Two 'I Remember Mama' Performances Will Be Presented - November 14, 16

The curtain will go up on Oregon College of Education's first full production of John Van Druten's celebrated Broadway hit, "I Remember Mama," at 8 p.m. in the student center, Monday, November 14 and 16 in the Campbell hall auditorium.

As the play opens mama, papa and the children are seated in the kitchen counting out money for the bills which need to be paid. Each one is hopeful that there will be enough money in the envelope which papa has brought home to see mama won't have to go to the bank. Mama wants her little ones to feel secure; therefore when the family is faced with difficulties, mama talks about the "Bank Account."

One day after papa has been out of work, the youngest daughter, Dagmar, becomes sick and has to have an operation. Uncle Christ, the Black Norwegian, sees that Dagmar is taken to the hospital and has her operation but visits aren't allowed to see his niece until 3 hours have passed.

It is this that is supposed to make mama hit. When she awakes and finds that she is in the hospital, mama goes to see Dagmar. (Does she succeed?) Does Dagmar pull through the operation? What about the bank accounts?

Meanwhile the eldest daughter, Karthe, is trying desperately to sell some of her stories to magazines so that the family can have a bigger bank account. When she receives letters with her manuscript she goes to get to write stories or does she become a success?

"I Remember Mama" was the object of a study conference of the Oregon Audio-Visual Association. The chairman of the meeting was Dr. and Mrs. Roben J. Maaske, Mr. and Mrs. Delmer R. Dewey. Mr. and Mrs. Delmer R. Dewey. Two other teachers who have been involved in the planning of the conference will serve as general group discussion leaders. The general themes of the conference are "Teacher Education in Audio-Visual Materials and Methods," and "Audio-Visual Materials and Methods." Arthur E. Palmer, curriculum coordinator of the Albany school system and president of the Oregon Audio-Visual Association, will preside at the opening session at 9:30 a.m. A general survey of what is now being done in teacher education for audio-visual competencies will start the conference program.

Dr. Joseph I. Hall of the State Department of Education, and R. W. TrumRner, director of audio-visual services for the Salem public schools will serve as assistant discussion leaders, for the group.

After a luncheon at noon, the group will tour the modern facilities of the Instrumental Materials Center here under the guidance of the center's director, Henry O. Ruk, Jr.

A short business meeting of the association will take place at 1:30 p.m. (Continued on Page Two)
Forging Students To Visit OCE Campus
On Thursday, November 15, Epiphany M. A. Layode, a native of Nio, Nigeria, and a student from Portland, will visit the OCE campus. After visiting the student center, the group will proceed to work in the Science, Math, and Business departments. During the afternoon, Layode will be a guest speaker for a student council meeting. At 7 p.m., Layode will be the keynote speaker at the OCE Student Council meeting. Layode is a member of the Nigerian government, and his visit is sponsored by the OCE student council. Layode will also be selling during intermission.

Athletic Budget Needs Revision
The meeting of the student council on November 1, Monday, in the OCE student center, was held in the New Student Union. At the meeting, the student council members discussed the need for a budget revision. The council members agreed that the budget needs to be revised in order to cover the expenses of the athletic programs. The members also discussed the need for a more accurate record of the expenses of the athletic programs.

Educators To Be Heard Over Weekly Program
What do you parents mean to you as a citizen? How can you check up on the work they do with your own children?

Todd Hall News

Barbara Reif has quit school to be at home and help her mother who has recently become ill.

Marie Shortt is back in school after being out for two weeks with the flu.

This last weekend June Lavoiite came back to school wearing a new diamond ring. Congratulations to the family.

Rosalind Rinker, an Oregon staff member for Inter-Varsity, has been visiting girls at the dorm for four days.

Last week Doreen Zybich went to the hospital in Corvallis to have an appendix operation. Hope you are feeling better, Doreen.

Tuesday evening, shortly after dinner, the girls had a short business meeting in the living room of Todd hall. Purpose of the meeting was to discuss plans for the Sadie Hawkins dance which is to be held Saturday, November 17, in Maple hall. Jerry Ratlo was appointed as chairman for the dance. Let's all turn out for this dance and make it a real success. Everyone is invited — bring along your friends too!

Last week Loraine Carlson went home because of illness. She is expected to return to school soon.

Halloween night the Todd hall girls had a fire-side. Each floor contributed to the entertainment and refreshments of punch and cookies were served.

Arnold Arms News

Activity has been rather limited around Arnold Arms this past week. It's a shame. The freshmen, along with everyone else, are having mid-terms, consequently there has been more study and less sound.

Nevertheless, after the homecoming dance a group of fellows, with their female friends, ambled over to AAU for coffee and doughnuts. Mrs. Dinsmore and Mrs. John Pleinst were the gracious hosts of the event.

Harold Briggs is at it again. Yes, this time with another of these new-famous parties. This one was a birthday party for his sister. No, we aren't those, dear! But the celebration wasn't hindered by that fact.

All the boys of third floor were invited and enjoyed the evening. Refreshments included a birthday cake and ice cream.

Collecto Coeds Meet to Initiate New Members

A semi-formal initiation of Collecto Coeds' new members was held in the music room in Jessica Todd hall on November 6. Initiated were Dave Hsuham, Mary Boine and Shirley Ann Hsdon. Refreshments of sundae were served after the initiation.

Dave Hsuham, Mary Boine and Ray Brier made the hot dogs for the Homecoming gate, and all the members helped with the sale. Collecto Coeds also passed out the program for the game.

The next regular meeting of the group will be held on Tuesday, November 13.

IVCF Conference Held

The Oregon IVCF state conference was held Oct. 26-28 at Cannon Beach. Groups from all state colleges and universities were represented. Thirteen students attended from the local IVCF group.

Friday evening began the conference with Charles Trotman, regional director of the Pacific Northwest, in charge. There were Saturday morning classes and an afternoon free to enjoy the sunshine and the beach. Sunday dinner at 1230 ended the conference.

Rosalind Rinker, Paul Btyx, Charles Trotman and Herbert Bull were the speakers and staff. Miss Rinker visited the OCE campus last Monday, through Friday.

IVCF will meet tonight at 7 o'clock in the elementary school auditorium. There will be a guest speaker and special music.

There is a Bible study hour on Wednesdays from 6 to 7 p.m. in room 222 of Campbell hall.

Wolves Pummel OCE for Flag

The Oregon College of Education varsity football squad overpowered the University of Idaho 36-12 Saturday afternoon at the Monmouth stadium to assure the Wolves a spot in the upcoming state tournament.

The contest marked the end of a highly successful season for OCE, their second consecutive conference championship, and the right break they could go far. Making the right break they could go far.

The powerful Wolves of Oregon College of Education wrapped up their second consecutive conference championship, as they pounded out a convincing 41-14 victory over their visiting Idaho counterparts. The Wolves, led by veteran quarterback Leonard Davis, broke up a number of Idaho alley twists with their fullback, Charley Pinion, and halfback, Bob Miller, who was a bear-ganization two years ago.

Against Loss?

The contest was held on a beautiful fall afternoon, with temperatures in the mid-60s and the sun shining brightly. Both teams had been preparing for this match for weeks, and it showed in their performances.

The Wolves started off strong, with Davis scoring a touchdown on a 1-yard run in the first quarter. Idaho's quarterback, trying to keep the Wolves from scoring, fumbled on the Wolf 25 yard line and Davis recovered the ball.

The second half of intramural football opened with the Wolves leading 18-0. Davis scored a second touchdown on a 4-yard run, and the Wolves extended their lead to 25-0.
