Next Week's Meeting Series
To Be Fifth Religious Emphasis

For the fifth year, Religious Emphasis Week is to be held on the OCE campus. In the spring of 1951, the first RE Week was held with prominent speakers discussing various religious topics with no general theme. Since that time, such topics as "World Peace Through World Religion," "The Christian Student in the World Crisis," and "Our Religious Heritage" have set the theme.

This year, Religious Emphasis Week will get underway with a 1 p.m. assembly, the first of three assemblies on the theme, "Christ, the Hope of the World—Yesterday, Today, and Forever."

Speakers, Father Evan K. William, St. Helena Hall, Portland, Rev. Ed. Svenson, Lutheran student foundation, Corvallis; and Dr. R. C. Yule, Willamette college, Spokane, will each give their thoughts on one phase of the theme. There will also be informal discussions in the faculty lounge each evening.

Sunrise breakfasts, which were started last year, will be held at Todd hall each morning. Off-campus students may purchase tickets for 50 cents for each meal.

Gary Stephenson, chairman for the week, plans to encourage students and interested townspeople to take part in this week for religious emphasis.

West Hall Names New Officers for Term

West hall's spring term executive students were announced this afternoon. Chuck Keaton, as president of the house.Jack Williams was chosen vice-president and Jim Atkins, secretary-treasurer. Gene Bossachi was re-elected reporter.

Preview Plans Start For Senior Visitations

Activities are commencing to jell as the date of Senior Week End Campus Preview nears. The chairmen are working on such activities as registration, assemblies, tours, pep rally, talent and fashion shows, cake and coffee hour, dinner, movie, dance, and chapel service for the week-end of April 23, 24.

Seniors are expected to start arriving on campus at 7 p.m. on Friday, April 22. Glenni Hamar and her committee will register the guests that evening and on Saturday morning. Jerry Clark and his group of greeters will assist visitors in finding Todd hall and getting their luggage there. Housing for the week-end will be taken care of by Myers Little.

The visiting seniors will be encouraged to attend the all-school assembly (Continued on page four)
FOR STEPS TO NOMINATE

Today is your chance to express your voice in the government of your college. That’s right, the nominating assembly for ASOE officers for the 1955-56 school year is to be held this afternoon at 2 o’clock.

We feel that there is little need for elaboration upon this matter, but we would like to leave you with the following suggestions:

First, CHECK THAT IMPULSE to skip the nominating assembly. You owe it to your self and to your school to be there.

Next, STOP and ask yourself what qualities you desire in your student body officers.

Then, LOOK around you to see whom you know who has those qualities.

But, DON’T MERELY LISTEN to what is said in the assembly today. ACT, make YOUR voice heard, too!!!

M.J.N.

Earth Angel Voted Top of Hit Parade

Earth Angel is the favorite of the campus, or at least of 12 students who took time to indicate their preferences in the first week of the OCE Hit Parade. Earth Angel, by Mitch Miller and the pop stringers, is from Lorraine. She is from Washington, D.C., concerned over the housing situation.

“IF YOU ARE NOW PROBABLY asking the question, ‘What has been the song title that has been the number one for the greatest length of time?’ Well, the answer is ‘Earth Angel’ from Lorraine.”

BY NOW YOU PROBABLY have heard the one Christy pulled out of class last week: ‘He is attending Oregon this term and is from Lorraine’. She is from the campus, or at least of 12 students who took time to indicate their preferences in the first week of the OCE Hit Parade.

‘YOU MAY BE ABBEY’ has been heard the one Christy pulled out of class last week: ‘He is attending Oregon this term and is from Lorraine’. She is from the campus, or at least of 12 students who took time to indicate their preferences in the first week of the OCE Hit Parade.

The idea of the OCE Hit Parade stemmed from the student council questionnaire and a proposal made to all students. The first week’s ballot was submitted by a group of students contacted to do the job. Anyone interested in submitting their Top Ten Songs in order of preference each week is urged to do so. Songs are to be your favorites, not what you feel the top ten are. All that is asked is that you turn in your selections consistently, sign your name, and have them in on time (8 p.m. each Thursday). Ballots may be turned in to P.O. Box 295, Lamron Office, Harry Pease, or Nancy Graver.

