WSS Man Speaks at Assembly

"Leaders of the World Student Movement have always had a career in war and who want to prevent the next one. These leaders are not just people of ideals and do-gooders." said Bert Jorgensen, graduate of the OCE and member of the young World Student Movement. The core of the movement is a good team that has been working for 16 years. It started when the war ended and is now working to start a world peace movement. During the recent war the world organized a number of student organizations in the war camps on both fronts. Now, besides helping students, the movement is working in the schools of men's and women's voices, will also conduct in the course of Mrs. Florence W. Hutchison of the OCE music department. Scripting the program will be Mr. George B. Harding of the OCE speech department.

On Wednesday, December 19, at 7:00 p.m., the School of Music will hold a Yule Vespers in the auditorium. The program will be a program of seven folk dances directed by Mrs. Knox. Costumes were borrowed from OCE and Miss Katharine Christianson. These dances will be capably directed by Mrs. Knox. Those taking part in the dance are: Danish dance, Arlita Boge, accompanist; Irish dance, Betty Jo Freeman, soloist; Swedish dance, James Kennedy, soloist; Silesian dance, Song of the Angels, Gershon Lobel, on Christmas Eve; German dance, Christian Colken and Miss Katharine Christianson.

School To Offer New Courses

The Oregon College of Education will offer two late-afternoon courses during the December session. These courses will be available for those who are interested in pursuing a particular course of study.

The courses are as follows: MTH 565, "Audio-Visual AIDS in Education." This week-long course will provide a survey of the development and use of audio-visual aids, and their practical use. Mr. Amo de Varennes, Wednesday, 4-6 P.M. The second course is MTH 540, "Problems in Elementary Education." (two to six hours credit.) A seminar-type reading and discussion course designed as an elective for candidates for the bachelor's degree in educational education. It will embrace study and discussion of a selected number of problems in teaching to meet needs of individual candidates. Dr. G. G. Mitchell, first five days, Thursday and Wednesday, 4-6 P.M. Mr. de Varennes is the audio-visual aide specialist in the Portland school system, and is nationally known for his research in this field.

Scheduling of classes will begin on Monday, December 12, between the hours of 1:00 and 4:00 P.M. Those students who do not pay their fees on these two afternoons will have to wait until the next day of registration, Monday, January 11. It will not be necessary for pre-registered students. The next class will go into effect on January 19, prior to Tuesday, January 8, the first day of classes.

The second objective of pre-registration is to provide students the opportunity to counsel with the registrar before the beginning of classes. The registrar can be found in a veteran, and will register as usual on registration day.

Vet Publication To Be in Library

For the convenience of veteran students in OCE "Yulet-Letter," a weekly news item of importance to veterans and women, will be in the OCE library beginning December 4, 1947, according to Mrs. Dean Hofstetter, the college librarian. "Yulet-Letter" is an "Army Times" publication that reports the analysis of new legislation and new developments in the veteran's. It is cleared to clarify the new regulations and benefits, and is designed for the veteran. The publication will make individual to questions and current events of veteran's affairs that are sent in so the "Army Times" staff. In addition to the subscribers of "Yulet-Letter" veteran's veteran's books concerning veteran's rights and privileges will be sent to the OCE library.

Miss Minnis has arranged that the copies of "Yulet-Letter" be placed in a pamphlet box near the newspaper window ledge of the college library.

Student To Have Poetry Published

Poetry written by Joyce Tverberg, a senior, and her夫 wife, has been accepted for publication in the Annual Anthology of College Poetry according to a report by Dennis Harman, managing editor of the National Poetry Association. Mrs. Tverberg, a third year student at the Oregon College of Education, is also a graduate student at the University of Kansas, where he has majored in physics. His work has been selected for publication as the result of his work at the University of Kansas. His best track work was done at the University of Texas. He participated in some big track meets that included the University of Texas at Austin, Texas, and the Drake Relays at Des Moines, Iowa, and track events of the University of Kansas. During his senior year at the University of Minnesota, he was a member of the National Track and Field team under Bob White's coaching. While he was a member of the University of Minnesota, he received a master's degree from the school of chemistry, and his work in the laboratory on a chemistry thesis was largely in the social sciences, biology, health and physical education. Shortly after graduation from Minnesota university, he joined the Army and, as a result, was sent to the United States.

CROWDED CONDITIONS IN SALEM

Thursday afternoon Dr. Kaplan’s mental hygiene class attended a clinic at the Oregon State Hospital near Salem. Four bus loads of Oregon State college psychology students also were among the observers. Those of us who saw many of the patients brought on the stage are firmly convinced that state schools are better able to deal with those con­ditions in the hospital. There are some 2700 patients at the hospital which has accommodations for only 2200.

Mental illness is one of the most serious dis­ cases of our time and we should begin to show more interest in the unfortunate people who are sent to these institutions. In the past three years, 5000 patients have been treated at the Salem institution.

These nurses have performed admirably in their duties and are responsible for more curable cases than the average layman can understand.

These unfortunate people need expert care and

STAFF AND KEY
A surprise meeting of Staff and Key was held recently at the home of Mrs. Florence Hutchins. The meeting, which was opened by the president, Alice Fivowitz, was very informal. The members decided to keep a bulletin board of the basketball games this winter. They will probably be placed above the assembly announcements.

