The 19th annual Oregon Federation of Collegiate Leaders' convention was held on the Oregon college campus this past weekend. Delegates from numerous Oregon colleges convened to discuss their school's various problems.

Representing Oregon were the following delegates: Paul Lee, senior; Donnie Largent, junior; Beverly Brown, senior; and Peggy Nees, sophomore. The meetings began on Friday and terminated on Sunday. Aside from attending business sessions, the delegates enjoyed a bonfire social event Friday evening, a movie, dance dinner, and the Saturday OSU vs. Idaho football game, but far too many of the activities to which these college leaders were invited.

Members of Willamette university acted as president of this year's CFCL convention. Johnny Manter, Lesli Clark, was vice-president, and Jim Riggs of Oregon State college acted as secretary-treasurer and host of the meeting.

The purpose of CFCL is stated as to foster and promote the affairs room in the OH basement. All no-...
Reorganization Found Major Need
In Oregon School Management

This is the first of a series of three articles on the survey of Oregon's elementary and secondary public school systems made by Dr. T. J. Holy, school organization agency of the Ohio State University.

Dr. Holy's 400-page report, released September 8, contains recommendations on school organization and local school systems.

It is the result of an interim committee, appointed by the last legislature to be made under the direction of the state board of education.

Holy: First school job for Ole Lady Oregon, like that of any newswriter, is to see that all children get an even break out of the family dollar and that the educational budget is efficiently spent.

In school language, an "area" means a group of schools made up of one or more school districts. In 1947, the state department of education, with the aid of local school districts, set up an area called a "reorganization area." It covers the entire state. The idea was to make the state's school districts function as one school system.

While Oregon's present system of support of schools is not as large as those of the neighboring states, the per-student amount spent per child, per year, (approximately $200) is about even with the neighboring states.

Climax: Oregon has 130 school districts. It is a system of "elementary" and "high" districts. In Oregon, a "reorganization area" means a group of schools making up one unit.

Climax: Oregon has 130 school districts. It is a system of "elementary" and "high" districts. In Oregon, a "reorganization area" means a group of schools making up one unit. Each of these districts is to be treated as a single district.

Well! So You're Back in School,
We're Still Here - Ain't Life Tough!
Still That "Ole" "SMILING, COURTEOUS SERVICE"
BARNE'S GROCERY
Free Delivery -- Phone 520

FOR THE BEST FOOD AND FOUNTAIN SERVICE
go to Davy's CAFE
Open Till 13:30 p.m.
Meet Your Faculty

MRS. FLORENCE HUTCHINSON
Associate Professor of Music

MRS. PEARLE B. HEATH
Associate Professor of Art

MRS. DESSA HOFSTETTER
Assoc. Prof. of Social Science

WILLIAM D. McARTHUR
Head Football Coach

MISS JENNY JACKSON
Health Center Head

ANTON POSTL
Instructor in Science

Recent Grads
Start Teaching

All over the state last year's graduates are busy beginning their teaching careers. Ed and Betty Halling are at Val¬seta. Ed is teaching the upper grades and Betty the intermediate. Mildred Cooper Penner and her husband team are teaching at the Conner school between Salem and Albany.

Elaine Winther, now Mrs. Neil Kaye, is teaching at the Liberty school in Tillamook.

Jack Holt, recently married to Carol Frey, is teaching 5th grade and P.E. at Creswell.

Charlotta Miller, since last sum¬mer Mrs. Thomas Givens, is teach¬ing a combined fourth and fifth grade room at the Lincolns school in Salem.

George Pepardi and Florence Pul¬ler were married in June and they are now teaching in Salem.

Gertrude Brittingham was mar¬ried in August to Melvin Hess and she is now teaching in the primary department at Albany.

Ruth Smith, back from her trip to Europe, is teaching in Eugene.

Desme Thompson is teaching the seventh grade at Lyons.

Bill Floyd is teaching the fifth grade and P.E. in the elementary grades at Ospreg.

Joanna Clemens is teaching at Gardiner.

Elizabeth Vincent is teaching at Jewett.

Elva and Herb Schum are teaching at M.S.I City.

Betty Dooley is teaching at But¬ton.

Jeanne Bryan is teaching the first grade at Kenneth Falls.

Library Hours Set

Students wishing to use the OCE library during the first days of fall term should note the following hours:

Monday through Thursday, 8:00 a.m. to 9:30 p.m. and from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m.
Friday and Saturday, 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. (Not open evenings.)
Sunday, 2:30 to 4:30 p.m. (For reading purposes only.)

Note: Sundays the door on the north end of the building is used instead of the regular doors in Campbell hall.

Health Center Open

The student health center, located on the ground floor of senior cottage 1, is open for student use. Dr. Donald Sweeney; Miss Jenny Jackson; student health nurse; and Mrs. Dick Redlin will be on hand to take care of all.

Vanderbilt Center on the cam¬pus. And as in universi¬ties everywhere, ice-cold Coca-Cola helps make these get-together's something to remember. As a refreshing pause from the study grind, or on a Satur¬day night date--Coke belongs.

Cures Vet Troubles

Veterans, having trouble? Well we can't solve them but the two to see at OCE is Matt Thompson, Jr. Thompson is the veterans advisor and his specialty is uncovering your problems. His office is Room 313 in the administration building and he can usually be reached there.

Example and experience are one of the greatest teachers.

