AN OPPORTUNITY AND A CHALLENGE

Last week, the Oregon Colleges of Education were represented by the State Board of Higher Education to institute a program whereby graduate students could complete work which would lead to the degree in matter of science in education at all three colleges. This estimates the work of many people who have been pressing for this type of program for several years. Much of the work done on this project prior to the decision of the state board was made by the presidents of the three colleges of education.

For quite some time now, there has been a need for this type of thing in the state of Oregon. Many of the teachers in the state can and will testify to this statement.

The granting of this status to the Colleges of Education in Oregon shows that the arguments submitted on behalf of these colleges were satisfactory. It shows something more than this, however. It reverberates in the Colleges of Education, and in the ability of the administration, instructors and students. It also provided a definite gain in prestige for these colleges, and it provides definite goals toward which to work. Achievement of these goals offers wide opportunity and a great challenge.

The Lamron wishes to offer congratulations to those who were a part of this project, and who contributed to the establishment of this program. It is hoped that the faculty and the students will see in this movement, not only on the intellectual level, but in attempting to build a finer, and a more well-developed college life and atmosphere. -S.T.S.

Poll Reveals Opinion of Student Body Concerning Education as Commodity

This will run as a series of questions over the issue of the paper this week.

There have been concerns on behalf of students at various colleges over the issue of education on the college level is a commodity. Inasmuch as the student pays his fees, and the community pays for the education of the student, the people maintain that the student should have a say in the selection of the courses of study, or any other opportunity such as a car, home, or television set.

College opinion maintains that education cannot be treated as any other commodity. This latter group maintains that the student has other obligations outside of the monetary investment, such as responsibilities toward instructors, the college which they attend, and the course in which they take. In the eyes of what has been said, the question which was asked of 138 students: "DO YOU CONSIDER THE COLLEGE OR UNIVERSITY LIBRARY A COMMODITY LIKE A CAR OR A RADIO?"

\[
\begin{array}{c|c}
\text{Class} & \text{Upper Level} \\
\hline
\text{YES} & 0 \\
\text{NO} & 138 \\
\end{array}
\]

\[
\begin{array}{c|c|c}
\text{YES} & \text{(with reservations)} & 8 \\
\text{NO} & \text{(with reservations)} & 4 \\
\end{array}
\]

According to the above, the answers appear to be:

\[

\text{NO} & 138 \\

OCE Schedules

Vanport Series

Coaches Bob Livingston and his Wolfpack can expect formidable opposition this week-end when they meet Vanport in College. The Vikings are riding high on the crest of a five-game wave, which has given them the chance to smash victories against two leading collegiate teams in seven straight games.

OCE coach John Robinson has been a potent Clark JC crew. The Garibaldi Wolves, paced by renowned center Leroy Coleman, are the big punch in the JV

One of the most amazing figures throughout the entire sports world is a one-armed player more than holding his own in the toughest sort of basketball competition, is Boid Buie, who will be here with the Kansas City Stags this week for the Stags' playoff game.

The conference picture for Coach Bob Livingston's Maplewolves looks considerably brighter at present than it did at the beginning of the season. This in light of their fine performance against Oregon Tech this past week-end. The Wolves were firmly entrenched in second place at the end of last season's schedule, and have four of their starters returning from the 1951-52 aggregation.

A large cadre of former Portland all-city stars lead the Vanport fast-breaking attack. Controlling the boards is doby金钱 Bureau, a 6-foot-10, all-city star, whoinclusive, West Oregon, and Yakima JC among the opposition. The Wolfpack is a fast-breaking team that has averaged a solid 113 points per contest.

Garibaldi High School

Whips OCE Fresh Team

The Garibaldi Wolves, area by area, are the big punch in the JV. They are able to match the OCE Thomas Jefferson high school in his home-town of Pine Bluff, Arkansas, averaging 13 points a game for four seasons and capturing the gold in his senior year to 18 consecutive victories. He was raised in the all-state Negro all-star team.

Junior Varsity

Losers to Salem

A strong Salem News Agency honor-coach proved too much for the OCE JVs this past week-end, as they clipped the junior squad 64-47 and 58-48 in a pair of varsity preliminaries. Larry Coleman was the big man for Salem News, collecting a 34 point total for the weekend.

The combination of Coleman and Jim Hoek got the Newsies off to an early lead in the prider contest and they were never headed. Jim Dyal paced the Wolf pack with 11 points, while Dyal also had Coleman with 18 and Hoek with 18 combined the points total for the afternoon.

The winning Wolfpack team will face the front court line-up, with B.pearling at a guard position.

The Oregon College of Education will play on Friday, January 18. The score of each game will be published in the Monday edition of the Oregonian on Saturday night for the second Friday.

Intramural

The 1952 intramural basketball season opened Monday, January 7, with the JVs facing Edmondson's "Crimson Tide" 29 to 6, and the Tall Tigers walleying Arnold Arms 39 to 5. The games were played in the OCE gymnasium.

The opener of the double-header was a nip-and-tuck affair, which found the "Crimson" adding a little to their margin each quarter, Big Jim Hoek was the big punch in the JV offense as he pocketed 23 minutes during his tour of duty.

Half-time score: "Dear John" Robinson led the Rebels' attack with 13 points. Scoring leaders:

Half-time score: Auburn 11, Milwauk 22.
The night's finale was a "ball game" from start to finish. The Tall Tigers proved to be too tall and too fast for the scrappy Arnold Arms crew. After jumping off to an early lead the Tigers continued to pile up the points in a wild and poorly played contest. Kiggens was high man for the game with nine counters while Buhler led the line with six points.

Tall Tigers 35 - 11 Arnold Arms
