President Maaske Extends Greetings

TO OCE STUDENTS:

It is with real pleasure that I greet and welcome you, as your new president at OCE.

I have been on the campus only since this summer, but, as described "freshman," I am already an enthusiastic booster for OCE. You will find here a splendid and congenial faculty ready and willing to help you in the interesting challenge which college study and other opportunities present to you.

On behalf of our entire faculty, I am glad to wish for each of you a year of success and satisfaction, as we all work together to make 1950-51 an outstanding year for OCE.

Cordially,

ROBEN J. MAASKE
President

Wolves Ready
For Red Raider Game Saturday

With two games behind them on the 1950 schedule, the Oregon College of Education football team is looking forward with great ambition and enthusiasm toward the Southern Oregon College of Education. This year's contest will be played in Medford on Saturday, September 29 at 8 p.m.

In the past four years the Red Raiders and the Wolves have each won two contests and this year's game promises to be one of the most severely contested games of the long history of the two schools' competition.

Coach Bill McArthur has been pressed with a problem of rebuilding the 1950 gridiron machine from a nucleus of his returning lettermen and freshmen. A review of the personnel for the squad would find at the end positions, three returning lettermen, Black Decker, Lyre Hay, and Tom Hall. One is of the outstanding pass receivers and three backs in the north and south. Hay has shown considerable ability over the past two years. In order to field an effective team, Coach McArthur is utilizing a thorough program of offensive as well as defensive tactics. The team, Coach McArthur is utilizing the program of offensive as well as defensive tactics. In addition to the backfield, the team is working on left, center, and right halfback. Each student will receive a set of registration instructions and forms. These instructions should be read carefully and followed through with the proper steps. All forms and cards must be completed legibly.

College Registrar Roy E. Lieuallen and an efficient office crew headed by Miss Jane Smith have been working on the fall term's registration for the past two months. In order to make and physical education regulations.

The business office, located in the administration building, will be open for payment of tuition and fees during the hours of 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

The course of sixty hours from Oregon State college, 12 from the University of Oregon, 13 from Williams University, 13 from Vanport college, 6 from each of Linfield college and Pacific university, 15 from the school of biology and physical education are Mr. Humphrey's major fields of study. He will replace Dr. Robert in the biology and physics science laboratories.

Floyd Albin, formerly a supervising teacher at the Independence elementary school, will instruct classes in English composition, and American literature.

While serving on his doctor's degree, Mr. Albin attended the University of Utah at Salt Lake City. Mrs. Albin is a supervising teacher at the Independence elementary school.

WELCOME TO OCE!

Welcome back to a slightly changed Oregon College of Education. Most of these changes have all the aspects of being for the better. Improved living conditions, new walks, a new library, lots of freshmen and transfers, and an over-all campus clean-up are quite evident to the eye. Also the new administration has offered continued support of an active student-sponsored program of activities.

Most of the plans for recent activities have been made for the fall term. However, as most of the old students know, student activities don't "just happen." They take a lot of planning, time, effort and money to carry out a progressive program for the benefit of the students of all who have a part in our program for every old and new student.

Again let me welcome you to OCE. I sincerely hope that you will make yourself at home and enjoy a successful school year.

Sincerely,

PAUL LEE,
President, AOCOE
ADULT ATTITUDES

When high school graduates come to college, they are met by a staff of educators who may have high school graduation supposedly comes a commencement of life as an adult. People who come to this institution are greeted and treated for the most part as adults with all the characteristics and responsibilities of the same.

In every college there is that group of students who have a hard time realizing that college is not just an extension of high school. They find that many of the issues we deal with are of the same kind. This can make involvement in the college life difficult for such individuals is by setting the better example, and ignoring their juvenile performances. This has had a marvelous effect on such groups in the past. Although it was a tedious process, it seems to have been very effective.

Preaching to an adult who has never been popular. More often than not, it creates a feeling of resentment. There is a need for providing band, and then to mature in their thinking and in their actions. We might resort to this type of treatment with these individuals. It's worth a try, at least.

