DORMITORY GUESTS RECEIVED AT TEA

Faculty and Students Guests of Dean Todd and Assist- ants and Shown Dorm

Saturday, October 24 was the occasion of a delightfully appointed tea from 2 to 5 o'clock in the dormitory by Dean Todd to the faculty and student body of the Oregon Normal School.

The hostess was exquisitely gowned in a charming affair of gray, covered with cut steel beads and draped artistically around her shoulder was a gorgeous scarlet shawl of imported Italian silk and she made a very gracious picture.

The guests were graciously received and welcomed by the dean. Appointed members of the faculty as well as the presidents of the different organizations entertained the guests. Tea was served later and pouring were Mrs. Ackerman, Mrs. Landers, the Misses Taylor, Brainard, Macpherson, Brenton, Wilson, Criswell, and Goehring.

Under the select supervision of Dean Todd's assistant, Mrs. Parker, different groups of women students showed the groups of visitors through the entire dormitory. The rooms expressed the individuality of the occupant's artistic temperament by the little added touches that portray personality. Passing down the 200 foot corridor with such interesting attractions on either hand was a very enjoyable excursion.

After exclaiming on the attractiveness of the back dining room the guests were shown the honor rooms at the back of the dormitory and appropriate explanations were made as to the necessary requirements to secure one of these honor living quarters.

One feature noticed by all was the appearance of the painted floors which was an excellent background for a room's color scheme.

The climax was reached when through the alcove from the music room came soft strains of music and lent the occasion a satisfying atmosphere. The music room has been endowed with a rich cream coat of paint that brings out the excellent taste of Dean Todd in selecting the brocade and tapestries.

Everyone exclaimed on the pleasant afternoon and felt that the entire affair was a huge success.

Classifying Father

He: No, my father wasn't a policeman but he went with them a great deal.

Men's Glee Club Will Make Mellow Melody

The mellow mysterious notes that found their way into my-ladies chamber this past week are further being developed under the auspices of Miss Woodruff.

This year the Oregon Normal men have a most promising Glee Club, and they anticipate many entertainments for the faculty and students. The competition between the Mens' Glee Club and the Womans' Glee Club is plainly felt in the large number of students who have joined these organizations.

The Mens' Glee Club in an election of officers Wednesday evening chose the following to represent them: President, Warren McGowan; Vice-President, Gerald Parker; Sec.-Treas., Elwin Knapp; Business Manager, Mr. Horner.

The personal is as follows: Ellison, Sturbois, Chapan, Emerick, Daren, Horner, Warren, Wain and Vern McGowan, Parker, Road, Burkhead, Laswell, Rogers, Brown, Haddor, Knapp, Morgan, Jackson, Cole, and Lehman.

The charter members cordially invite all men, who are interested in singing or who want to learn, to meet with them on Wednesday evenings in the Training School Auditorium.

Important Work Done By Alumnus of Oregon Normal

Some years ago W. R. Rutherford came to the Oregon Normal for his training and has made good ever since. He came from Harney county.

He was city superintendent in Tillamook, McMinnville and Eugene and other places. Now he is head of the training division in the Bureau of Navigation. He has charge of the educational work in the navy.

New Sacajawea Girls Display Their Feathers

Weird sounds, shrieks and peals of laughter sounded from the arcade last Monday night, as one-hundred-twenty-four new members of the Sacajawea Society were initiated. Crawling thru cracks and barrels, feeling and eating flesh and eyes of the departed was only part of the awful ordeal. The lights of the gymnasium were a welcome sight after passing through the "Chamber of Horrors."

The old members of the society dressed as Indian maids called for the various tribes of new members to perform some kind of a stunt. Everyone showed such ability that there will be no worry about the programs for the coming year. The initiates then filed in line to receive their feather and band to be worn the next day, so that all the school could know they were Sacajaweas.

After light refreshments were indulged in, every one went away proclaiming the evening a great success.

