Fourteen Hawaiians On OCE Fall Roll

A diagnostic speech clinic was held atPhilomath grade school on November 23 as part of the service offered by the Western Oregon Cooperative Speech and Hearing Center at Oregon College of Education.

During the course of the clinic eight children with speech problems were examined and suggestions were offered to parents and teachers for home and school treatment.

Dr. Robert L. Mulder, director of the Western Oregon Cooperative Speech and Hearing Center, conducted the clinic with the cooperation of Mr. William H. Gibson, principal Philomath grade school and Mrs. Helen W. Baker, Benton county school superintendent.

A second clinic is being planned for Philomath for December 12 as it was not possible to examine all the children during one day.

The service is offered for a small fee and is available to the children of the Monmouth area.

Handball Runner-Up

William D. McArthur, who is an all-American runner from the FH department at Oregon College of Education, was runner-up in the all-American championship at Oregon State college recently.

He was successful in the final games, 21-19, 22-20 and 22-20, by Paul Fielding, army veteran from Portland and a graduate student in engineering.

Talks to FTA Chapter

Dr. Robert L. Mulder, director of the Western Oregon Cooperative Speech and Hearing Center at Oregon College of Education, addressed the Future Teachers of America chapter at Mount Angel women's college on Wednesday, December 7. The topic of his speech was "Stage Fright, Verbal Banditry, and Our $400,000 Questions."

Study Berlin Question

The International Relations club topic for this evening will be "The Berlin Question." The meeting will deal with the new Communist squeeze in Berlin. The meeting will begin at 7:30 p.m. in room 208 of the Administration building. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

Sees WH Conference as Good Legislation Basis

These were culminated in a state conference at Salem in June, 1955. Throughout the conference discussion centered around the need for organization, building needs, qualified teachers, finance and public interest.

The 2000 delegates at the conference in Washington began discussions with 166 round tables. Later the 166 chairman of these groups were divided into 16 tables for discussion. Further subdivision occurred until a committee of two met to prepare a final report on the conference. Miss Perry is being featured in the December issue of Oregon Education and her picture will appear on the front cover of that professional journal.

The Wolves, with their all-star lineup, dominate the pifty-pat courts at the end of two weeks of men's intramural volleyball play. What at first looked to be Tiny Ken Boydstun, Vancouver, Wa, may prove to be the scoring leader for the OCE Wolves during the 1955-56 basketball campaign. A former Clark junior college hoops, Boydstun transferred to OCE this year to continue his education after two successful sea- sons in basketball. He and his teammates have watched the Wolves go through their pre-season practice. Coach Bob Livingston, their coach, attributed the win to the OCE opponents, but at this stage of the game, he looks like a real scoring threat.

Win From Central; Lose to Willamette

Oregon College of Education basketball team will square up in their volley-ball games with the Central high school girls 32 to 31 and 52 to 29, respectively. The score of the game against Willamette was 21 to 29 in favor of Willamette.

List Team Rosters For I-M Volleyball

Below are the team rosters for the men's intramural volleyball games:

1. Wolves: Gauer, Hammar, Ballard, Kremers, Logue, Mclen, Thomas, Thompson, Johnson and Davis.
2. Versatiles: Griffin, Tuttle, Myers, Bowray, Small, Gilbert, Danielson, Benner, and Lloyd.
3. Old Timers: Bellamy, Cor- ning, Pearson, Humphrey, Livingston, Luallen, Cummlsley, Thompson, Johnson and Davis.

Form Teams Now!

Don't wait until the last minute to join or organize your intramural basketball team for the winter term competition. Ken Cummlsley urges all those interested to start forming teams, and, if possible, to present a roster to John LaFauntaine before December 18.
