Basketball ice, Bob McKee, was the most chosen by Coach and Ray as best exemplifying the qualifications of athletic ability, popularity, scholarship, and good cooperation, and was honored as All-American at their formal dance, held in the gymnasium, Saturday, December 1.

Although he is most well known for his excellent basketball play—a season that started for OCE when he was junior—he is also a student council immediately, therefore, less interested in basketball than in athletics, for which he has been, and will be, a candidate for the most valuable player award. He, however, is practicing hard ball in order to qualify for a candidate for the "Little All American" team, which finds no number of last year's most valuable player, Don Rucker.

Rucker, Lee Chosen As48'sBestGridders

As an assembly was held in Campbell hall auditorium last Monday, the name of presenting football awards to the 1948 Wolves, Coach Bill MacArthur, director of the football season and of each player receiving an award, 30 an introduction Robert Ellis, assistant coach, and John Chamberlain, the referee, who gave a short speech on the team.

In his giving of the awards Mr. MacArthur explained that each year the team picked out the man which, in his mind, was the most valuable player, and that was the most he knew about the award. Any OCE students who feel they would prefer as captain of this year's most valuable player, Bob Lee, the hard-hitting right halfback, will do so for a candidate for the "Little All American" team, which finds no number of last year's most valuable player, Don Rucker.

The传统的 OCE Christmas, for the first time last semester. In accordance with a new rule, a pre-schedule was required to take a physical examination at their own expense and to bring the report with them when they were presented with their awards. It has now been found that the pre-schedule examinations will be arranged by the YWCA. All examinations will be available at the cashier desk for those who wish to fill out the pre-schedule, Maw, from the student, the doctor, and stating that the fee was for a physical examination, must be present when applying for this service.

All inquiries. Of special interest to these children range from three months to 13 years.

V.A. to Refund Exam Fee

A notice has been received from the business office pertaining to those students who received OCE for the first time last semester. In accordance with a new rule, a pre-schedule was required to take a physical examination at their own expense and to bring the report with them when they were presented with their awards. It has now been found that the pre-schedule examinations will be arranged by the YWCA. Class schedules are available at the registrar's office, as are copies of the yellow "surgical advice" sheets. The proposed class schedule should be proofread by the student and submitted to his adviser for approval. The approved copy should be returned to the student and a copy kept with his adviser. If no changes are necessary on registration day, the trial period and time limits on registration are abolished.

The main purpose of pre-scheduling is to avoid scheduling conflicts and help to reduce the number of student days. It would reduce scheduling conflicts and help to balance the number of students in classes.

Pre-Scheduling Begins Today

Pre-scheduling of winter term classes will begin today, Monday, December 6, and will continue throughout the week. Students are urged to prepare their tentative schedule of classes during that time so that pre-scheduling activities will not interfere with final examination week.

Arnold Arms

When the fellows arrived back from their Thanksgiving weekend, they discovered the new heating system had been installed. There are still a few items to be made, but we welcome the new plant.

Arnold Arms congratulates East House on their win in the basketball game. Andy Sandberg was our high scoring man—three points.

We are still asking about what we did during the holiday. Here are some of the things we did: Stan Brown and Bill McCarty didn't make it to Los Angeles, instead they stayed home and ate turkey. Bill Christenson slept most of the time. Ilma Paronan and Alice Ewing were given surprise birthday parties. Ilma was 19, while Alice had her 18th birthday on Nov. 27 but had party on Nov. 22, while Alice had her party on Nov. 27 in the dining room to celebrate her 18th birthday. Kay Pohlen also had a birthday but decided to specify her ages.

Some lucky male is missing a few days of henpecking as Charlene Swenson has lost her voice for reasons unknown.

Congratulations to Betty Johnson for winning the recent engagement. She is to be married at 4 p.m. Dec. 5.

J.T. hall girls were rudely awakened by the fire drill bell at 6:15 p.m. on Nov. 22.

With all the above-mentioned events and pictures, and these can be purchased from Bob Graham, we are still talking about what we did during the holiday. Banquet Honors Football Players

The first annual banquet to honor members of the OCE football squad was held in the east dining room of Jesse Todd hall at 6 p.m. on Thursday, Dec. 2. Dr. Henry Gunn, president of the college, was toastmaster.

The main speaker of the evening was Dr. Wendell Van Loan, superintendent of the Corvallis public schools. Dr. Van Loan, a graduate of OCE, told the group what is expected of teachers in Oregon.