With the cooperation of the new and old members and the willing assistant of Miss Culver, great things are predicted for the coming year.

TURNER HALL

The girls at Turner Hall met October 12, and organized. Estella Keyton was elected president; Inez Reifsnnyder, vice president; Oattie Mae Dugger, secretary. The council members are, Stacia Crossan, Leta Teide-man, Cecil Nyberg and Carrie Downing.

His work carries him south during the winter and north during the summer. He moves back and forth with the fleet. He has received flattering recommendations from committees of Congress and has a substantial increase in salary. And he was trained at the Oregon Normal School.

Sunburst of Autumn Color Senior Formal Decorations

King Autumn has not only been busy making Mother Nature joyous in her change of dress but he also has paid a visit to the gymnasium. Saturday night his handiwork was to be noted in honor of the first dance of the year—the Senior prom. Streamers in all the glorious reds, yellows and oranges of the season were caught up from the sides of the gymnasium and draped up to the center of the ceiling in a wonderful sunburst of color. The autumn leaves that gave lovely touches to the walls and rustic punch booths made one feel that Pan must be lurking near. The gay, woodsy effect was a nectar in the veins of happiness and that happiness seemed to radiate into the hearts of everyone.

With hearts and feet beating to the sounds issued forth by the O. N. S. orchestra, the Senior class and their friends and the faculty caught up the spirit and joined the dance.

When time for the feature dance had arrived it seemed as though Pan had really come at last—in human form. He was Mr. Frank Briggs of O. A. C.; many were the admirers he won by his agility in the Charleston.

The patrons and patronesses were very charming as they sat chatting in their rustic bower. They included President and Mrs. Landers, Miss Jessica Todd, Miss Mingus, Miss Brenton and Mr. and Mrs. Butler.

EXPERIENCE WINS IN MT. ANGEL GAME

Heavier Team Holds Normal Boys Scoreless In Spite of Plucky Fight Made

After a rousing send off by the Student Body, last Wednesday, the Normal football team journeyed to Mt. Angel.

When the game was called at 2:30 it saw Mt. Angel with a slightly heavier and much more experienced team.

Mt. Angel received the kick-off and had no trouble piercing the Normal line to within 30 yards of the goal where they place-kicked and the ball sailed squarely between the posts, netting them 3 points. After the next kick-off the Normal received but were forced to punt and after receiving it Mt. Angel had no more difficulty than before, piercing the line with straight line bucks. The playing of left half, Spears was responsible for a touchdown. Their trial for goal was successful, the quarter ending 10 to 0.

The second quarter was rather slow and uninteresting except for the condition of the field, making falling hard and there were frequent calls for time out till some one recovered his wind. During this quarter Mt. Angel scored another touchdown but failed to kick goal. Score 16 to 0.

When the Normalites came back for the third quarter there could be seen a different spirit, one to do or die. Even though the Normal line showed better form, the shifty and heavier Mt. Angel backs had little trouble in making another touchdown and they were successful in their try for goal. In this quarter the Normal tried a series of forward passes and were successful in a number but due to the "leaky" line the backfield was at a loss. Quarter ending 23 to 0.

The final quarter was a different story from the rest, even the Normal line had begun to realize that if they were to score they would have to get down and fight this quarter. The Normalites were putting forth their best efforts to score but the old habit of the line to let M. A. thru would not be overcome so Mt. Angel scored another touchdown but failed in their try for the extra point. The game ended Mt. Angel 29—Normal 0.

The candidate for congress, speaking from the stump, had been asked by someone in the audience if he was in favor of prohibition.

He replied: "I am"—cheers from the dries—"not"—cries of "Attaboy" from the scofflaws—"going to tell you." Dead silence from all.

LEARN IT

When our O. N. S. team charges down the field, rah, rah, rah, rah!
.....team will have to yield,
rah, rah, rah, rah!

