Student Body President Allan Petersdorf announced at the special meeting of the Student Body that the Stat. T. D. Board of Higher Education wished to thank all the students in this area for their cooperation in the OCE-EOCE football game.

The last two weeks have been busy ones for the OCE-EOCE football game, according to Allan Petersdorf, President, OCE-EOCE football game, who will send his thanks to the all-girl orchestra for their cooperation in two special events:

- Puppet Show Here Tuesday
- Miss Crawford Pleasures Audience

Puppet Show Here Tuesday

"Puppet show" will be performed here with puppets and be followed by "The Ballad of the Shrew" in two matinees presented by the Stevenses at 2:30 p.m. and 8:30 p.m. last Saturday evening.

First Miss Crawford portrayed the various characters from the "Ballad of the Shrew" as follows:

1. Mrs. McArthur - First Miss Crawford portrayed the Wilson family character, her son's daughter's wife, and her son's daughter, with no speech of her own.
2. Mrs. Denney - The role was played by Miss Dorothy Crawford, an outstanding monologist entertainer, and the final selection of "Macbeth" was that which the Stevenses portrayed with the spirit of the play.
3. Mrs. McArthur - The role was played by the characters and the women of the play, which are made of the new transparent material, with neither proscenium, with neither proscenium, and made of colored glass.

The highlight was the informal treatment of the courtroom by a female witness. The "Sherry Party" was the last act by Miss Crawford. The" Sherry Party" will be attended by Miss Crawford, and her difficulties in giving it will be party the best for this year.

Miss Crawford Pleasures Audience

Miss Dorothy Crawford, an outstanding monologist entertainer, presented four theatrical interpretations during her appearance at the Campbell hall basketball last Saturday evening.

First Miss Crawford portrayed the Wilson family character, her son's daughter's wife, and her son's daughter, with no speech of her own. The debaters are the only ones that have to be careful about the speech of the characters and the women of the play, which are made of the new transparent material, with neither proscenium, with neither proscenium, and made of colored glass.

One more field is being faced by six of the more rugged and ambitious members, that is the field of the murals. Other plans include the recreation hall on the campus, where the model for the group will be sent. The [Continued on Page Three]

Although Dr. Donald H. Baring, the college physician, does not have a regular schedule of visits at the health service office, he is on call for the students who make frequent calls by arrangement as needed. Occasionally it becomes necessary for a student to call at the physicians' office in Independence. If a student should need a day of two, the student's instructor will be notified.

HAIL AND FAREWELL!

As a kind of culmination to a series of air disasters was the recent crash of a small private plane near Klamath Falls. This crash brought about the tragedy which has spread out the lives of three of our highest state officials together with the life of their pilot. The dead in this unfortunate affair are: Governor Earl Snell, Secretary of State Robert Farrell, State Senate President Marshall Cornett, and Pilot Hoyne.

Oregon has no lieutenant-governor, and in case of our state chief executive's death or disability, this highest office which devolves upon the president of the state senate. When the office just mentioned is also vacant, the governorship then goes to the speaker of the state house of representatives. Accordingly, by the Oregon laws of gubernatorial succession, our new state chief executive is John Hall, a Portland attorney.

This unusual disaster, involving, as it did, three men of such prominence, has cast a shadow over the land. The passing of these men, taken in the very prime of life, is naturally an occasion for mourning among their relatives and large circles of friends. To them, we express our heartfelt sympathy—not forgetting the relatives and friends of Pilot Hoyne.

The entire Pacific Northwest has undeniably suffered a distinct loss.

Hail and farewell, good men and true!

Campfire News

Those members attending the Monday evening meeting of the local chapter were very fortunate in having as guest speaker, Mrs. Catherine Boice, adolescent educator of the Willamette valley Campfire Service. Mrs. Campbell spoke on the "Administrative Ends of the Campfire Service," telling of the future in the field of Campfire service for professional workers.

There is a summer course offered at Mills college in California for all girls interested in such professional work. A brief history of the founding of the Campfire organization in 1911 and its growth since then, was outlined. The Campfire is an international and has over 360,000 girls of all ages in its creeds and classes as members.

The Campfire Service in this country is supported by the many agencies and the grassroots drive. The main aim of the Campfire is to "Learn by Doing."

Before Mrs. Campbell spoke, several old business was discussed. The girls were complimented by Betty Beldin, president, for their work in selling hot-dogs at the game. The girls were asked to volunteer time and effort to make the sale of hot-dogs at the game today a greater success.

At the next meeting a new vice-president, Mrs. John Marshall, is to be installed. The Latigue Grayhill, present officer, is leaving OCE to accept a teaching position. We all wish her good luck in her new job.

A committee headed by Emma McFall has decided to de­nate the auditorium for the Sun­day chapel service. By a majority vote it was decided to have this service on November 14, for the present season. As there was no more business the meeting turned over to Mrs. Campbell for the remainder of the evening.

Dorm Dope

By the light of flickering can­dles, Mary had just tucked her little sister in her dormitory. The door closed softly behind them, and then the only sound was the sound of a little girl's snoring. The memories are rushing free at the thought of the beautiful "Prayer Perfect." It falls. They may fall, we may, but I'm just going to whistle.

If you're going to stir up a hor­rible, it's better to do it in a fun way. What do you think? I'm going to whistle.

Of course, you now know I was full blooded Indian when you went to school at dear old OCE? His name is John Smith and a lot of people seem to know him. One of our freshmen had the horn to in­terview him. But I think you're going to whistle.

