UTAH EDUCATORS TO VISIT TOPAZ MONDAY

The Utah State Advisory Committee of Schools is expected to visit the Project Monday morning, May 10, for a one-day conference with administrative and faculty staff members. It was learned today from Dr. Reese M. Vaughn, assistant superintendent of education in Topaz, the conference will include Franklin Harris, president of Brigham Young University; C.H. Skidmore, superintendent of state education; Dr. Arthur Beeley, professor of sociology at the University of Utah; Dr. John C. Carlisle, associate professor of education at the Utah State Agricultural College; W.A. Paxton, superintendent of Fillmore schools; Rulon T. Hinkley of Hinkley; and William J. Stanley of Delta.

Discussions will be centered about methods for alleviating or eliminating problems peculiar to the relocation center school systems. It is expected that the group will visit the elementary and secondary schools while they are in session to study at first hand the educational status of the City schools.

Dr. Carlisle, a member of this committee, will be remembered by the Topaz community as the superintendent of schools of this City from last September until January 1.

WEATHER REPORT
Max. (Fri. night) 58°F  Min. (Sat. morn.) 36°F
A WORD OF CAUTION

For the majority of us, it has been so long since we were last in contact with normal pre-evacuation community life that many of the experiences, both bitter and pleasant, that fell to our lot because of our Japanese ancestry now lie dormant in our memory. Our present non-discriminatory, all-Japanese community, conducive to extroversion and the loss of inhibitions, has done much to stifle memories of race prejudice and discrimination which once figured so strongly in our daily lives.

But now that relocation is in the air—end of course all of us will be planning to leave soon—we must begin now to think coldly and realistically about the conditions which we may face on the "outside".

We may think of ourselves as being thoroughly American in thought and speech; we may "calm the bull" and "step out" with our girl friends with as much aplomb as any of our Caucasian acquaintances. But the war and our ancestry have called two strikes on us, and whether we like it or not, we have been placed in the position of being "doubtful" members of American society, persons, at first glance at least, to be regarded with mistrust.

So when we finally venture out on our indefinite leave, we must do so with the face-ache that we no longer will be able to act always of our own free will, that our every action must be considered with a view towards re-establishing ourselves as the loyal citizens that we are, in a possibly unfriendly, certainly abnormal, war-time society.

It'll be a tough job for many of us.

But in the final analysis, the only salvation from the situation in which we find ourselves lies in our actions and in ours alone. And we must not fail.

PROPERTY OF RELOCATERS SHIPPED FREE

A unlimited amount of personal and household property which is stored privately or in government warehouses on the coast may be sent at government expense to any relocation point.

Persons who wish to have personal property transportation arrangements made should contact the Evacuee Property office located at the north end of the Public Works building.

CANADIANS FIGHT FOR INTERESTS

In their fight against the Canadian government's recent move to liquidate property owned by evacueed Canadian Japanese, the Japanese Property Owners' Association has been set up in Kaslo, British Columbia, to launch a campaign to raise funds to protect the interests of the Japanese.

This group is asking all property owners to contribute an amount equal to 10% of the annual taxation paid for their holdings towards the fund drive which will be used to fight litigations.

It was reported by the "New Canadian", a newspaper published by Canadian Japanese, that every effort is being made by the association to secure the support of the property owners.

WARNING, SUSPENSION, PROCEDURE EXPLAINED

Many opportunities in war industries are opening up in the Cleveland, Ohio, area for persons with work experience as welders, electricians, laborers, repairmen and body painters at $1 to $1.25 per hour.

A number of job offers for persons who have had training in each of these trades but lack experience are also available beginning at 8:30 to 12 noon.

Anyone interested or qualified in this line of work should write directly to Harold S. Fisler, Relocation Supervisor, 944 Union Commerce Blvd., Cleveland, Ohio.