Weddings Mark Holiday Season

KOHLLER-WILLIAMS

Miss Trudy Kohler became Mrs. John Williams on November 12 when she married in a formal ceremony at St. Paul's Lutheran church in Portland Sunday, November 12.

The bride, dressed in white satin, carried a bouquet of white roses, pink stephanotis and gardenias. She was attended by three bridesmaids and three flower girls.

There was a reception immediately following the church ceremony at the church parlor. All guests were seated at tables left for a short honeymoon aboard the ship.

House News

Dorm Dope
With Thanksgiving vacation over and finals in the very near future, our time being divided between trying vainly to catch up in our studies and finishing "his"ARGLES—the ones we started in September. So...

Four Todd hall girls celebrated birthdays last week. Jean Grosso, Ilma Paronen, Donna O'Rourke and Pat Johnson are the girls to be congratulated.

Arnold Arms Holds Meeting; Plans Tea
A house meeting was held Tuesday evening at Arnold Arms. Financial matters and plans for past term's social activities were discussed. A silver tea and house dance are on the agenda for winter term. Don Jury and Carl Taylor, freshmen, were appointed by Glen Hall, president, to be in charge of equipping the kitchen with necessary utensils.

Lee DeHart, sophomore, was elected manager of the house intramural basketball team. He will be assisted by Jack McCrae. A large group of fellows have shown an interest in participating in the intramural program. There is a possibility that we will have league games.

The fellows all enjoyed Thanksgiving week-end at their various homes. Two more weeks until Christmas vacation, fellows!

Occupants of Arnold Arms had their group picture taken last week. Arnold, their mascot, was even present.

Electricians have installed electric outlets in all the rooms now. The safety doors on the stair-landings are installed and in operation. Also, these additions have improved the living conditions immensely.

The fellows plan on decorating for the Christmas season soon.

Jack McCrae and Les DeHart, both Knights of Arnold Arms, reported for their physicals last week.

Two Turkey Dinners
At least two turkey dinners were served on Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 27, at Varsity house this year. Mrs. Deane may prepare a wonderful turkey dinner with all the trimmings on Tuesday evening, Nov. 27. "Papa" Dyal had the honor of carving the carving and everyone stuffed themselves with turkey.

Child Guidance Talk
Given by Professor
Dr. Louis Kaplan was guest speaker for the Co-Wed club on November 27 at Todd hall music room. Dr. Kaplan opened his talk for the club by saying that he had been in Monmouth from birth to five years of age. This week enjoyed this informative talk. Several questions were raised about specific problems. Dr. Kaplan attempted to help solve these problems. He also recommended several books on disciplines for mothers and fathers.

Koren McMurray presented copies of the Co-Weed booklet which includes addresses and tentative committees and schedules. The club was expected to sign up for a new edition of the booklet.

Juanita Miller, Lois Jones, Patsy Love, Betty Clark and Dorothy Ladd served refreshments of color and doughnuts. The group will meet next on Dec. 13 in the city hall. This is the club's Christmas program and all students and staff were welcome to attend.

Jeanne Gross is Honored on Birthday
"It's too pretty to cut," exclaimed Jeanne Gross, freshman, after seeing her birthday cake. The cake, decorated by Evelyn Claussen, also a freshman, was in the form of a book and represented an album of records, which was given to Miss Gross later that evening.

Honor to honoring her on her birthday were Ber Briem, Evelyn Claussen, Marilyn Cutler, Marilyn Hall, Lucille Buehler, Ritta Beker, Betty Clark and Dorothy Ladd.

Lutheran Students Hold Meeting at Todd Hall
The Lutheran Student Association held its initiation meeting on November 25, in Todd hall music room. The meeting consisted of the installation service of Miss Bonney is the Lutheran student counselor for the L.S.A., an student counselor for the L.S.A. at Oregon State college.

A few minor changes in the constitution and plans for a special Christmas meeting to be held on December 12 were also made. This is for all Lutheran students and for anyone else interested.