Present at the meeting was Jean Higgin's oldest boy, Terry, who is five years old. Mrs. Hutchins served a delicious lunch of chocolate cake, ice cream, coffee, and mixed candy. The members enjoyed the meeting thoroughly and they desire to express their thanks for such a lovely evening.

"What is 'executive ability,' father?" inquired the curious lad.

"Executive ability, my boy, is the art of getting the credit for all the hard work that someone else does."

Tell Blonde: "I want a pair of red shoes, the low, flat kind with wedge heel."

Mrs. Blaine: "To go with what?"

Tell Blonde: "A short leotard, mother."

Collecto Coeds

Tuesday evening, December 2, Collecto Coeds held a short business meeting. The girls looked over a sample sweater and decided to get new ones for the club. At present membership in Collecto Coeds is limited to 15 girls. The girls voted to amend their constitution to increase this number to 20.

The group has been discussing plans for a lounge for off-campus women in the basement of Campbell hall. It was decided, however, to postpone any action until after the coming holidays.

 NOTICE! **
* All students who wish to get requisitions for their clubs, etc., should see Al Thibesens in the new student council room in the Campbell hall basement.

The girls will be available from 3:15 to 4:15 p.m. on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays.

Sigma Epsilon Pi

December 2 in the home of Miss June Dale, club adviser. Approximately 18 members of sigma epsilon pi enjoyed a dinner prepared by Miss Dale's mother. After dinner the girls held a short meeting during which Jeanne Premazzi was unanimously elected to fill Mina Zebley's office as secretary next term since Mina will not be here. Evelyn Marsh was elected reporter. Miss Joan Seavey provided unexpected entertainment with a story which held the girls in suspense until the climax.

Pacific Badgers

Coach Bob Knox of OCE Wolves surprised the Pacific University Badgers last week by dumping the favorites 61-39 at Forest Grove. This win was a hard-fought encounter all the way, even though the Wolves led 17 to 7 at halftime. Last Tuesday evening Coach Knox’s club edged out the Pacific Packards from Portland 45 to 46. The Packards filled in for Reed college who were unable to make the trip to Monmouth.

By this time the column goes to press the Oregon College-Lewis & Clark game will be history, but we’ll give you a little dope on Coach Eldon Fix’s Pioneers. They have a very strong team with big Bob Pollard, six-foot-six-inch center, leading the parade. Merrit Kelsay and Bob Peterson are also big guns in the Pioneer attack. This contest will inaugurate the new gymnasium on the Lewis & Clark campus. The building cost nearly $200,000, so it should be very nice.

Round About:

Something new has been added on the west coast! Sports writers and people in the know, have started picking a “Little All-Coast Football Team.” This year’s selections included Charlie DeAturemont on the first eleven, and Tex Gatlin on the second team; both of these men starred for Southern Oregon College. Wonder what happened to Robin Lee?

Kent Farley

Mr. Farley’s work in education was interrupted by his going into the military service where he held the rank of lieutenant in the coast guard. He was a security officer who traveled aboard newly constructed submarines from the factories of construction on the Great Lakes, down the rivers to New Orleans, Louisiana.

“We traveled on the Mississippi river day and night during every month of the year,” stated Mr. Farley. “Although I wasn’t a pilot I learned to appreciate the skills that are required by the modern Mississippi river pilots. They must know over 100 lights, buoys, and markers in addition to the different river channels that occur at various water levels. After that experience I was able to read Mark Twain’s Life on the Mississippi with far more interest than before.”

Other military duties of Mr. Farley’s included security work around the T.V.A. project. This work carried him into the states of Tennessee, Georgia, Alabama, and North Carolina. He stated that the increased economic opportunities provided by the T.V.A. are making a considerable difference to the hill people who live in the T.V.A. area.

Mr. Farley, after a final change in the subject of conversation, voluntarily stated that he and his wife were impressed by the warm friendliness of the Monmouth people.

Coach R Knox Writes Article

“Basketball Ability Tests” by Robert D. Knox of OCE appeared in the publication “Scholastic Coach” for November, 1947. In this article Mr. Knox, assistant professor of physical education and basketball coach at OCE, describes simple tests which offer a screening device to help evaluate candidates for a basketball team. The tests were devised by Mr. Knox and have been given to high school and college basketball squads over a period of years. Since the results have shown that the men making the high scores on the tests have been the high scoring men on the basketball squads, the tests have proved to be as practical a test for determining the selection of squad members, states Mr. Knox.

L&C Pioneers Trample Wolves

Lewis & Clark college handed OCE its fourth defeat of the season by running up a 56-29 count on a Wolf team that just could “hit the lid” in the designation game for the Pioneers in honor of their tiny new $200,000 gymnasium Friday night in Portland.

Coach Fix used 13 men in the starting line-up and 11 of them entered the scoring column. On the other hand, the Wolves from Monmouth found the basket lid on it when they visited The Pioneers. It had a 39-18 halftime.

Pollard and Kelsay each scored two points for high total, while McMurry and McKee tallied seven points to lead OCE. The two teams meet here Sunday night.
