Dr. Postl Will Conduct Tour to Crater Lake

Students Will Spend Week-end In National Park

Dr. Anton Postl

One week from tomorrow is the day the buses leave for Crater Lake. This trip offers an opportunity to see some of Oregon's most beautiful landscapes and to be guided over the terrain by an expert in the field of physical science, Dr. Anton Postl.

The buses leave at 7 o'clock on Saturday morning and will be returning not later than 7 p.m. on Sunday. The trip will include a lunch at the edge of Odel Lake, hiking in Crater Lake park, a guided tour around the rim of the lake, and a night at the famous Crater Lake Lodge.

The cost of transportation and lodging for the entire trip has been held to $6, which is payable upon request for reservations at the OCE business office. For any further information one should contact either Dr. Arthur Glogau, director of summer activities, or Dr. Postl, who will serve as director and guide for the excursion.

NOTICE!

Volleyball will be played in the grove Thursday evening, July 18, from 7 to 8 p.m. Bill Gauer and Del Brown will be in charge of arrangements for the evening. All students are invited to take part in this event.

'Cowboy Sam' Author To Lecture at Assembly

Mrs. Edna Walker Chandler, author of the "Cowboy Sam" readers and other well known juvenile publications, will appear at Oregon College of Education's next weekly 11 o'clock assembly on Tuesday, July 16, in Campbell hall auditorium. Mrs. Chandler will present a talk entitled, "From Writer to Reader."

In the lecture she will cover briefly the physical aspects of writing, including costs of book publication, particularly in the school text and juvenile fields. She will speak about the problems the writer must solve in meeting the needs of child readers and at the same time coming forth with a book which can be used in schools and libraries.

Mrs. Chandler will also visit classes on the campus during her stay next Tuesday. Miss Emma Henkle, associate professor of education and director of the OCE Reading Clinic, will act as hostess for Mrs. Chandler.

These regular weekly assemblies are open to the public. All interested individuals are urged to attend them.

"Cocktail Party" Cast Named by Alan Robb

Mr. Alan R. Robb, instructor in English, speech and drama, announced recently the selection of the cast for the summer term play "The Cocktail Party" by T. S. Elliot.

The cast of this performance is headed by Dr. John Bellamy who will play the unidentified guest who in actuality is a supernatural type of guardian on earth to guide the lives of others and to aid them to live more fully. The cast also includes Mrs. Ruth Stump, part-time instructor in

Talent Is In Demand

The date for the summer session talent show is drawing near and there is still a need for good student talent. Anyone who possesses talent or who knows of someone who has talent, should contact Gene Rosaschi (student post office box number 41) or Dr. Edgar Smith. The program will be presented on Tuesday, July 23.

Humor and Action Vie In This Week's Films

Tonight fun and folly galore are in store for the whole family at the second OCE summer session Disney Family Night. The program will consist in nine delightful Disney cartoons and the feature "History of Aviation."

"History of Aviation" is a highly entertaining cartoon documentary which humorously and authentically traces the growth of aviation from the bailing wire "flying machine" of the Wright Brothers to the birth of the ultramodern jets.

The showing will start at 8 p.m. in Campbell hall auditorium.

Next Monday evening at 8 o'clock, the M-G-M production "Mogambo," starring Clark Gable, Ava Gardner and Grace Kelly, will be presented in the Campbell hall auditorium. Those in attendance will find themselves on a safari in the gorilla country in the heart of darkest Africa. The guide of the expedition is Vic Marswell, played by Gable, and his party includes an anthropologist and two women. They encounter days and nights of peril and battle against animals and natives.

The production is in color.

The film "Lili" which was slated for last Monday night was

Harding Has Lead Role In Pentacle Production

George Harding

Monday, July 15, is the opening date of the heart rending play, "Come Back Little Sheba" to be presented at the Pentacle theater, located between Monmouth and Salem.

Starring in this production, from the OCE campus is Mr. George Harding, of the English speech and drama department.

Many will remember Mr. Harding from last summer's production "Death of a Salesman" in which he portrayed "Willy." Mr. Harding has appeared in numerous productions in the past and has served as director of many of the OCE plays that have been presented during the past 11 years.

Tickets may be purchased at either Dell's Book Store or at Stevens and Sons in Salem. Ticket orders will be accepted by telephone.

delayed in shipment, and will be presented on the evening of Monday, July 22.

Touring OCE Study Group Writes of Atlantic Crossing

EDITOR'S NOTE:

The LAMRON today received the following article through the courtesy of Mr. Charles J. Noxon, director of the OCE summer tour, now in Europe. It was written from deck chairs aft starboard on the EMPRESS OF FRANCE by Violet Kordic and Luvina Lash, former OCE students of Monmouth and now OCE students abroad.

