Choir Sings at Tea

Members of the summer session choir under the direction of Mrs. Denise Redden will present a concert Wednesday, August 1, at 3:30 p.m. in the faculty lounge in conjunction with the student-faculty tea. Numbers included on the program will be "Annie Laurie," "The Cat and the Fiddle," "Lost in the Night," "Cicirinella," "At Parting," and "I Wish I Wuz." Members of the choir are Mildred Burnham, Maud Bryan, Geneva Calhoun, Mayme Carstens, Betty Cornell, Irma Conrood, Elton Gregory, Zada Hassler, Edward Hermanson, Ruby Herman- son, Gladys Jarboe, Beryl LaMar.

Student Counselor Role Created

Three students, Gene Rosaschi, Ron Martin and Elton Gregory, all are enrolled in Ed. 405, Counseling Discussions, offered this summer. All three are going to be counselors at Maaske hall this coming school year.

The discussions this summer attempt to analyze behavior problems that have occurred in the men's dorms in the past, and (Continued on page four)

Grad Club Elects Kipp

Don Kipp was elected president of the OCE Graduate club in a meeting on Wednesday. Other officers of the 1956-57 year are Orville Boyle, vice-president; Lida Halvorsen, secretary-treasurer; and Violet Hooker, historian.

The Graduate club wishes to express its appreciation to the members of the graduate faculty who donated their time and abilities to the weekly seminars.

The highlight of the graduate club sessions on campus this summer were the Wednesday luncheons.

NEW OFFICE HOURS

Beginning Monday, July 30, the business and registrar offices will be open from 9:45 a.m. to 12 noon and from 1 to 4 p.m.

“Treasure of Sierra Madre" Is Tonight

Humphrey Bogart and Walter Huston star in the final summer movie, “The Treasure of Sierra Madre," tonight at 8 o'clock in Campbell hall auditorium.

The story is a stark and hard hitting account of the fate which three American derelicts bring upon themselves through their distrust of each other.

The gold prospecting trip upon which they embarked represents a brilliant study of the violent and damaging effects of greed upon human relationships.

Helen Redbird Named Supervising Teacher

Dr. Roy E. Lieuallen, college president, announced this week the appointment of Miss Helen Redbird as supervising teacher and member of the Oregon College of Education faculty. Miss Redbird comes to OCE from Southern Oregon College of Education where she has been a supervising teacher since 1954. Prior to going to SOCE, she instructed a third grade in the Salem public schools from 1951-53.

She received her bachelor of science degree in 1951 from Southern Oregon and completed her master's degree in education in 1954 at the University of Colorado. Miss Redbird also spent the summer of 1953 in graduate study at George Peabody college, Nashville, Tennessee.

Crafts Exhibited

Crafts to be displayed in the art department by the craft class includes various problems of craft work usable in the public schools. Many of the projects utilize materials at hand that children can bring from home.

Metal tapping, twisted paper, glass etching, prastics and gesso which is an old art used by the masters in decorating churches in early cultures.

A mobile display of silver and gold ornaments by Fred Kraus is located in the art department hallway showcase.

Summer Session Teas Prove Successful

Those who have been responsible for the Wednesday student-faculty teas each week are confident that their objectives for relaxation and refreshments for a busy student body and faculty at the end of the day have been fulfilled.

The attendance has been overwhelming which in itself is an evidence of a very successful activity.

The success of the teas has been due to the cooperation of many people. Perhaps at the top of the list should be placed the careful and efficient planning of Mrs. Margot Miller. Each tea gave evidence of her planning for refreshments as well as will to assist her. Plans for music each time added no little to the atmosphere and invitation to relax, rest, chat, and to enjoy the hour.

To those who assisted as hostesses and in other capacities, Margot joins us in deep gratitude; this would include both students and faculty.

We consider the teas have been another way the OCE campus has of saying "Welcome, Hello, and Good-by.

We will look forward to seeing you at our final tea on Wednesday, August 1. You will enjoy Mrs. Redden and the choir at that time.

NOTICE!

A number of prospective August graduates have failed to file transcript of their credits earned through the General Extension Division. The Registrar’s office would appreciate having these records without delay.

Transcripts of extension credits may be obtained by sending a request to Portland State Extension Center, 1620 SW Park Avenue, Portland. If one copy of record has ever been issued, the fee will be $1, payable in advance.

Father Whiteside Assembly Speaker

Reverend Father S. Whiteside, from the All Saints Episcopal church, Hillsboro, will present colored slides on the topic "Four Roses of France" at the assembly program on Tuesday, July 31, in Campbell auditorium.

Father Whiteside is widely known throughout the state for his speaking engagements. He has spent several months in Europe making an intensive study of the stained glass windows of cathedrals and churches there.

