National Honorary Plans Summer Meets

Theta Delta Phi, men's national honorary fraternity, held its first of a series of noon meetings on Thursday. This meeting was in the nature of an organization session for the 1957 summer term meetings.

In the future it is planned that various professors and others who have held unusual posts or who have had unusual experiences will be invited to attend these meetings and act as guest speakers.

The first of these speakers will address the organization next Thursday and all members and past members are urged to attend.

'White Cliffs of Dover' To Be Shown Monday

"THE WHITE CLIFFS OF DOVER," starring Irene Dunne, Alan Marshal, Roddy McDowell, Frank Morgan, Van Johnson and Peter Lawford, will be this week's Monday night movie. The showing will start at 8 p.m. in Campbell hall auditorium.

The picture is a tender and heartwarming story that stretches across two World Wars. This powerful love story of an American girl and an Englishman is a tribute to every sweetheart, mother and father with a loved one in the service.

The first of three Disney Family Nights will be held next Friday. "DUMBO" and six cartoons will be on the bill.

Admission to these shows is free, but a collection for the scholarship fund will be taken. At last Monday's movie, "SHOW BOAT," $12.47 was collected for this fund.

Pentacle Theatre Presents "Gigi"

Among the entertainment attractions available to students and faculty of the summer session is the summer theatre program of Pentacle Theatre, located between Monmouth and Salem. The first Pentacle production, playing from June 24 thru June 29, is "Gigi," dramatized by Anita Loos from the novel by Colette.

"Gigi" is the story of a young French girl brought up by her mother, grandmother and aunt to be a stylish edcotte, but who upsets their plans by maneuvering a wealth suitor into a proposal of marriage. "Gigi" is under the direction of Dr. John Bellamy of the OCE humanities faculty.

The serious drama "Come Back, Little Sheba," appears July 15 through July 20. Mr. George Harding, also of the OCE humanities faculty, plays the male lead in the production. An Agatha Christie mystery, "The Mouse Trap," will be shown August 4 through August 9.

Tickets are available at Del's Book Store and Stevens and Sons in Salem, or they may be obtained from Mr. George Harding, C.H. 231.

OCE PE Instructor Receives Doctorate

Ruth E Lautenbach received her EdD degree at the annual commencement of the University of Colorado on Friday, June 7. More than 1500 men and women were awarded degrees of which 200 were advanced degrees, including 166 masters and 34 professional and doctors degrees.

Faculty, Students To Take Part in Outdoor Affair

Ticket Sale Ends At 4:00 p.m. Today

All students, faculty members, their families and friends, are invited to attend the All-College Picnic, Monday evening in the Grove. The feed will begin around 5:30.

Gene Rosaschi

Gene Rosaschi, head waiter at Todd hall, will have charge of the picnic. Gene is also your 1957 summer session student body representative.

Tickets for the picnic will be available until 4:00 p.m. this afternoon at the business office in the Administration building. Tickets are 50 cents for all non-dormitory residents. Dormitory residents will be issued tickets without charge.

Those wishing to bring their own picnic lunches may enjoy free coffee and ice cream which will be furnished by the dormitory.

If the weather is cool and windy, the food will be served in the quadrangle formed by Todd, Maple and Campbell halls. If the humidity is too high, notices will be posted telling of any change in plans.

Condition Your Speed!

Speed too fast for conditions, the villain in summer traffic accidents, is already beginning to leave its death-dealing mark on Oregon highways.

The Oregon Traffic Safety Commission recently stated that a summary of fatal accidents for the month of April shows that 12 of 31 fatalities occurred when a car went out of control and hit a fixed object or rolled over into a ditch.

"Such accidents frequently occur on curves and are almost always an indication that the driver was going too fast," the commission said.

Since the basic cause is too much speed, they also offer the highest probability of a fatality.

Last year, for example, 62 people were killed when cars struck fixed objects such as trees, bridge abutments and guard rails; 13 died when cars overturned in roads, and 99 were killed when cars ran off the road.

Oregon has joined a nation-wide summer traffic safety program, "Slow Down and Live," which hopes to curb accidents resulting from too much speed. — Why don't you join that program too?

"Vision" Reviewed

by Tom Nash

Vision (389 pp.)—Harold Mansfield — Duell, Sloan and Pearce ($5.00).

Vision comes to the reader in a unique method. A candid camera is held before one's eyes throughout the narration. Mansfield describes the primitive and fantastic early contraptions in such a way that one looks around his comfortable seat to make sure that his perch is still on solid ground.

The aircraft of today are so new (details in the book clearly portray this) that one feels overwhelmed by the rapid pace of progress. No planes have a more decisive role in human affairs than the famous Boeing airplanes, the Flying Fortress, the Superfortress, the B-47, the Intercontinental B-52 jet bomber, and the Boeing 707 jet passenger liner.

