Robert W. Straub
Winner of the 1999 Tom McCall Award

Whereas, Bob Straub was the first champion of the idea of the Willamette River Greenway; and

Whereas, Bob Straub defended Oregon’s beaches from inappropriate development and defended the public’s right of access along them; and

Whereas, Bob Straub spoke up courageously for the protection of Oregon’s free-flowing rivers; and

Whereas, Bob Straub resisted efforts to weaken laws and rules protecting Oregon’s environment; and

Whereas, Bob Straub understood that affordable housing and good jobs were also important elements of Oregon’s quality of life; and

Whereas, as Governor, Bob Straub, provided critical leadership in implementing Senate Bill 100 in the years immediately following its passage and played an important role in the campaign to defeat a ballot measure to repeal Senate Bill 100; and

Whereas, Bob Straub’s public service career was marked by his dedication to keeping Oregon a place we are proud to call home,

Therefore, it is an honor for 1000 Friends of Oregon to confer the 1999 Tom McCall Award on Robert W. Straub.
