Orchestra To Appear in Corvallis

The Robert Shaw Chorale and Orchestra will be in Corvallis this week. Robert Shaw, who will perform on Wednesday, November 7, in the Gill coliseum, will be accompanied by the Symphony orchestra. He will be on campus for the week, and two excerpts from "Porgy and Bess" will be sung at the symphony.

The program will feature the "Requiem Mass in D Minor" by Mozart, with Women's Chorus and the Robert Shaw Chorale. The "Vesper Service" in D Major by Duruflé will be conducted by Richard Baker, the oboe solo will be played by George Scott, and the clarinet solo will be played by William McCloud.

Three Compete for Queen Title

The list of candidates for Homecoming Queen has been narrowed down to three contestants. The finalist will be chosen on Friday, November 2, at the rally dance in the Gill Coliseum. All students attending the dance will have an opportunity to vote for the one they prefer. The Queen will be introduced at halftime of the basketball game.

The three princesses are: Maida Hildreth, freshman; Eleanor Pulm, sophomore; and Betsy Worth, junior. All students are urged to attend the rally dance and cast their votes for the first annual Homecoming Queen.

Rally Dance To Have Bohemian Club Theme

A rally dance will be held Friday, November 2, at 8 p.m. in Maple hall, immediately following the Homestake Rose Field. The dance is sponsored by Colloquy Coeds and Staff and Key.

Committee in charge are as follows: Alice Hardy, reserve; Mabel Macdonald and Barbara Sherman, table châts; Eleanor Pulmore, publicity; Winnie Griffith, Drum Hughes, and Mrs. Robert Sage. Officers: Alice Hardy, Mary Ann Mont- dea, and Beverly Mulholland, entertainment; Norma Harrington, and Margaret Burbridge, refreshments.

Correction Made

Last week's Lamron named Bob Buehler as the student who, with Jim Spear, did the best photography work at the OCE radio station. The correct name is Bob Buehler. There is no such student here on the campus, and the student who actually did the work was Tom Hoppier.

Radio Station To Open In May

The OCE radio station will open in May. The station will be located in the Old Main building, and will be staffed by students. The station will broadcast sports, news, and music.

Phi Beta Sigma Sets Dates for Initiation

Initiations for the last half term and members of Phi Beta Sigma met for the third time this term on Monday, November 1. Plans were made for collecting news from the alumni members to be printed in a newsletter and sent to the alumni members during the winter term. The newsletter contains news of interest to the alumni.

November 8 was set as the date for informal initiation and November 15 for the formal initiation of ten new members who are being taken into the club this term.

February 23, 24, and 25, were the dates decided upon for the Phi Beta Sigma Homecoming.

AWS Adds New Feature

A new feature has been added to the program of the Associated Women's organization for the purpose of stimulating interest and participation. Twenty members have been asked to other women to attend the initial meeting, scheduled for Tuesday, October 29, at 5 p.m. in the OCE business office. The feature will indicate the largest number of women to attend the meeting will be the recipient of a free shampoo and hair styling at Jim's Beauty Salon.

Discussion of U.N. Featured on Broadcast

How students of education feel about the United Nations, and its role in the world of experience and peace is the subject of a program to be heard Thursday, October 30, over KOAC, at 7 p.m. T'aking part in the discussion are OCE students and one faculty member. Miss Joan Seaver, dean of women, acts as moderator. Mr. Charles Noren, an assistant professor of geography, tells of the experiences of the travel study tour of Europe. Miss Seaver will introduce the program. The next program will consider the United Nations in America.

Special Ed. Students Visit State Schools

OCE's Special Education class, under the direction of Miss Emma Hazarika, associate professor of education, visited the State School for the Deaf in Salem on October 23. The group left the college about 8:30 a.m. on Tuesday and went to Salem by car. At the State School for the Deaf, the group was met by the principal of the school and the director of the school. The students were escorted all through the several buildings and through the classroom, dormitories and kitchen.

Year Budget Approved By Student Council

The associated student council met in regular session Monday evening, October 22, in the student body room.

Final copies of the budget were reviewed by the council with comments being made by Mr. Stebbins and Eugene Blair. The budget was approved and the financial secretary was instructed to go ahead with its publication.

The load speaker system was discussed. It was suggested that the loud speaker be used for publicity the Linfield game and the Homecoming activities.

Alice Hardie was appointed drama business manager and Bob Mims was appointed to assist Jesse Handie.

The bus trip to Vancouver, British Columbia, to the University of British Columbia-OCE football game was discussed. It was reported that all reservations are to be made with Miss Henkle.

It was reported that the Oregon Federation of Collegiate Leaders' convention will be held at Linfield college November 10 and 12. Council members were urged to attend.

It was decided that associated students body cards will be issued to wives and (or) husbands of students at a cost of $6 per card. Cards would be placed at campus events.

Three cards can be purchased from Eugene Bair.

Barb Scott was appointed to be in charge of getting the student council composite mounted and distributed.

Bob Downing suggested the use of the display case in the library for the purpose of displaying the picture of the Homecoming queen and her trophy. The matter is being investigated.

The meeting was adjourned after discussing arrangements for last week-end's masquerade ball in Maple hall and the Linfield-OCE football game at McMinnville.

Women To Meet

The Associate Student Women will have their first meeting of the term on Tuesday, October 30, at 6 p.m. in Campbell hall auditorium. Purpose of the meeting is to discuss plans for the Sadie Hawkins dance, which the AWS will sponsor. All OCE women are urged to attend.