The girls will cheer, the men will shout,

The faculty will all turn out

And the score will mount,

For Meador's fighting eleven.

NOTES OF ALUMNI

Many will remember the Alumni below. Perhaps there are others who have schools and are enjoying their work and perhaps we don't know about them. Won't you hand them to Mr. Butler or the Alumni editor?

Last year Agnes Campbell was in Japan. This year she is in Lakeview and enjoying her work. Some will remember that she was the assistant art teacher here two years ago.

Frances McCann is teaching in La-Grande.

Mrs. Lillie L. Law is teaching the third, fifth and eighth grades in Range, Grant county.

Opal Bonney is teaching in Marcola in Lane county.

Otto H. H. Petersen, last years Business Manager of the Norm, is teaching school near his home, Corvallis Rt. 1. In a recent letter he states that he is coming to Monmouth to see the Normal football team smear Albany. Mr. Petersen was a guard for two seasons while attending Normal.

Bessie Bonney is teaching in Nevada.

Maybelle Campbell, who is enjoying her work in Ontario, Oregon, sends kindest greetings to students and faculty.

Miss Goehring Gives Talk on Parliamentary Practice

At the last meeting of the Delphian society Miss Goehring gave a short talk on the essentials of parliamentary law which proved very interesting as well as valuable in conducting a meeting properly.

Officers for the Delphians this year are: Miss Mingus, adviser; Elizabeth Chappelle, president; Catherine Grout, vice president; Ruth Bryant, secretary; Mary Saunders, treasurer; and Evelyn Blessing, reporter. The members are urged and requested to pay their dues immediately in order to meet oncoming expenses of the social activities. The Delphian plans for the "all-school party" are being carefully outlined and the committee in charge of the program is: Catherine Grout, chairman; Bernice Schroeder, Evelyn Blessing, Grace Brant, and Genevieve Watson. The plans will be a big surprise for everyone and a brilliant outcome is certain.

Alpha Delta Gamma

The Alpha Delta Gammas met Friday noon (October 16) for the purpose of electing officers. Those elected are as follows: President, Josephine Savage; Vice President,
Doris Gardner; Secretary, Maxine Elliot; Treasurer, Irene Eskola; Sgnt.
at arms, Flora Haysany; Reporter, Pauline Baker.

The A. D. G's with the Oregon Curtain and Quill's are giving some stunts next Friday night. Don't miss it! The Alpha's feel sure that their society will be the peppiest organization in school this year.

A Poetical Protest

Monmouth, Oregon, October 23

Dear Editor:—

I don't know what to do and I know your help I'll need.

And so, my dear editor, will you do a kindly deed?

In our school spirit there's something mighty lacking

Because in every enterprise there seems to be no backing,

No one seems able to find any kind of a reason—

We can't even blame it on the time or season,

Why, even the debaters haven't much
"pep."

How can they expect O. N. S to ever have a "rep?"

Why isn't any more interest shown?

They have an adviser, worthy and known,

Is it because the students are afraid of work?

That the opportunity of debating they shirk?

To think that a school as old as ours
Has never added laurels to her bowers,

In the realm of forensics and such!

It's a crime to dream of such a bunch.

There are so many more students this year,

'Tis a pity all are so dead, not to hear.

Of the society that was started last week;

Where all have a chance to come and speak.

It seems like a problem that can't be solved,

But there is a solution that can be evolved.

It isn't any "x and y" idea even at that.

And is a whole lot easier than petting a cat.

"Where's O. N. S. pep," seems to be the cry—

But there is something we can not buy.

Now if anyone who wants the "zip"
Would just add a single ounce of it—

Think what the sum total would be With nine hundred seven, counting you and me.

If everyone would do his best and hit the ball

What an "A Number one" school we'd have this fall!

—Now Editor, please do you think you can find

Any persons neither deaf, dumb nor blind,

Who could help the Forensic society to go

Out in full regalia to meet the foe—

And win all the debates that come their way?

