New Men's Dorm Holds Open House

Approximately one hundred and fifty people came to the first open house of the new men's dorm on Thursday, February 4. The new dorm was open from 3 to 5 p.m.

Upon entering the dorm the visitors signed the guest book and then were taken on tours of the new dorm. Each room was left open for the visitors to inspect. After the tour through the dorm was completed, refreshments were given punch or coffee and cookies.

Two trophies were given for the best door sign and the best room decoration. The door sign trophy went to Wilbur Daniels and Pat Lloyd, while the best room decoration trophy went to John Davis and Clark Lund.

In addition to the tour, the visitors were given a copy of the catalog and literature about the college.

The dorm was decorated with flowers and balloons and the atmosphere was warm and inviting.

The new dorm was the result of a joint effort by the college administration and the students. The students were involved in every aspect of the planning and construction of the dorm.

The new dorm will house approximately 150 students and will provide additional space for the college community.

Lieuallen Becomes Official President

The long hours of preparations by both student and faculty committees came to a final climax on Sunday, February 7, in the Campbell ball auditorium. Dr. Roy Ewing Lieuallen officially became the 14th president of the Oregon College of Education.

Dr. Lieuallen held the position of registrar and coordinator of instruction at OCE, since December, 1946. He was a science teacher and baseball coach at Pilot Rock from 1944 to 1946.

Early education for Dr. Lieuallen, a native Oregonian, began when he attended public school near Ina. He graduated from John high school in 1935; received the B.S. degree, Magna Cum Laude, from Pacific university in 1941, and then attended the school administration of the University of Oregon, 1947; and the Ed.D. in higher education from Stanford university, 1955.

Dr. Lieuallen served for 30 months in the Navy during World War II, including two years duty in the South Pacific. He was advanced to the rank of Lieutenant, U.S. Naval Reserve, and was recommended by the commission as ensign in 1943.

Dr. Lieuallen married Barbara Wales of Klamath Falls, a graduate of Pacific university and a former English teacher in Elgin, Pilot Rock, Bend, and the Klamath Falls high schools. The Lieuallen children are: Doug, nine; Jim, six; and Margaret, three.

Dr. Lieuallen has membership in OEA, NREA, Northwest College Personnel Association, Alpha Chi Omega, and Phi Delta Kappa. He also serves on the board of managers of the Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers, the Citizen's Advisory Committee of the local school district.

All are invited to attend the "Sweetheart" Ball at Saturday night at the OCE gym beginning at 8:00 p.m.

The highlight of the dance will be the announcement of the Colleto Coed."Sweetheart" and the Wolf Knights."Sweetheart," who, incidentally, do not have to be members of the two organizations.

Qualifications taken into consideration for this honor include: attendance at OCE for at least two years, scholarship, personal and service to the school. A lo, the "Sweethearts" must be either a junior or a senior. Last year's sweethearts were Doreen Knaub from Portland and Elmer Summerfield from St. Helens.

Invitations are being sent to the faculty and the alums of Wolf Knights and Colleto Coeds. This year, the two groups have decided to keep the traditions and the theme a secret until the night of the dance.

After paying the admission of $1.25, couples will dance to the music of the "Blue Notes," a band from Salem. Patrons and patronesses for the evening are President and Mrs. Lieuallen, Dr. and Mrs. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Blasingue, and Mr. and Mrs. Murdock.

There has been some misunderstanding as to attire for the boys. A suit is quite acceptable and very few tux and dinner jackets are worn. Corsets for girls and boutonnieres for the boys, however, are appropriate.

Tickets for the "Sweetheart" Ball have been chosen by the groups. Phyllis Seid is chairman of the faculty committee which consist of June Yashuha, Joanne Kreno, Jaye Nowak, Veva Goeldner, and Loren Scott. The refreshment committee consists of Jean Paterson, Marcia Yoder and Charlotte Saka-

One group is in the process of finalizing the program and the tickets will be available at the door.

Have you written to your parents yet, inviting them to spend the week-end of February 17, 18, and 19, 1956, here at OCE? If not, be sure to do so immediately, as this is the biggest event that has been set aside for Folks' Festival.

