Dr. Charles D. Byrne, chancellor of the state system of higher educacation, appears as guest interrogator in the introductory program of OCE's Radio Series. The first program, a series of five, will be heard at 7 p.m. on Tuesday, October 16, over radio station KOACO.

The chancellor quizzed Dr. Robert J. Maaske concerning plans, accomplishments and major functions of OCE as a teacher education institution.

Miss Juanita Mohr, a student teacher in Supervisors Mrs. Doris Schuberg's and Dr. Josephine Wuruk's classes at the campus elementary school, discussed the problems and experiences she has had as a beginning teacher. Dr. Floyd Albin, director of student teaching here, presented Miss Mohr.

The program offers a series de-gined to provide a one-hour information concerning the complex process of training teachers throughout Oregon. A subject in each of the five programs which are sponsored by a joint faculty-student committee at OCE. Henry C.

Dr. Gerhart Seger Addresses Assembly

Dr. Gerhart Seger was the speaker in an OCE program held on October 12 at Campbell hall auditorium. His subject was, "Are We Headed for World War II?"

Dr. Seger stated that at the present time we should not think of war power on earth; when we may expect war from. He stated that Rusreason. In Russia, it is possible for one to own almost anything for the person who owns the materials center. In reality, he stated, Russia is a totalitarian country. Its defined self-assertionism as "Everything not compulsory is forbidden."

Dr. Seger believes that Russia will disintegrate from within; how-not, from a revolution of the people but from within. He stated that those whom Stalin has named as "the true apparat," and other Happy Birthday, Millie, on your 19th birthday.

The dorm was really popping on Mrs. Miller, last year's house- mother, was here to visit a day or two. She is now teaching the 12th grade in an Albany school.

The dorm council met Wednesday evening in Miss Leonard's apartment for a regular house meeting. Reserved lockers were discussed and you may now sign up for a locker, which will be reserved only through the week.

A definite time was set for the closing hours of our back door and there will now be no more backs and irons discussed. We may get new lockers and trouncing boards!!

Arnold Arms Affairs

There is never a dull moment at

Arnold Arms. Everyday the boys meet in Lee Delbert's room on the second floor. The permanent members of the room are Lee Delbert, Norman Geer, Guy Hetts and Gnee Smith.

Frank Maxwell, John Robinson, Don Wickstrand and Gaynor Huf live there a good part of the time.

One night yours truly, Al Smith, was passing around the second floor in his favorite pair of polka-dot undershorts (these pants were in the wash). The boys invited him into the Dehart room. As he walked into the room, there was a brilliant flash. His picture was taken for the Grove.

Many of the boys have had their pictures taken in similar fashion by the Arnold Arms photographer, Guy Hetts. These pictures have been developed and are on display on Guy Hetts' wall.

Keith Jones and Bill Blackmun had a wrestling match on the third floor every night. They fight for several hours each night (room-mates). On Tuesday a series of explosions were heard in Arnold Arms, coming from the third floor. This turned out to be Keith and Bill wrestling in the bath tub.

Meanwhile, Harold Briggs was giving his "koch dance" on the other side of the hall. He has given two performances so far this term. Unfortunately, you truly missed both of them, so I will describe the dance at a later date.

Downstairs, some of the boys are free from study and complaining that there is nothing to do around the campus. Girls, have you any ideas?

The OCE victory over Oregon Technical Institute was araudis, especially since the win was a game-jump on the powerful Owls in the annual Oregon Collegiate Conference championship. The Owls were pre-season favorites to win the conference, and were the only college junior college in the nation. Although the Owls have featured the aggegates of both the Vikings and Eastern Oregon College of Education, they will have the advantage of playing a stronger opposition.

The contest began on a dismal note when the Owls scored the first touchdown of the game in the first quarter. This Owls took the lead into the second quarter of the game, but the Owls scored one in the third quarter and two in the fourth quarter. The Owls scored on a short pass from Quarterback Roger Kinning, who passed to a wide receiver who scored on a short pass from Quarterback Roger Kinning.

Vikings Ready For Grudge Game

"Beware the Vikings!" That's the phrase given by Bill McArthur as the OCE Wolfmen return home for a Friday night outing on October 30, against Vanguard College.

The OCE campus—whose always brings into their thick of the Viking forced-bite stunts—expected to turn into a real slugfest, with the Viking forces still plentiful of last year's 1-4-0 defeat.

The Owls' backfield is set-ground Fullback Dale Stew, named as Coach Joe O'Neill's most dedicated player of the season. The Owls' defense, the rest of the backs came from Portland prep schools. They include halfback Dave Johnson, all around running half, and all-city end Bob McArthur, and Cougars, and little ability who will continue to feel that their participation is a team of average ability, the Owls have always been captivated by the American League.
