ARMS COMMISSION DUE TODAY

600 ATTEND MEETING ON COMBAT UNIT

At a citizens' meeting held last night in Dining Hall 32 and attended by an overflow crowd of over 600, numerous questions raised by the War Department's plan for a Japanese American combat unit were given voice by the assembly and entered into the records for presentation to the Army representatives.

preceding the question period, Claude C. Cornwall, employment chief, who returned Wednesday from Washington, D.C., and Project Director Charles F. Ernst briefly addressed the gathering on what they both regarded as a turning point in the fortunes of the Japanese in America.

At the conclusion of the meeting, a committee was selected from the general assembly by Chairman Tsune Baba to put the questions raised from the floor into proper form for presentation to the Army. The committee will meet tonight at 22-12-EF from 8 PM for this purpose.

Those on the committee are Koji Murata, Vernon Ichisaka, John Yoshino, Kaytaro Tsukimoto, Rev. Mas Wakai, Isao Hando, Dr. George Chikubo, Henry Tanii, James Hirano, James Nishimura, Bob Ikki, Paul Fujii, Shiki Muneno, Frank Matsumoto, Harumi Kawahara and Taro Katayama.