Bridge Tournament Series To Begin

Two $25 cup trophies will be awarded to the team scoring the highest total of points in the succeeding 8 bridge tournaments. This series of cup tournaments, open to all players, will begin this Sunday and will continue on Wednesday and Sunday nights for the next 8 weeks.

The Sunday's tournament will begin at 8:30 PM.

In order to increase working efficiency in the City the following warning and suspension procedure was issued by the Employment office:

"When a person becomes lax in performing his duties, he is issued an official notice of warning by his section or division head. The notice will be delivered to the worker and its delivery must be acknowledged by him or a witness.

"If a warning goes unheeded or the situation remains unchanged after due warning has been given, the notice of suspension shall then be issued.

"Suspensions which do not exceed three days shall be given at the discretion of the unit, section or division head who supervises the worker's activities. In giving a suspension the reason must be clearly stated, the effective date entered and the date upon which the employee is to return to work also entered. Failure of the employee to return to work on the specified date will automatically make the suspension an indefinite suspension and he will then be terminated.

"No employee will be suspended without official warning."

RE: REPARTITION

Questions concerning what an evacuee should do when he has changed his mind on repatriation or expatriation are answered in new WRA instructions received at the Center today, according to Project Director Ernst.

Persons who have asked to be repatriated, or who have indicated acceptance of declination of repatriation as a result of lists of names submitted by the Japanese government, may change their requests by filling the proper form with the Welfare Department. These may be obtained at Rec 23.

The War Relocation Authority cannot guarantee the exchange of evacuees applying for repatriation. It can only place the applications in the hands of the State Department for consideration in the exchange negotiation.

In discussing the new instruction with the Topaz Times, Project Director Ernst said, "while each evacuee is free to decide for himself whether he wants to apply for exchange to Japan, the decision should not be arrived at hastily or lightly. The individual's choice in this matter may have far reaching consequence. It should be made only after careful thought, uninfluenced, as far as possible, by other persons."
ADVENTISTS SCHEDULE ILLUSTRATED LECTURE

Series 6 of the special illustrated lectures of the Seventh Day Adventist Church will be given tonight from 8 o'clock at the religious center, Rec 33, according to George S. also.

The stereopticon slides, the motion pictures, "What is Millenium? and the motion pictures, "State of Colorado," and "War in Europe," will be interpreted by God bless you, mother," is the sentiment that every one in Topaz, everyone in this country or anywhere should have in his grateful hearts.

GOD BLESS MOTHERS

By Rev. J. K. Tatsumoto

Neglecting womanhood's cherished gifts of grace, youthfulness and beauty, I have observed one mother especially, who exemplifies the type of woman that is worthy of a mother.

Somewhere within her must be the desire for leisure and perhaps, the opportunity to exercise a woman's love for the outlandish things of life. In her heart is lengthening the desire for expensive clothes and the attention of beauty specialists. All these personal longings she casts aside in dreams for her children.

Now she wears the toils of time spent in toil, sorrow and vigilant care over her brood. Nonetheless, she bears the scars of time spent in toil, sorrow and vigilant care over her brood. Nonetheless, the passing years have not stripped her of the stamina or noble vision to which she has so tenaciously clung; and the present seems kind and the future promising.

In her husband were still alive, how rich and complete would be her satisfaction in her children. Today she sits with eyes that mirror her joys for all to witness, from her daughters she has received gifts and evidences of their affection and gratitude. Then again, clasp to her heart is a telegram from her son, which reads: "God bless you mother, for I owe to you my success. I am a doctor now. I have made the grade."

Whether we have yet made the grade or not, "God bless you, mother," is the sentiment that everyone in Topaz, everyone in this country or anywhere should have in his grateful hearts.

REV. WAKAI TO LEAVE CITY

The Rev. Masu Wakai of the Inter-Faith ministerial association is expected to leave Topaz for Chicago, Illinois, Monday, May 10, to continue his studies at the Chicago Theological Institute.