This group, excitedly anticipating an ocean voyage, embarked from Montreal on the Empress of France on June 27. Amid waving good-byes, bagpipes, colorful streamers, and the clicking of cameras, we gently eased out of the harbor into the St. Lawrence river where for 1000 miles we made our way slowly to the open sea.

Quarters Are Assigned

On our first day aboard we were escorted to our cabin quarters by a steward from Liverpool, England, who had been with the steamship company for 45 years.

A tour of the ship acquainted us with the home we were to have for the next seven days. We attempted to learn the nautical terms such as starboard, port, aft, bow, stern and topside, hoping to use the right term at the right time. The various decks and passageways of the ship provided a maze of confusion for the neophyte.

Our traveling companions are friendly and interesting people from many countries. From our own country there is a group of young men from Los Angeles on an International Good Will Tour sponsored by the YMCA. We are the only Oregonians aboard.

Friendly Traveling Companions

In conversation with the different groups we gleaned many interesting bits of information, and added new words to our vocabulary such as "scuttle-butt" (rumor), "deka - fluka" (wash cloth), and "holiday." They say, "We are having a nine week holiday," while we say, "We are having a vacation."

One is impressed by the personnel of this ship and the services they give. They are the most gracious and friendly people that we have ever met. They seem to love people, therefore, they enjoy serving them.

Beautiful Dining Room

Another amazing thing about this trip is the dining hall with its beautiful wood paneling, its ornate chandeliers, its spotless linens, gleaming silver and artistic menu cards, prepared especially for each meal.

This would not be complete, however, without mentioning the quality and quantity of the food. Eight course dinners are served, which include the favorite dishes of many countries of the world.

No one needs to go hungry for in addition to our regular meals we have bouillon at 10 every morning, tea at 4 in the afternoon, and a snack at 11 in the evening. Since the voyage has been smooth, the fish have not been fed.

Steward Started at 15 Years

The steward who serves our food is a young man from Liverpool who started this service at the age of 15. He has been on this ship for 10 years. His patience and friendliness in serving the whims of people with different eating habits has greatly added to our understanding and enjoyment. The least said about calories the better.

The favorite pastimes of our group are varied. Some love to recline in a deck chair watching the water or just resting. Others prefer activities such as: Horse Racing, Bingo, Cards and deck games. Another favorite pastime is the movies which included, "The Littlest Outlaw," "The Spanish Gardner," Travelogues, and others.

Dancing to the excellent music of the ship's orchestra plays an important role. One of the outstanding features was a fancy dress ball with prizes for the most original presentation. Some of our group attended representing "Neptune," "Appreciative Audience," "April Showers," and "Chinese Boy."

For our quieter moments we wrote letters while listening to the strains of Chamber music from the ship's orchestra whose violin player is outstanding. Often we find one of our group dozing in front of the fireplace in the library with a book on his lap.

To broaden our concepts and to prepare us with a background of the countries we will tour, our director Charles Noxon conducts two-hour classes each day aboard ship.

These classes are enlivened with anecdotes and interesting and unusual bits of historic and geographic knowledge contributed by both teacher and students.

All of us feel that the ocean voyage in its entirety has been a relaxing holiday and a fitting climax to a year of school work.

New Teachers Are Named for College Staff

Dr. Roy E. Lieuallen, president of OCE, recently announced the appointment of Robert S. Baker as instructor in English at OCE. Mr. Baker will join the OCE faculty in September of this year and also will be in charge of the news bureau and college publications.

Robert S. Baker

Mr. Baker comes to Monmouth from Chicago where he has held a writing and editing position on the staff of the American Osteopathic publication, "Health." He has served as an instructor in the U.S. Signal Corps at Fort Monmouth, New Jersey, and as a private instructor of English in Venice, Italy.

Mr. Baker received his BA degree from Pacific university at Forest Grove in 1953, and his MA degree from the University of Chicago in 1956. His major areas of study have been in the fields of English language and literature, French language, and psychology.

Mr. Baker and his family will reside in Monmouth.

Dr. Roy E. Lieuallen, president of OCE, recently announced the appointment of Mr. Kenneth A. Neiland as instructor in science at Oregon College of Education. The appointment is subject to the approval of the Oregon State Board of Higher Education. Mr. Neiland will join the OCE faculty in September.

Mr. Neiland comes to Monmouth from Eugene where he has been working on his PhD degree. He has held assistantships at Reed college in Portland, University of Oregon in Eugene and at UCLA in Los Angeles.