Activities Calendar

Wednesday, September 26
6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.—Registration for returning students, P.E. building

Friday, September 25
8:30 a.m. — Classes begin
5:00 p.m.—Movie “Yellow Sky” with Gregory Peck, in CH auditorium (free admission to students and faculty)

Friday, September 29
10:00 a.m. — Pre-game rally on com¬mons west of Maple hall
12:00 p.m.—Football game, OCE vs. SOUCE on fairgrounds field

7:00 p.m.—公共卫生 nurses

Summer Work
Brings Changes

The OCE campus has been bust¬ling with construction work this past summer. A major project, now completed, was the renovation of the Independence elementary school interior. Also electrical outlets have been installed in each of the training school rooms.

Old students will realize that new walks have been built through the grove and to Maple hall.

Work is progressing on the new library building which is located next to the administration building. This building will take the place of the CH library some time in the not-too-distant future.

A new club room is being built in Maple hall. This room will prove especially valuable for club meet¬ings. Much of the old Maple hall furniture is in new re-covered and ready for use.

A great deal of remodeling, under the direction of Mrs. Leona Jesup, has been done in Todd hall. Architectural lines have been placed on the ceiling of the dining room and the room has also undergone a new paint job. Another major project that is being carried out in the dorm is the construction of a new stairway.

New postoffice boxes have been installed in the Campbell hall stu¬dent postoffice to take care of an increasing number of students.

Much clean-up work has been done around the clock and re¬sulting in construction work this past summer. A major project, now completed, was the renovation of the Independence elementary school interior. Also electrical outlets have been installed in each of the training school rooms.

There are many campus rehabilita¬tion plans being considered at this time. Soon OCE may boast of a completely new "face lifting."
Ready for Red Raiders

Continued from Page One

and has been switched to the offensive right tackle position. Jim Deak, up from last year’s freshman team, and Bill Martin, a transfer from Oregon State college, both will see action at the tackle position this year.

At guard we find Archie Padberg, three-year lettermen, holding down the right guard position and outstanding freshman Bill McKinley at left guard. In addition to these men we have Dick Balcom and Ed Coleman, Miller, up from last year’s freshman squad. Ted Draper, a transfer from Vanport and Ed Dennis give us additional strength at end. Daniels has also been playing some defensive end and has looked exceedingly strong in this position.

Delo Sparks, two-year lettermen at guard, has been moved to center and plays first string offensive center. Gus Langley will play defensive center and John Wade is our star man in this position.

There are four boys fighting it out for left halfback all of whom have good potentialities. At the present time it looks as though Tom Epperly will get the nod for the starting berth. They are Jim Ort, Paul Lee, Vince McGlinley and Ralph Capazzo.

Ralph "Borudder" Capazzo has also been working at the right halfback position to give us depth at this spot. The number-one right halfback is Bob Lee and Bobbie has in the past and probably this year again will play considerable football at the defensive safety position.

Brad Michaelson from Salem is at present our number-one defensive left halfback and he has shown great improvement over last year in this spot.

At fullback we have three boys all of whom are good strong runners and all have various degrees of experience. Bill Hinesquirt, lettermen from last year, is our number-one defensive halfbacker also. Bob Dowd, a transfer from Oregon State college, has shown very well in this position and Vernon Hart, up from last year’s freshman team, will, no doubt, get plenty of action this year.

In the all important position of quarterback we see Roger Daxhe, a returning lettermen from Salem, and Jacky Coleman battling it out for the number one spot with Wally Klent and Carl Hersey, both first year men, fighting closely in their food.

Holy Finds Oregon Schools Inefficient

(Sales: Reorganization of Oregon’s “inefficient and inadequate” head office of the state’s elementary and secondary school districts the basic recommendation of the “Holy” report on the state’s public school system). The Holy committee’s plan would set a three-year deadline in Oregon during which reorganization shall take place. It would reorganize school districts, each of which is large enough and with assessed valuation enough to support its own secondary and elementary schools. It would do away with (1) suspended districts, (2) urban high districts, (3) non-high districts, and (4) rural school districts (the country unit set up by law in 1947 for budget supervision.) Also recommended is appointment rather than election of the state superintendent of instruction at the state board of nine to who will go.

The Holy committee’s plan would set a three-year deadline in Oregon during which reorganization shall take place. It would reorganize school districts, each of which is large enough and with assessed valuation enough to support its own secondary and elementary schools. It would do away with (1) suspended districts, (2) urban high districts, (3) non-high districts, and (4) rural school districts (the country unit set up by law in 1947 for budget supervision.) Also recommended is appointment rather than election of the state superintendent of instruction at the state board of nine to who will go.

The Holy committee’s plan would set a three-year deadline in Oregon during which reorganization shall take place. It would reorganize school districts, each of which is large enough and with assessed valuation enough to support its own secondary and elementary schools. It would do away with (1) suspended districts, (2) urban high districts, (3) non-high districts, and (4) rural school districts (the country unit set up by law in 1947 for budget supervision.) Also recommended is appointment rather than election of the state superintendent of instruction at the state board of nine to who will go.

The Holy committee’s plan would set a three-year deadline in Oregon during which reorganization shall take place. It would reorganize school districts, each of which is large enough and with assessed valuation enough to support its own secondary and elementary schools. It would do away with (1) suspended districts, (2) urban high districts, (3) non-high districts, and (4) rural school districts (the country unit set up by law in 1947 for budget supervision.) Also recommended is appointment rather than election of the state superintendent of instruction at the state board of nine to who will go.