Imagine what a grand and glorious day!

Now if any one is interested in my lay

Rush them to Miss Goehring's office today.

My dear editor for your kindness I thank you, so

It's very kind of you, don't you know!

In all sincerity

—Methusala Disherty

"THE FIGHT IS ON"

You would think we were at the battle front,
Down here at O. N. S.,
For every time we turn around
We're shot for that and this.
First the Schick test came along,
They shot us in the arm,
Some shook and quaked, but after all
It did us little harm.
And now come pictures for the Norm,
And some most sadly state,
They fear this shot, because it will
Their faces mutilate.
Kind friends, if this is all you're hit,
No need to worry a lot,
The time for you to weep and wail
Is when your grades get shot.
—Sagebrush Sal

TETHEROW HOUSE

On Tuesday evening, the girls of Tetherow House were honored by a visit from Miss Todd and Mrs. Roberts.

After Miss Todd's talk, it was decided that Tetherow House should set up a standard which is observed by the best of sororities.

Good society is the first and most important law.

Scholarship is next. Our aim will be to bring up the grades of our house and keep them there.

We girls realize that good house-keeping is an important factor, or will be sometime. Therefore we are already practicing that art.

Conduct is our last rule, and a very important one. It governs all the others.

A very pretty piano solo was then rendered by Esther Long. Refreshments were served by Evelyn Schmitt and Louise Strowbridge.

Our guests then departed but not before we secured their promise to come again.

Old acquaintance, visiting at frat.: You fellows have added another story to your house since last year, haven't you?

Bright Bertie: Yea, we had a rough

First Debating Team Started

The debating team is still in the nebular stage as may be gleaned from the fact that as yet no definite arrangements have been made to secure debates with other teams.

There is a splendid future in store for the debating club and under the supervision of Miss Goehring we are expecting some very interesting debates. We'll hear more about this group soon.

The Men Have Organized

Under the leadership of Mr. Christensen the men have banded together in an organization from which many pleasures and benefits will be derived. The following officers were elected:

President, Vern McGowan; vice president, (Red) E. Nolan; secretary, Harry Palmer; treasurer, Let'er Howell.

This organization is open to every man student in school.

The name will be announced later so watch for their activities.

As we expect every man to be a member, those not attending the last meeting are expected at the next.

Pine Lodge

Last Monday evening the girls at Pine Lodge met for the purpose of organizing. Grace Yoakley was unanimously chosen as president. Other officers were: Gladys Hadley, secretary; Alice Weeks, reporter. The following evening Miss Todd met with them and offered many helpful suggestions toward better co-operation in their school and home life.

President Landers goes to Portland this week end to attend a session of the executive committee of the state teachers' association.

Mr. Beattie is absent on a trip into Eastern Oregon on institute duty.

About three hundred fifty members of the Normal student body and faculty took the Schick test Monday, and one hundred one students of the Training school and High school did likewise. Dr. William Levin of the Oregon State Board of Health administered the test, assisted by Dr. Bowersox, Miss Wilson and Miss Taylor. On Tuesday one hundred forty students of Training school and High school of Independence took the test, Dr. Levin being assisted by Dr. Knott. The Monmouth tests were read Wednesday and the Independence tests will be read Friday.

At the dormitory Wednesday afternoon Miss Todd held a conference with the "householders" of Monmouth, as they are called, meaning thereby, citizens at whose homes Normal students are lodging or boarding. There were fifty or sixty women present and as quite a number were unable to attend, an idea may be gained of the proportions this particular portion of Normal work has assumed. An effort is being made to organize all houses where six or more students stay and Miss Todd explained the many advantages this organization plan possesses.

Picture Taking Starts For Use in New Norm

Work on the 1926 Norm is rapidly getting under way, and several changes are being considered. It is planned to make this book larger, to change it from six by nine inches to eight by eleven, and to have a different arrangement of pictures. Many new ideas are being received and given due consideration. Students are asked to give suggestions and to tell the staff of any ideas that they would like to see worked out.