This saga of the sky has used facts in the technique of fiction. It is a story more of people than of airplanes, but an ever-recurring cycle of astonishing new airplanes provides its fabric. It is a story of the stern issues of war and peace. But primarily it is a story of vision, of the struggles that have gone on in the minds of men, of inspiration and courage.

The reader shares the open-air cockpit of the earliest stalling seaplanes, attends troubled conferences, flies with test pilots and Air Force commanders on critical test flights and war missions, and plunges deep into the creative thoughts of engineers.

Mansfield has checked the manuscript with more than 80 participants in the story before its publication. Vision is a once in a lifetime flight from the past to the present.

Crater Lake Trip Plans Announced

Plans were announced this week by Dr. Anton Postl for the Crater Lake Week-end Trip, which is scheduled to take place July 20 and 21.

Arrangements are being made with Grayline Sightseeing Bus Service for the trip. The buses will leave the campus at 7 a.m. on Saturday, July 20, and will be returning by 7 p.m. on Sunday, July 21.

Lunch Saturday will be in the Odell Lake area which will allow those on the tour to relax and inspect the landscape. Dinner will be served at Crater Lake.

Sunday will start with an early morning tour of the rim drive. This has in the past proven to be one of the outstanding events of the trip and promises to again greatly impress the tourists with its breathtaking sunrise.

This year's Crater Lake tours will be conducted at a cost of $6 per person. This cost will include overnight at Crater Lake Lodge and transportation. Reservations should be made as soon as possible at the OCE business office.

If there are any questions concerning the tour one should contact either Dr. Glogau, director of student affairs, or Dr. Postl, director of the Crater Lake trip.

Try-Outs Slated for Summer Session Play

Mr. Alan Robb of the department of dramatics, has recently announced that try-outs for the summer school production of T. S. Elliot's famous play "The Cocktail Party," will be held on July 1, at 3:00 and 7:00 p.m.

This play, Mr. Robb states, will be done as a reading production. It is planned that it will be presented on July 25 in the auditorium of Campbell hall.

Mr. Robb was new to the staff of OCE this year after having spent some time teaching in Central America. He has had much experience in both amateur and professional theatricals and directed this winter term's play "Shadow and Substance,"

Many Promotions Given OCE Faculty

The State Board of Higher Education recently approved many promotions and faculty changes at the Oregon College of Education. Promoted to professor were Dr. David S. Brody, formerly associate professor of psychology, and Dr. Jane Dale, formerly associate professor of humanities.

Promoted from assistant professor to associate professor were Dr. William D. McArthur, Dr. A. Kenneth Yost, Dr. Ruth E. Lautenbach, Dr. Edgar H. Smith, Dr. Mildred O. Kane. Dr. Margaret L. Hiatt and Ellis A. Stebins, director of business affairs. Promoted from instructor to assistant professor were: Clara Thompson, director of dormitories and counselor; and Edith L. Olson, director of health services and college nurse.

Margaret L. Steiner, assistant librarian at OCE since 1947 who served as librarian during the sabbatical leave of Dessa Hofstetter last year, was named associate librarian.

Granted leaves of absence for the 1957-58 school year were Dr. E. F. Barrows, Lorna R. Pizzuti, Helen M. Redbird, Elsie Tucker and Lois H. Vanderpool.

Placement Service Offered for Graduates

Those students who are completing requirements for the BS or MS degree in August are invited to visit the Placement office in room 116 of the Administration building to see that their credentials reflect their present standing. It is important that credentials contain references covering all teaching experience, as well as up-to-date academic information. The easiest time to take care of these details is now, while you are in school.

Placement service is available to all students who are in need of assistance in finding positions this summer. This service is free to those who will complete graduation requirements in August. For others, there is a small charge of $2.50 for registration.

Hours, Services Are Announced By OCE Library

Library hours for the summer term were recently announced by Mrs. Dessa Hofstetter, college librarian. The library will open shortly after 7:30 a.m. on weekday mornings and remain open until 9:00 p.m. except on Fridays when it will close at 5:00 p.m. On Saturday the library will be open from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. The building will remain closed on Sunday.

This term the library is offering a new service for students using the Children's Literature Room, the Curriculum Room, or the Periodicals. From 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. the new downstairs desk will be open. Children's literature books can be checked out and returned downstairs, during these hours. The back issues of periodicals will be available to graduate students at this time in the storage room.

Reserve books will be checked out after 4:00 p.m. for overnight use only. All reserve books must be returned by 9:00 a.m. the day following check out. Reserve books may be checked out after 4:00 p.m. on Saturday until 9:00 a.m. on Monday.