Friday night, we're dock.

Todd hall residents witnessed the dedication of a mirror in the living room of the dormitory and Virginia Freewill, students who were killed in an auto acci­dent approximately one and a half years ago. Dr. J. F. Santier, representing the faculty and Jay Smith, representing the students, made the dedication. Money for the mirror was raised by the sale of the fireplace in the living room, was donated by residents of Todd hall. Mrs. Campbell turned over to Mrs. Campbell for the plans for skit night on November 1.

New conductor was installed, and young Article had to confess that her experience occurred where she car­ried home the wrong coat from a hairdressing salon.

For the Staff and Key

Five freshman girls were formally initiated Wednesday evening at a candle-lit ceremony in the music hall. At the next meeting a new vice­president was installed, and the new officer is now international and has over 360,000 girls of all ages in its creeds and classes as members.

The Staff and Key is here. Most of you freshmen have never gone through the toils of Homecoming before. Well, this is your first opportunity to try a student reporter. Borrow one set of shin guards from the foot­ball team, paint your face, and pad your elbows. With this preliminary preparation you may attempt to blow through the crowd and find seats at the foot­ball game. As my last word of advice about Homecoming, let me say an Alumnus is a person who returns to find out if he is still young enough to whistle.

Hail and farewell, good men and true!

• OCE students are again reminded that the Research Testing Center is available for students who have not yet been given their test results.

Fifteen IVCF students were present at the state Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship conference at Twin Rocks, Oregon, on October 24, 25 and 26.

(Continued from Page One) Impromptu speaking. The student speaker must be able to talk for four minutes on the trend of American newspapers and periodicals, the history of creative writing of all feature stories in both news and sports pages and the trend of today. Another of the ideas offered was material for the type of speech in the influence on the American people that our newspapers have brought.

Mr. Hart has a great many navy men who have had no background for the type of work. The first meeting, which will be held at the University of Portland on Saturday night, November 8, is in the nature of a trial session and as many will be made as places are turn. Gerald Hamman was elected as business manager of the forensics team and Colleen Strobel was chosen as reporter for the group.

Wolf Chatter

By Rollie Hamer

Oregon College of Education probably has the outstanding high school football player of the 1946 season, speaking namely of Robin Lee, all-stater from Eugene. We might have a lot of arguments over this subject but will stick by our guns. It's admitted that Grant's Pat Duff and Hood River's Don O'Leary were good but we doubt if they were the team players like Lee. Lee was all-city for Jefferson high in Portland so that should show a point there.

We saw Lee first play in 1946 against our beloved alma mater, University High of Eugene. Robin was playing for the Eugene Axemen. I am afraid to tell you the final score but Robin Lee tallied a mere 37 points before that ball game was over.

For the Wolves this year he has been outstanding in running, passing and blocking and he has excelled in all of them. Against Vanport his performance was up to par, but he, like everyone else, let down after a superb performance against Southern Oregon. Yes, Portland can have their Duffs and Hood River can take O'Leary and send him to Notre Dame but we will take Robin Lee, a great little competitor.

Next on OCE's list after the "Big" game are the Pioneers from Lewis and Clark. They have yet to win a ball game and they have played four, but take this note, they have tied Whitman, Linfield and a tough Pacific Lutheran club coached by the Marvelous Marvs., Harshman and Tonnervik. Their loss was to Pacific university, 13-0. They have a new mentor this fall after the death of Matty Matthews this September. The Pioneers hired Joe Huston, former Oregon star and Grant high of Portland coach.

Nice tribute Bill McArthur received from the dean of coast sport writers, L. H. Gregory, in Greg's Gossip column Thursday morning. Take a look, people, and you'll know your football coach. Confirmed by "Mac", Jayvee games on Nov. 11 and 16 with Linfield and Willamette.

Wolves Ready To Upset Dope

Rated a slight underdog for today's contest with Eastern Oregon College, Coach Bill McArthur's up-and-coming OCE Wolves are out to show the fans that they have not read the pre-game predictions. Last fall at LaGrande the Wolves dropped a 25-0 decision to the Mountaineers, but the local players intend to reverse the score this afternoon.

On the basis of scores this season the two teams should enter today's contest even-stripe. The unbeaten Ashland eleven defeated OCE 25-0 and OCE 20-0.

Burglars Win

Led by the passing of "Buck" Stanley and the sensational long runs of Bothwell and Marshall, the House of Burglars whipped the Arnold Arms Sea Gulls 27-6 in a six-man touch football contest last Tuesday afternoon on a muddy, slippery field. The pass receiving of Winters, Carlson and Baglien was nothing short of sensational in view of the very unfavorable weather conditions. Bothwell and Marshall sped through the mud on runs from 60 to 73 yards. Irvin scored the lone touchdown for the Sea Gulls on a 50-yard jaunt in the last quarter.

West House News

West House edged out the Arnold Arms Polecats 12-8 Thursday afternoon in an intramural six-man touch football game. The winners scored on a 50-yard scamper by Joe Roberts after a pass completion. Hamilton ran some 20 yards for the other West House score. Def. Garter turned in an 85-yard touchdown run for the Polecats.

EOCE Mountaineer Speed Merchants

Coached by the Marvelous Marvs., Harshman and Tonnervik, the Mountaineers have an excellent scoring record. They have scored 27 points to date and gave up but 10 points, thus the score of 27-6.
