football team was not satisfied with one victory Saturday; they wanted to take the Arnold Arms' Homecoming devils with them for a souvenir of the game.

The AA girls heard the guys say, "Come on, let's take that devil home with us," then they immediately appeared on the scene and escaped unattended out the window directly on the water while another took "Devil home with them for a souvenir of the game.

The girls who participated in the Grove are listed as: Pat Holman, Keith Jensen, Caroles recipients of annual "Who's na Little, Pat Patterson and Don."

THIS AND THAT
By Jean Storment
Todd has a new way to water the plants growing in a flower box on the ground floor. Simply let the showers overflow on second floor. It gives a nice steady flow with only one problem - the planter wants to fall off the ceiling.

This edition would like to apologize to the girls on second floor for neglecting to report about their "Pink Champagne Party." According to the story, the girls were juggling bottles in the hall when one of them broke. The girls decided not to go one step farther and had their party right here, in the middle of the hall.

A "different" way to scare easily-frightened girls has been perfected in Todd. A balloon is "rigged" on the door so that when it is opened it goes - Whoosh! The girl then screams - and after quiet hours, too!

It is rumored that the girls in Arnold Arms have been studying - anyway that's what they say.

West house has been the scene for the missing mattress act lately. A girl who had gone home for the weekend, returned to find her mattress and some of her clothing gone for a visit elsewhere.

In one major sweep, Todd girls on third floor dinked or showered the residents of that floor, who earned it by getting engaged or going steady. The screams of "No! No!" or "I won't come out!" could be heard all over the dorm. The hall resembled a small irritation cauldron before the evening's "entertainment" went over.

Some freshman girls were sung "under the table" in Todd recently. Mary Sedfeld, a freshman from Turner, is engaged to Don Mickey, a student at OTI. They plan to be married in June.

Margie Scofield, a freshman from Neskowin, is engaged to Gary Penkey of Waldport. The date is set for some time in December.

Suds were emerging from the wrong end of the dish washer in the kitchen on October 25. It seems someone grabbed too much of the wrong thing. People in the kitchen are allying to the scene with bucket and mop.

"Your Student Council Reports"

The coming weeks are providing us some good entertainment in the line of assemblies, according to student council reports. On Wednesday, November 9, there is an FPA sponsored assembly in conjunction with National Education Week. Monday, November 14, at 8 p.m. in the campus hall auditorium will feature a concert by Theodore Umbl, pianist.

The Albany Choristers are to present a program at 8 p.m. on Thursday, November 17. Our next National Assembly will be at 9 p.m. on Tuesday, November 22. According to a report from our assembly commissioner, some of these are still in the planning stage.

The annual visits of council with the orientation classes has been changed this year. One of our regular meetings will be held in CH auditorium with all of the freshman students invited. Alas, no other students who wish to attend are cordially invited. If it is liked most of our meetings it should prove very interesting.

OTI’s basketball squad took its first cut last Friday but there are still six tilts to hopef ully working out every afternoon under the watchful eye of coach McArthur.

The Wolf mentor is very optimistic toward this season’s out-

LOOK with the return of seven house of this year will have on the local gridiron machin e . . McArthur has used the “T” formation for a number of years as have the top big schools in the nation.

If you take a look at the Pacific Coast Conference this season and compare the single wing with the old reliable ‘T’, I believe you’ll find the first three place units are using the wing.

UCLA and Oregon State hold the two first positions and a single power has dropped six tilts and emerged with one victory-and that being over the Vandals of the University of Idaho... Already this new coach has shown the Pacific Coast a “new look” team. The Orange have conquered four of their conference opponents and lost only one marker developed en route to the championship.

This Saturday’s tussle at Ashland will undoubtedly be OC’s hardest pigskin try ...

If the local mechanism can weather the Red Raiders it will give the Wolves the OCC crown for the sixth consecutive sea-

The Wolf team of 1955-56 season, Livingston feels this season’s Wolf Brand will probably be an even better crew than they boasted of last year.