The program included talks by the coaches, Bill McArthur, head football coach; John Chamberlain, line coach; and Bob Knox, assistant football coach, and recognition speeches by wires and fans. Also included on the program were three musical numbers: Joan Mitsuoka playing the Ohrashin "Second Prelude," on the piano; Helen Jahnke playing "Blue Skies," on the accordion; and Deborah Mallatt singing "Winter Wonderland." Accompanist was Ruth Frick.

Chapel Service Features Gennie

Dr. William Gennie of Pacific University delivered an address on "The Spiritual Power of Christmas" at Friday's chapel service.

This pre-christmas service included a variety of Christmas songs, one of which was "Three Kings," a French folk song, presented by Mrs. Florence W. Hutchinson's sixth period music class. "O Come, O Come Emmanuel" was sung by Donna Rae Leavitt with Mrs. Roy D. Tillotson accompanying her. A violin solo was presented by Jeremiah Laskin, accompanied by Joan Powell. Lester McKim led the Scripture reading. The singing of "O Come, All Ye Faithful," by the congregation, closed this inspiring chapel program.

CROSSING THE DELAWARE

Mr. Horr fought in the war, but stories of him will not be told. He's the one who took the last seat and made Washington stand up in the boat.-Franklin Post.

Thanksgiving Dinner Given

A candlelight dinner was held in the Todd hall dining room at 6 p.m. on November 23, for all residents of the hall and their guests who were Dr. and Mrs. Henry M. Gunn, Dean and Mrs. Delmer R. Daven, and Miss Joan Stever.

Entertainment was under the direction of Janet Palmer, social chairman. Those who participated were Deborah Mallatt, Nan Marist, Mrs. Lena Miller, Norma Niven, and Bruce E. Hamblin. An added bit of entertainment was provided by Miss Ruth Carter, assistant director of dormitories. Phi sang a solo which was entirely spontaneous, and Mr. Niven, who added Bruce in his magic act. Dancing and games followed the dinner.

Student Council Discuss Plans

One much debated, discussed, and discussed issue—that of allowing clubs and organizations to sponsor activities and to use the proceeds from those activities as part of their own club treasury rather than a part of the student body fund as a whole—was debated, discussed, and discussed again at a meeting of the social education council on Monday, November 23. Hal Lebeck, chimes commissioner, and Jim Beach, financial secretary, are holding a meeting of all club presidents in the near future for the purpose of seeing how the "wind blows" as far as club members are concerned.

Possibility of having a student supply room for making posters, painting signs, and similar things was discussed and a committee is completing necessary arrangements. According to reports, many things are forthcoming for the social activities and dances, and a central place for storage of these supplies seemed to be a partial solution.

Having an agenda before each council meeting was suggested as a way of covering the business in a shorter length of time. Every member is to hand to the president of each council a list of things he plans to bring up at the next meeting by the preceding Friday. Anyone who is not a member of the council but who has some business which should be discussed at the meeting is requested to do the same thing.

Along the same line, following strictly the Student Government Rules of Order in the meetings was thrown in for debate. Whether or not this will be implemented the last council meeting should have been titled "conference "(former) council members week." Delegates to the Oregon Federation of Collegiate Leaders' conference, Jim Kenyon, Betty Dooley and Fern Huntzinger, told of the convention held at La Grande, with Schulz and Eleanor Wither attended a conference at La Grande and Clark's college in Portland concerning the World Student service fund and campus campaign. They drove, and gave the council an idea of what they were planning as far as OCE is concerned. Mark Schulz was also a delegate to the Red Cross conference all over OCE and reported on her trip and future plans.

"Ben Hur."

"How did you come to select that name?"

"I called him Ben until he had kittens."

WOLVES DOWN

Clark JC 57-50

The OCE basketball season got underway in earnest last Friday night as the Wolves edged out a 57-50 victory over the Clark J.C. Penguins. This is their third consecutive victory already this season.

Other teams to fall prey to the strong pack of OCE Wolves were the Page Woolens, 26-35, and Reed college of Portland, 76-16. As interesting sidelight on the local basketball picture is the fact that the Page Wolves boys of Salem recently defeated the Williamette university Wildcats. The OCE Wolves play Williamette tomorrow night in Salem.

OCE took an early lead over the boys from Vancouver, Washington, Friday night, but ended the half trailing 26-22. After that it was nip and tuck until the last few minutes when some fancy shooting on the part of OCE’s leading scorers of the game, Jess Palmer, Claude Buxton, and Bob Winternick.