Tyler Tells of Trips
Hers Tyler, regional vice-president of Youth For Christ, talked to a group of OCE students on Tuesday evening. He took the students around the United States telling how he has been introduced in various states. The audience was much enriched by his experiences and stories. He also spoke of conditions of people in Europe today as he saw them.

The assembly closed with the benediction: "The world is in chaos today, the decisions we make will govern our behavior. Aim high and live up to the aim."

Initiation Is Held
Formal initiation ceremony for Staff and Key pledges was held on Thanksgiving Day. The ceremony was held in the auditorium at Todd hall. Following the initiation, the traditional formal banquet was held at the Monmouth Hotel. The new members are Betty Darby, Betty-Carey Marie Perry and Patty Wilson. Staff and Key were in charge of serving ice cream at the OCE-SOCE basketball games last Friday and Saturday evenings.

Meeting Scheduled for Intramural Basketball
Thursday, December 7, at 7 p.m.
A meeting will be held in room 117 of Campbell hall for all students who are interested in entering a team in intramural basketball. All interested students will be drawn up to start on January 8, 1951.

Those who plan to enter teams must attend this meeting and must submit their roster of players on the date of their first scheduled game.

Note of Thanks
I wish to express my appreciation to all the fellows who participated in making intramural football a success this season. Intramural sports are for all and regardless of athletic ability and therefore give everyone a chance to play his favorite sport.

If you can't make the varsity and want recreation, then come out and give your support to a stronger intramural program.

Intramural basketball will begin at the start of winter term so this is your time to get on a fast-breaking team. — Archie Padberg.

Sophomore Girls Win High Net Championship
Sophomore girls won the intramural girls' volleyball championship by defeating the freshmen and upperclass teams in two nights of play. The sophomores downed the freshman team Wednesday by a score of 16-15.

The second game was played Thursday with the juniors and seniors. The sophomones won again, this time by a score of 31-0. This makes the second time these girls have taken the championship for they also won when they were freshmen.

The officiating for the tournament was done by five girls who are preparing to take the test for volleyball officials rating.

Students wishing to get materials from the student supply room can check out the key from Mr. Byrre after stating the purpose.

Instructor describes English Thanksgiving
By Miss Sylvia Czegedl Last year the girls at St. Andrew's school in Wakefield, England, learned about Thanksgiving and how it is celebrated in America. This year the girls remembered.

They sang "The Battle Hymn of the Republic," to the "proper" tune, in prayers on Thanksgiving day, and recited verses from thanksgiving day verses. As I had told them to do.

And the staff of St. Andrew's school for girls tasted their first pumpkin pie although the pumpkin was delayed in the post so that it was a week late. It was difficult to persuade some of the girls that it wasn't as good as the British as they have never seen a pumpkin and have nothing comparable that grows there.

And corn—so familiar and to be served with anything on the menu—is also unknown. The mistakes would not have been noticed if the girls themselves with ready to help during their celebration.

Last year I was invited to Thanksgiving dinner prepared by a British woman with the assistance and ad-

COACH'S REPORT
By Miss Ruth Lentzback

That I think of myself as a co- coach, but that I welcome the op- opportunity to explain our Women's Athletic Association program at the college, prompts me to contribute to this column.

Pom and recreation for anyone who came to take part is the pri- nicipal purpose of our activities. They include a variety of sports. In vol-leeball, basketball, softball, and ten- nis only women participate; but in badminton and square dancing both men and women take part. Anyone who wishes, regardless of skill, is welcome to play with us; but cer- tain standards are set for those who wish to win awards. Throughout the term no teams are organized so that everyone who comes gets an equally opportunity to play.

Our Intramural program is an outgrowth of this recreational pro- gram. To challenge the better-skilled girls, a limited number of games with other schools is arranged in- each term. The teams are chosen before a schedule is drawn up so that everyone may get better ac- quainted and have more skiing time on the slopes.

As you already know the night before the first game of the season was Murphy Paints Building Supply.