He has designed stained glass windows for American churches.

A-V Displays Equipment, Materials

Dr. Jack Edling, director of the Instructional Materials Center, announced that there will be an audio-visual exhibit in the entrance way to Campbell hall on Tuesday, July 31, from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m.

A-V equipment and materials will be there for students to examine and operate.

A Matter of Significance

Attorney General Robert Y. Thornton has ruled that the acceptance by the State Board of Higher Education of donated and bequeathed stocks is in violation of the constitution of the State of Oregon and therefore those stocks held by the board should be sold or efforts made to modify the constitution.

Therefore appearing upon the November, 1956, ballot will be a proposed amendment to the constitution which would allow the State Board of Higher Education and other State departments to keep stocks which have been donated or bequeathed to them.

 Passage of this amendment will obviously be of value to education in Oregon and be of no cost to the taxpayer.

Yet there still lies the task of overcoming Mr. and Mrs. Voter's opposition to anything about which they know little or nothing. A "no" vote takes care of indecision nicely in such cases.

Therefore the institutions of the State System of Higher Education have taken upon themselves the task of informing the public through speaking engagements, organizations, and personal contacts.

YOU can be of assistance here in carrying the word to your local area and being an informed person who informs others.

Here are some facts to remember:

1. The State Board of Higher Education receives annually a number of gifts which have been used for student scholarships and the hospitalization of children as well as other useful tasks.

2. These stocks are donated and bequeathed by persons vital to the public through speaking engagements, organizations, and personal contacts.

3. The board or any other state group would be allowed to keep or dispose of the stocks as they saw fit, but would be prohibited from purchasing any stocks.

4. No state tax funds would be involved.

5. Donations and bequests are an opportunity for those interested in the job of "Education" to share in the way of financial assistance.

SHOW and TELL

Comes the time of parting and of:

THANKS to Mrs. McEem, Tom Nash and Verne Duncan for their part in making the paper a reality;

THANKS to the printers, Eric and Irving Swenson of the Monmouth Herald, who are a pleasant and vital cog in the machinery;

THANKS to our photographers, Norm Bremer and Bruce Rich, for people and places in the news;

THANKS to our numerous voluntary correspondents who gave us pleasant surprises;

THANKS to our readers who have commented favorably upon our paper.

This adventure has been a pleasant one because of the wonderful and gracious help so freely given. Being editor was not a job; it was a pleasure.

We hope and trust that each and every one of you will find the coming year a pleasant and profitable one.

For OCE Alumni Only

Like the Man Without a Country, is the OCE grad who renounced himself the advantages of continued membership in the OCE Alumni Association.

If you are a '55 graduate, you have had a year of membership in the association without charge. Your check now will put you back on the active list for 1956-57, beginning July 1. Or, if you prefer to pay and forget, a $25 check will make you a life member. There's a time payment plan, too, with no interest and no carrying charges.

Who is eligible for membership? Any graduate of any OCE course—2-year, 3-year, BS or MS—at any time.

You're too good a potential member for your talents not to be available for the work of the Alumni Association. You're too loyal to OCE not to be interested in the scholarship program of the association. You're too good company not to have some social contacts through the school year with your OCE friends. You're too interested in what's going on at OCE to miss your copy of the OCEAN, the Alumni newspaper. Be an Alumni Booster in your community, among teachers, and among non-teaching alumni. Get off to a good start by bringing your dues to the Alumni office, Adm. 116. We'll take it from there, and count on you to put your shoulder to the wheel in your local organization when the time comes.

Grads, Please File for Teacher Certification

Those persons graduating at the close of the summer session who have not been regularly certificated will need to send an application for this certificate to the State Department of Education, Salem, with the fee of $3. Application forms for these certificates are available in the education office.

In addition to filling this application, the State Department requires a transcript of the graduate's academic record showing that requirements for a degree have been completed. Since transcripts are issued only on request of the graduate, those persons wishing their records sent to the State Department should call at the registrar's office prior to the close of the term and fill out the necessary application for transcript. One transcript of record is issued without charge, but a fee of $1 is charged for each additional single copy.

Dr. Smith, Mrs. Lemm Give Unique Program

Dr. Edgar H. Smith, assistant professor of music education, and Mrs. Grace Lemm, summer session student from Salem, presented a unique musical program during the weekly assembly at Oregon College of Education, on Tuesday, July 24.

Dr. Smith discussed with the audience by word and piano demonstration, various "Do-it-yourself" techniques in composing music. He showed how music could be composed with the audience assisting in the composition.