Ten points are given to each song listed first, nine to each song listed second, and so on. Numbers of listings in brackets following song titles are the number of students who have listed that song in first place.

Over 2000 in Willamette Relays
Harrison Bryant Gives Top OC Performance

More than 2000 athletes participated in the rainspattered fifth annual edition of the Willamette Relays last Saturday. Track men from high schools, colleges, athletic clubs and Mather Air Force base competed in the west coast meet.

Harrison Bryant, state pole vault champion in 1953, turned in the top Oregon College performance. He soared to the 12 6/10 mark to tie five other vaulters in the novice division of that event. Sophomore, Ken Knope, of Washington State college, took the event with a new relay's mark of 13 4/5.

Top performance of the five-hour plus afternoon was a mighty discus toss of 185 11/16 by the 1955 Pan American Games discus winner, Port Orford's Gordon, Gordon, 1902 Olympic discus champion. Flipped the platter just 14 feet short of the world's record as an entry in the open class. The Willamette freshman now is 142 plus. Fifteen records, nine college and six high school, were broken as high school record mark tied in the damp proceedings.

No reports were available at press time as to how the remainder of the Oregon College squad fared in the Relays. Opening regular season action for the Wolfpack comes Friday afternoon in a dual meet with Clark Junior College in the OC memorial stadium.

Diamond Crew States 4 Tussles This Week

Old Man Weather continues to plague Oregon College Athletic Association and dealt its first stinging blow with the washout of the Oregon College-Pacific U. doubleheader last Friday.

Weather permitting, the diamond will see a full slate of action this week. Bob Livingstone's Wolves host Clark Junior College in two matches at the Cowell Memorial Stadium. Aside from Dawson, Mitomi, Jim Dawson and Gleen Eakin, Aki and Jim were starters last season.

The tennis lads will open at home this week with a match against the University of Oregon medical school, Saturday, April 9, at 9:30 a.m. As yet ladder play has been impossible so the starting births are still undecided. Aside from Dawson, Mitomi and Eakin, Bob Jones, Ron Martin, Del Ray Krier, John Kleinbeld, Ardie Detering, Delmer Brown, Dale Harp and Murvel Stone have been working out on the courts.

If you look closely you will note that this flying figure is not an ancient Sun god worshipper in full frenzy. In fact, the observing eye will discern the figure of Don McKenzie sailing through the air in the broad jump. Don will be out to regain the loop broad jump record which he last year by 1/2 in. He will be in action when the Oregon College cinder squads open the season Friday afternoon against Clark JC on the local oval.

Two Constitution Amendments On Ballot for Election Next Week

Two proposed amendments to the ASOCE constitution were initiated by the student council Monday evening, March 28. The action will place the proposed amendments upon the ballot for ASOCE executive officers April 13 and 14.

The first of the two deals with Article V, Section 2, Clause 2, and affects special ASOCE student council committees. The word "president" was struck out and the word "executive committee" inserted. This leaves the amendment to read "The executive committee of ASOCE shall schedule meetings of the student council when needed." This amendment, if passed, would relieve the president of the authority of calling special meetings and invest it in the executive committee.

The second proposed amendment refers to Article VI, Section 2, Part 2, which deals with amendments to the ASOCE constitution. Section 2 now reads, "Amendments presented to the members of ASOCE at a special election can be initiated by: (A) two-thirds majority vote of the student council, or (B) a petition bearing the signatures of 25 members of ASOCE."

The amendment, if passed, would strike out the words, "25 members of ASOCE, " and insert the words, "eight per cent of those people entitled to ASOCE membership cards."

It would then read, "A petition bearing the signatures of eight per cent of those people entitled to ASOCE membership cards."

The latter amendment does not refer to petitions to place names of candidates on the ballot. In effect, under the present enrollment, the petition would require some 50 signatures.
