Picture-Taking Begins on Grove

There is a new office for the Grove staff in the basement of the Campbell hall. All the files and equipment for the Grove are moved into this office on October 23. Work on the Grove is now in full swing! At Maple hall last week, the new picture has been taken. The Grove photographers, because of their busy schedules, have not been able to combine theses-...

Savings and Nonsense

The school is now accepting applications for the position of public relations officer on the athletic council. Any student interested in this position should see Paul Lee. For more information, contact Miss Seavey, dean of women.

Whoops — Our Mistake!

Did you ever thumb through a Young and Gay, directed by Mr. Lemoine Murray, and notice that every production advertised has some sort of presentation date has been set but it truly never comes? As yet no definite plans for an all-school play night to await opportunity to be held in the gymnasium Saturday, November 4. There will be plenty of fun for all with games such as volleyball, badminton, handball, ping-pong, and shuffleboard. Come on out and get your exercise and help make this a successful event.

SEAVLEY Gets Honor

Miss Joan Seavey, dean of women at Oregon College of Education, was informed this week that she had won the Edward W. Hazen Foundation award of $50 for the school year 1950-51. This is the second year that she has won this award. Miss Seavey was praised by those who have worked with her outstanding work in student counseling in which she has strived to encourage various meetings, publications, and other projects.

Senior Cottage Elects

Doris Lane was elected president of Senior Cottage. Doris is also the freshman "cash vice-president."

We are quite pleased and happy with our senior advisor, Miss Barbara T. Taylor.

Senior Cottage girls really put forth all talents and abilities in the sign contest for Homecoming. Under the direction of Marjorie Ford, the design, cost, and accomplishments resulted in a tie for second place.

Two of our girls left Senior Cottage. Miss June Smith dropped OCC as she intends to be married in January. Muriel Gromov has moved to Todd hall.

Celebrating a birthday since arrival at college was Nancy M. Birdsell.

No Null Moments

Certain members of East House seem to have developed some muscle as a result of the semi-intercollegiate event played October 23. All intramural games are played on Monday and Wednesdays at 4 p.m. on the football field.

There is never a dull moment as long as Dan Ogul still has a zit. Quite a bit, Ivan Burton recently presented Bobby Lee Gilbert of Fend with a ring.

East House will be well represented in the talent show sponsored by the Associated Men Students. Later Alina will play his electric guitar and the "Quarry Quartet" will sing three numbers. The talent show will be held sometime in the middle of November.

Birthday Party Held

A Halloween birthday party was held in room 208 of Todd hall on Wednesday with Peggy Stoot as the guest of honor. The room was decorated with orange and black crepe paper and refreshments consisted of birthday cake, cider, popcorn and favors. Guests were Vivian Michelle, Annadell Smithson, David Luellen, Helen Tabor, Ber McHul lund, Jean Nye, Eleanor Pulorum, Emily Brown, Donna O'Brien, Leslie Hiser, Galli Snow, Mary Lee Youngquist and the guest of honor.

Next addition to the "She's lovely, she's engaged, etc." department are Marilyn Dixon and Mary Stewart. The respective fathers are Hal Jule and Don Plummer, an OCC alum. Best wishes!

Meat Discusses Rules

A house meeting was held in the living room of West House Tuesday night to clear up a few regulations and make some new rules concerning the use of equipment. Shirley Weber was elected secretary and Jo Anne Pulehak was named treasurer. Refreshments were served after the meeting.

Thursday evening held a lot of interest for the West House girls. They attended a fireside at Todd hall and pot was being given, a flock of late forth all talents and abilities in the halls.

Some of the queerest phone calls have been received lately, some unknown person (why the name of Will Waterbucket) has been carrying on lengthy conversations with some of the residents.

Newman Club Elects

Newman club, Catholic organization on campus, held its first meeting of the year Wednesday evening, October 18, and it was decided that the general meeting will be held on the second Wednesday of each month. The next meeting will be held at the home of O. Christenson in Salem.

A number of officers were re-elected in the following students being named: Ralph Capasso, president; Vince Novacek, vice-president; and Mary Ann Monda, secretary-treasurer.

Those who wish any information about the Newman club and its activities should see one of the officers, Mr. Christenson.

All-American Slated

Of interest to everyone will be the news that December 5 has been set as the date for the All-American formal which Staff and Key sponsor each fall term.

Staff and Key was in charge of the decorations and program for the Freedom Scroll. Chairman for the first day was Shirley Oliver as head of the second day, Paul Kepp. The meeting place for Staff and Key has been changed from room 111 in Campbell to the same old place in the old hall. The meeting takes place in Staff and Key will be held on the third Thursday of each month.

Mr. Humphrey Chosen To Advise 'Wax' Club

A cross-section of the OCE ski club for the 1950-51 season, appeared at the first meeting last week. When the minutes from last term were read by Winifred Griffin, treasurer, President John Schaffer gave a very worded expression because of the small number of "snow bunnies" present. But as the treasurer's report was being given, a flock of late "bunny" arrived, and the club looked like a going concern.

The members of last year's club were present, so the amount of business conducted was limited. One thing of importance was the unan-