Mrs. Lemm contributed several selections from her collection of "Pieces."
Miss Perry Honored at Student-Faculty Tea

Miss Margaret Perry, who will become the assistant executive secretary for the National Educational Association department of classroom teachers September 1, was honored Wednesday afternoon, July 25, at a farewell tea sponsored by Oregon College of Education in the college faculty lounge.

Students, faculty members and other friends were present to honor Miss Perry who will leave shortly for her new office in Washington, D.C.

Among out of town guests were Frances Michel, Mrs. Grayce Hughes and Mrs. Margaret Knispel, all of Hillsboro.

Miss Perry, McCall's Teacher of the Year in 1955, has been on the OCE staff since 1950 as supervising teacher in the Monmouth elementary school. She has been granted a year's leave of absence to take the new position.

Usher: "How far down do you wish to sit, madam?"

Old Lady: "Why, all the way down, I'm kinda tired."

Speech Instructor Named to OCE Staff

Dr. Roy E. Lieuallen, president of Oregon College of Education, announced this week the appointment of Alan R. Robb to the staff as instructor of English, speech and play production.

Robb received his masters degree from the University of Minnesota in 1951 and is doing his doctoral study at Stanford University. He received his bachelors degree in 1948 from Santa Barbara college, after attending Pasadena junior college and Pepperdine college, all in California.

While in the armed services, Robb attended Central school of speech and dramatic art, branch of the University of London, for two months under the auspices of the British government. Additional study at a foreign institution came at the University of Florence, Italy, in 1948.

He has had teaching experience at the college level and has been associated with various theatrical groups. At present he is working on a translation of "Practica Fabbricar Scene y, Machina dei Teatri" by Nicolo Sabbattini.

Among the groups to which he belongs are the American Speech Association, Western Speech Association, American Educational Theater Association and American National Theater and Academy.

Grad Students

Graduate students completing their final graduate courses during the fall or winter quarter of 1956 are asked to notify the secretary of the committee on graduate study. This request is made so that plans can be made to administer the final comprehensive written and oral examinations during the spring term prior to commencement.

Presents Composition

Burton Arant, pianist-composer and teacher of piano presented his original composition, "On the Oregon Trail" at the Centennial homecoming of the First Christian church Sunday afternoon. Mr. Arant is a graduate of Oregon Normal school and is the composer of the OCE Hymn.
PERSONALITY OF THE WEEK

By Ron Petrie

Dr. Wilfred G. Myatt was born in England and as a boy came to Saskatchewan, Canada. He attended high school and the normal school in Saskatoon and started teaching. Most of his teaching experience was in the field of physical education and coaching in the grades and at the high school level.

In 1939 he was associate professor of physical education and director of athletics at the University of Alberta, Edmonton, Alberta. In 1940, when World War II broke out, Myatt was in the army reserve. He volunteered for active duty in the Canadian artillery and was sent to England. It was during this six year tour of military duty that he got an extensive view of European geographical features.

Myatt came home in 1946 and retired as a colonel after 20 years of reserve and active duty. Those 20 years in the service helped him to cultivate his voice into the soft subtle tone that it has today.

He acquired his BS and MS degrees from the University of Washington and his doctorate from Clark college, Worcester, Mass. Myatt joined the staff of Oregon State college as associate professor of geography in 1947.

The Willamette valley was chosen by Myatt to settle in because it so closely resembles the climate of England and Europe which he enjoyed so much. He is a family man and resides with his wife, Erma, and two daughters, Mary and Anne, in Corvalis. His most enjoyed hobbies are gardening and following the major sports.

At present, Myatt is in the process of becoming an American citizen.

When asked how the students at OCE compare with those of OSC, he said, “There is no differences, academically, between the two schools,” and that he is enjoying this summer session at OCE.

Myatt is enthusiastic about his subject, geography, for many reasons, and he freely philosophe about them. “Geography is a pertinent subject today because of the newer and faster means of communication. We are but hours from any place in the world. The United States belongs to the world family of nations and is not isolated from anyone any more. Furthermore, the U. S. A. is recognized as a world leader, and in order to be a leader, we have to know about the world we are leading . . . “ When I teach geography I’m not trying to teach facts as much as I’m trying to teach living.”

Dr. Wilfred G. Myatt

US, A BUS, AND A CLOUD OF DUST

By Rosemary Ramsey

On a cool gray morning a week ago, (July 21, to be specific) At 7:30 we started out just so we could see the lake that’s terrific! The bus was driven by Mr. Hart, And “chaperoned” by Mrs. McBeth.

There were also Doc Postl, and

Dr. Glogau, who teaches the course, feels that such a background will do much to help prevent problems before they arise.

The class will be continued through the academic year 1956-57, with only the men and women dormitory counselors eligible to enroll. Miss Seavey and Dr. Glogau will conduct the class, which will carry one credit per quarter.