Picture taking has started and it is the duty of every student to have his or her picture in the book if it is to be representative of our school. The picture studio is in the basement of the training school and Kennell-Ellis of Salem are official photographers. The students are scheduled alphabetically and the list will be posted on the bulletin board with the time of the appointment. The students are expected to keep the appointments and in case they do not, it will be difficult to make another. Pictures taken elsewhere will not be accepted.

O. C. Q. Initiates

Last Monday evening anyone happening to be around the administration building heard peculiar noises issuing forth from Rooms 11 and 13. What was happening?

The Oregon Curtain and Quill society was holding initiation for its new members.

The new members were each asked to show themselves worthy to be an O. C. Q. which they did quickly and skillfully. It is doubtful if there is another group in school who can roll walnuts across the floor with their noses as skillfully as did ten of the group. There were many stunts, each girl taking part in one.

After this exercise everyone pledged allegiance to O.N.S. and O.C.Q. Everyone then went to the chapel when refreshments were served and they sang their society song. As the new members left each was presented with a green quill and lavender bow to be worn the next two days.

The Senior O. C. Q. heartily welcomes the new members. From the enthusiasm and pep displayed the O. C. Q.'s. will help to make this an enjoyable and profitable year at O.N.S.

Mrs. Hall is our faculty adviser and we feel very fortunate in having her help us.

Florentines Meet

The Florentine Society held its weekly meeting in Chapel on Monday evening. Miss Katherine Starr presided. She spoke on the matter of getting enthusiasm. It was decided to have a song contest. The songs are to be left at the office not later than October 31. The member who submits the best song will receive a prize. There is plenty of talent in the group, so, many clever and peppy songs are anticipated.

The Vespertines and the Florentines are preparing for a joint program which will be given on the evening of October 31.

After the business meeting, Miss Goehring gave an interesting talk on parliamentary law. She stressed five fundamental principles:

1. Any motion is entitled to free and full debate.
2. Every member has equal rights with all others.
3. Only one subject may claim attention at one time.
4. The will of the majority always rules.
5. The will of the minority has to be merged into the will of the whole.

The correct form for making a motion is, "I move that," This form has been misstated by students many times.

The members will have a chance to indulge in open debate at their next meeting.

"THE MERRIMAC"

Election of officers was held Friday evening, October 16. The following were elected: President, Rose Perry; Vice President, Vivian Hockman; Secretary, Treas., Vivian Weddle; Council members, Dorothy Sloop and Comella Root; Reporter, Blanche Root.

Within the last week two birthdays were celebrated; those of Guenivere Kerns and Maerhea Voth. The girls of the house gave an informal surprise party for each one. Cake and cocoa were served at both parties.

Wednesday evening a short meeting was held for the purpose of deciding on a name for the house. "The Merrimac" was the suggestion that was adopted in honor of Mrs. Mack's efforts to make her girls merry.

Bee Hive Organizes

The girls of the Bee Hive (Demings) spent a very pleasant social evening October 31, organizing.

The following officers were elected: President, Helen Grubbs; vice president, Percie Miles; secretary, Lena Gilbert; representative to O. N. S., Martha Dixon. The girls from this house are a lively bunch as well as quite musical, so expect to hear from them again. Motto: The girls from the Bee Hive behave.

Enthusiastic Pep Rally Starts Off Football Boys

A Pep rally was held Wednesday during the student body meeting for the purpose of sending off the football team on its second game of this year. Palmer announced the departure of the boys that evening for Mt. Angel and Haddox led the students in several new yells before adjourning to the front of the building there to hold the final send-off. Yells were given for the team and coach and Catherine Starr led several O. N. S. songs. We hope the team left thoroughly realizing that the school stands behind them at all times.