Associated with the Protestant Church group since Tanforan where he was ordained, Rev. Wakai is the second native minister to leave the Topaz clergy. The Rev. George Aki went to Jerome, Arkansas in January.

The Rev. Wakai will be accompanied by his sister, Mary, who came to the project last Wednesday from the Minoltan center to join her brother.

In observance of Mother's Day, the 65 members of the Topaz Girl Reserves will sponsor a tea Sunday from 2:30 PM at which time their mothers will be the honored guests, according to Miss Toshi Koba, a visitor of the group.

PROBLEM: With a ground rule established of one out on an over-throw at first, third and home, the batter hits a ball to the short-stop who throws badly to first base and hits the runner's foot in foul territory as he nears first base. The ball bounces off the runner's foot and dribbles out along the foul line and eventually settles in fair territory beyond first base. The base-runner goes all the way around to third before the ball can be recovered. Should the base-runner be limited to second base?

ANSWER: The base-runner may advance at his own risk as far as he chooses. Any throw ball which strikes a player remains in play and all turbines in fair territory and has not struck or been deflected by an obstruction and the crowd, stand, fence, etc.

PROBLEM: Must a runner stay within three feet of a direct line between bases whether or not a fielder is fielding a ball? Whether a fielder has possession of a ball in a position to touch the base runner?

ANSWER: This rule prohibits the base-runner from interfering with the fielder who is fielding a batted ball. The base-runner may run anywhere between bases except to avoid being tagged by a fielder, or to interfere with a fielder who is fielding a batted ball.

CAS ISSUES HARDBALL TILTS

It seems that friend hubby got in a word edgewise when he was able to succeed in getting an article printed in this column, while your woman's editor was away these last three weeks from Topaz. His refutation of our previous statement about there being more eligible girls than men here is the reference. Since his repudiation, shall we call it, of our assertions are backed by the statistical files and presented to us by the sociology major that he is, make yet happier a ewan, when his wife, to get in the last words for herself. Especially since it must be confessed it was only one woman's opinion against these recently released census figures. For the sake of those yet unattached, we are happy that it is as it should be.

However, we fames ought to examine our foils and study the art of parry that best attracts the desirable males in camp. We can't make a man feel uncomfortable in our presence and have him drift away to someone else. All friends are nice to have, anyway, and the more the better. So be kind and thoughtful to all your friends of both sexes, to be popular.

Do you have comfortable seats in your room for guests? Girl friends like to relax and no man can fall in love sitting bolt upright. And don't forget everyone enjoys compliments. Especially men. And undivided attention is one of these. Not attention shared by knitting, or flower making. Fold your hands on your lap, be at ease, and listen to him and ask questions. That'll flatter him into confessing as to his plans, etc., and explain what a wonderful girl you are to talk to because you are so understanding. Do you play bridge and dance well? If not, learn, and right away. These are the most social of activities in Topaz, giving you the chance to meet more young people. If you don't do both well, one talent is absolutely mandatory.

Are you well dressed and beautifully groomed? Men are extremely critical of a girl's neatness. It makes him want to dress up for you, too. Do you ask boys to drop in to see you? It helps. Tell them where you live when you do. Do you ask how much he would do if he had a hundred dollars and only a year to live? Talk like this may be insane, but it helps to keep the ball of conversation rolling and shows out the new boy friend.

Do you make as much effort with entertaining bores as you do your favorites? Remember some bores may someday bring around a pretty nice fellow.

Do you try to impress your popularity on friends by mentioning their names? You are the biggest bore on earth if you do.

Do you think you are being too naive or country-fied if you show that you had a good time when he takes you out? The kindest and most gratifying, attractive thing a girl can do is to let a man see it when she's enjoyed herself, showing enthusiasm and her happiness over it.

Do you try to provide a little healthy competition by talking with your boy friend's pals? If you do, you'll be heading straight into a stranding web of complications.

And try to be sweet. That is how girls were meant to be. To be admired because you are sweet and feminine, is your most generous compliment as a woman.