Many activities will be held here during the week-end of February 17-19, with the supervision of Mrs. Krey. All students are urged to lend a hand in organizing the week-end of fun and entertainment for the students, parents and friends of OCE.

Halftime entertainment, for the general chairman for the "Sweetheart" Ball, Johnny Carpenter, says: "This is it, without a doubt, the biggest dance of the been and we hope to make it the biggest and the most successful dance of the year. Wolf Knights and Colleto Coeds are doing all they can to achieve this goal; all they need now is the support of the students. So, men, let's get on the ball and get those girls to the Sweetheart Ball!"

Pledges Chosen
By Wolf Knights

With the announcement of the selection of new Wolf Knight pledges, the OCE campus will again be spitting pledge dressed — students performing the required of them by the club. The 10 new neophytes who were informed of their status early this morning through their student post office boxes, are: Larry Hung, Steve Antle, Robert Blevins, Ron Martin, Bare Barnes, Freddi Eakin, Ervin Garrison, and Mike Smith. The other three inductees are Guy Huhn. Members are selected on the basis of loyalty, character, willingness to work in the service on campus, scholarship, and an interest in OCE for two terms.

Wolf Knights is the men's social fraternity which is the largest social organization on the campus. The purpose of the club is to keep alive the traditions of the campus and to encourage student leadership and participation in campus activities. The social feature event for this organization is the con-gestion of the Sweetheart Ball to be held this Saturday night in the OCE gymnasium.

FOREIGN VISITOR

Mr. I. A. Akioye, educational officer from Nigeria, continues to visit schools in this area as his six-month's visit to the United States draws to a close. Mr. Akioye, whose work involves supervising teacher training colleges in his home country, is a guest of ACE and the Polk County Branch of the Association for Foreign Visitors from Nigeria. Mr. Akioye explained its purposes. Miss Mildred Kneze, publicity chairman, and Mrs. Lorna Pizzuti's first grade from the Monmouth Elementary School were guests at a tea given in their honor by the Polk County PTA. According to Mrs. Pizzuti, the school is excited that she is a hall to give all students the opportunity to take advantage of a money-saving cigarette bargain. According to Dale Harg and Jim Hall, hall managers, the cigarette manufacturers are offering a special campaign, whereby with the purchase of two packages of the aforementioned brands, two packs of cigarettes will be given free. All profits will go to Maple hall and the student union fund. The cigarette company is absorbing all costs of free packages. Free packages of L. and M.'s and Chesterfield will be given only if the student is accompanied by the com-paign advertisements in this issue. Students who plan to take advantage of this promotion should save the Monmouth or clip the advertisement and save it until next Wednesday.

OCE Graduate
Edits "Spicy Trails"

Upon release of a newly published book "Spicy Trails," Monmouth can claim as one of its 1969 residents, Roy Tantell, the author of this book.

Another significant fact about Roy Tantell is that she is a graduate of Oregon College of Education. Her educational background also includes training at the University of Tennessee, George Washington University, and Monmouth State College.

She comes from a family of nine children, and was left fatherless at an early age. Since then, the years, has happily accepted responsibilities and has done numerous amounts of work in many sections of our country.

"A Love of Life," says Roy Tantell, "springs from within. Happiness is a state of mind controlled by an individual — visa-trust in Him ."

The book should prove interesting to those who love nature, excitation and adventure. Her recent work will soon be available at the library.

Flash! - The Truth Emerges: A College Girl from A to Z

Between the innocence of high school days and the worldliness of married life, we find a delightfully small specimen called a college girl. College girls come in innumerable sizes, shapes and colors; but they all have the same creed — a like, long minute of every hour of every day and to protest loudly with profanity when "crampied" by breaking stilt rules.

College girls are found everywhere — talking to boys, spying on boys, telephoning boys, packing with boys, running around with boys, drinking with boys, driving with boys, and kiddying boys.

Boys love them, roommates ignore them, housemothers scold them, teachers flunk them, and parents disown them.

A college girl with a cigarette hanging out of her mouth, lipstick smeared all over her face, and future career woman sharing a bottle of beer with the football captain.

College girls have something composite — they have the grace of an elephant, the constitution of a wet noodle, the resistance of a jail but you can't get them out of your room, and future career woman sharing a bottle of beer with the football captain.