Mr. Neiland was granted his BA degree from Reed college in 1950; and his MA degree from the U. of O. in 1953. During the past four years he has been involved in graduate work at UCLA, Portland State college and the U. of O. His major areas of study have been in the fields of biology, chemistry and physiology.

Water Colors Now In Gallery Display

The Oregon College of Education art gallery is currently featuring 32 water color paintings of the "Missions of California" painted by Maude Wanaker. The exhibit has been shown throughout the United States under the sponsorship of the Fifth Army Art Division. The collection will be on display in the OCE art gallery until July 20. The exhibit is open to the public, there is no admission charge.

Mrs. Wanaker made two separate trips to 21 California missions to complete the paintings.

Mrs. Wanaker, who is a nationally known artist, was the organizer of the famous "Gallery by the Sea" at Delake. She works at her own studio, "The Paint Box," at Wecoma Beach. The public is welcome to visit her studio.

Dr. Smith Entertains Grads With Hypnosis

The Graduate Luncheon of July 3 was well attended by both faculty members and graduate students.

The group was entertained by Dr. Edgar Smith with hypnosis rather than music. At the close of his fun and entertainment Dr. Smith tried his mystic power of suggestion out upon the group to the amazement and amusement of all present.

Students Enjoy Fish and Crab Day

A good time was had by all who attended the OCE Fish and Crab day, June 29 at Yaquina Bay State Park at Newport. Pictured above Dr. and Mrs. William J. Berry sample the abundant lunch served during the afternoon. Below Ellis Frazer and Andrew Sandwich take time out from lunch to pose for the camera.

Yaquina Bay State Park at Newport was the scene of fun and frolic for approximately 25 students on June 29. It was the first of what is hoped to be an annual event, Crab and Fish Day.

The day started with two boats of early risers leaving the solid ground to become crab fishermen for a short time. Approximately 45 crabs were caught and much fun was had by all concerned.

The cooking of crabs started at about 11:30 a.m. and the table was set at 2 p.m. After all had had their fill of the crab many took short excursions on the beach, to various viewpoints, and down the rocky, and sometimes wet, pathway to the end of the breakwater reaching out into the ocean to protect the channel into the harbor.

The day was a great success, according to all who attended, the only objection was that it had to end so soon.

Folk Concert Given By Fiddler Beers

Mr. and Mrs. Fiddler Beers gave an outstanding performance Tuesday at the regularly scheduled assembly hour. Their rendition of many old favorites and folk songs was applauded by all who were in attendance.

The star of the show appears not to have been Fiddler or Mrs. Beers, but an ancient musical instrument they obtained some years ago. This instrument is a dulcimer or psaltery (depending on the way it is played, if a mallet is used it is a dulcimer, if the strings are plucked, a psaltery), ancestor of the piano.

This instrument is dated back to the early history of the near east and the great Kahns of Asia are credited with preserving the instrument although it has been altered slightly through the years.

"Cocktail Party" Cast

English during the normal college year; Mr. Alan Robb, who will also direct the performance; Mrs. Penny Bellamy and Mrs. Mary Robb who have both had considerable experience in the field of the drama; George Slawson, who will be remembered by many as "Dan" of the spring term play, "Night Must Fall," and Lester Brenaman, a person of considerable past experience in the field of drama.

The play is to be presented as a reading production and will be given on Thursday, July 25. For all who enjoy good comedy this date of July 25 offers an opportunity of witnessing the reading of one of the plays of one of America's greats. It is filled with spice, belly laughs and subtleties that all tastes in comedy should be satisfied.

Examinations Urged For Pre-Schoolers

Parents should obtain complete physical and dental examinations as soon as possible for all children entering school for the first time this fall, the state board of health announces.

Early examinations are necessary to allow time for complete immunization schedules and any corrective work which is indicated, according to Dr. Harold M. Erickson, state health officer.

Dr. Erickson explained that Oregon school authorities require records of such medical and dental examinations at a child's first registration. He also reminded parents that many school districts ask parents for copies of birth certificates for all new admissions.

Birth registration cards may be secured by sending $1 to the state board of health,

To Show Techniques in Speech Improvement

Mr. Robert English, director of special education of the Lake Oswego public schools, will be on the Oregon College of Education campus Thursday, July 18, to demonstrate classroom speech improvement techniques. The demonstration will be held in the library lounge at 1 p.m. to be followed by an open discussion at 2. Faculty and students are cordially invited to take part in the demonstration.

According to Dr. Robert Mulder, director of the Speech and Hearing Center, Mr. English has achieved nation-wide acclaim for his efforts to encourage speech improvement techniques in the public schools. This is not a demonstration of speech correction techniques but a demonstration of how to encourage all children to better speech.