The south study room on the main floor has been set aside for graduate students who need a quiet place to work.

More detailed information about the service available in the library is located on the bulletin board by the card catalog at the south end of the main reading room.

Summer Observations To Start on Thursday

Dr. William S. Wagner, director of student teaching, has announced that the Monmouth Elementary school will be open to observers beginning Thursday, June 27. The summer session grade school will start on June 24.

Anyone interested in observing must sign up in the elementary school office for a specific time. Students will receive an observer's slip which will admit them to the class.

Committee Lays Plans for Fish And Crab Day

It was announced today by the Committee for the Yaquina Fish and Crab Day that plans are being formulated to make this one of the big events of the 1957 summer school.

The day will consist of many activities. The program will include crab fishing for all interested, swimming, sun bathing, bay fishing, beach combing, and excursions aboard the Trade-wind Fleet for those who desire to go to sea. Also facilities will be available for those who desire to go deep sea fishing.

Those planning to attend this outing should complete the forms that have been placed in their student post office boxes as soon as possible. All who plan to drive should sign the roster that is located on the bulletin board located next to the bookstore, indicating how many passengers they will have room for.

The cost of this outing has been held to a minimum so that no one will feel the burden of expense. The price has been set at 50 cents per person, $1 per family. This fee entitles one to all the crab they can eat (or an equal share in all crabs caught), the pleasure of crab fishing, bay fishing, clam digging (if one is energetic enough to arise early and if there is a minus tide), and all the beach combing, sunbathing and swimming that one can accomplish in a day.

For those desiring to help with the crab fishing, the meeting place has been set at Fisher-man's Wharf. The first crew will meet there at 7 a.m. on Saturday; the second crew at the same location, but at 9 a.m. The crab feed will begin at 2 p.m. at the Yaquina State Park.

The deans' office will accept payment starting this morning for tickets and the deadline for ticket purchase has been established as 12 noon on Friday, June 28.

OCE Library Head Is Elected to Honorary

Mrs. Dessa Hofstetter, assistant professor and librarian at Oregon College of Education, has been elected to membership in Beta Phi Mu, national library science honorary. Mrs. Hofstetter will be initiated in absentia on June 26. The initiation ceremony will be held while the American Library Association convention is in session at Kansas City.

Membership in this organization is granted only to those individuals who have been recommended by their college for outstanding work in the field of library science.

Study Tour of Mexico Offered After End Of Summer Session

Mr. Alan R. Robb, instructor in English, speech and drama at OCE, and coordinator of the 1957 OCE Mexican Study Tour, has set Friday, July 5, as the last day to register for the tour. The tour will start with departure from Tia Juana, Mexico, on Aug. 12, and will end on the group's return to Tia Juana on September 4. Cost of the tour will be $425, plus $24 for college registration fees. Three quarter hours of college credit will be given for those registered in the summer course.

The tour of Old Mexico has been planned carefully to insure enjoyment and understanding of the ancient history of our western hemisphere. The tour has been set up in such a way that those participating in it will be visiting the various sites of Mexican civilization in chronological order. Wherever possible the guides will be recognized in the field of Mexican culture.

For those who are registered in the course, Mr. Robb will present a one hour lecture each morning. When this is not convenient due to travel plans, the lecture period will be made up at a later hour.

For more detailed information about this tour see Mr. Robb as soon as possible. There are only seven vacancies left to fill before the tour group is complete.

Offer Opportunity To Preview Educational Films

The OCE Instructional Materials Center has planned seven weekly educational film previews for this summer session. These previews are designed to help both student and teachers become acquainted with the latest educational film releases. There will also be company representatives at each meeting to show you new Audio-Visual equipment.

The showings are held every Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock in the MES auditorium. For those who have classes at 1 p.m. there is a re-showing at 2:05. Anyone who plans to attend the showings should be on time, because late arrivals will disrupt the proceedings.

A tentative schedule of previews follows:

June 25—New Disney Releases, "THE ALASKAN ESKIMO" and "BICYCLE SAFETY." Kodak and Standard Projection equipment, plus the "Daylight Screen" will be on display.

July 2—New Science Releases by Encyclopedia Britannica Films. Bell and Howell equipment will be on display.

July 9—New Music and Reading Releases by Young America Films, Jam Handy Films, and Bowman Recordings. RCA equipment will be displayed.

July 16—Physical Education. New releases from University Film departments.

July 23—Teacher Training and Psychology. New McGraw-Hill films.

July 30—New Art Releases. Encyclopedia Britannica Films.

The first of the previews, held last Tuesday, netted an audience of 150.
