Ash Creek Arts Center Business Card and Logo

Ash Creek joins the neighbor cities of Monmouth and Independence, Oregon. Much in the same matter Ash Creek Arts Center seeks to join the public into art through investigation, creation, and education. Inspired by the way in which water flows through a body of water the logo was created. The flow of water creates patterns within the body of water to the viewer. Often as result repetition is displayed. The initials of the art center were merged together to create a diverse symbol. Likewise public of all ages is welcome link up to the art center at anytime.
