The Virginia City Players, a famed dramatic group of the Old West, presented "Miriam's Crone" or, as it is sometimes called, "Innocent," a melodrama, on Tuesday evening, February 14. The production was a melodrama and dealt with the burning of the virgin of Miriam's hometown, Mrs. Wel- ley, by the townspeople. Through the efforts of Bernard, Mrs. Wey's nephew and the object of Miriam's affections, she was saved.

Complications developed, but it all came out right in the end, and the final question was left to the audience—whether or not a sin can be committed under certain conditions. Between the acts, the "Second Round Hose" and the "Phisicians' Song," better known as "Chasin' the Devil." After the play a vanguard show sponsored by the student government was given in the gym.

The name of Shaw's play comes from a Greek legend in which a sculptor carved a statue which he called Galatea. This statue later came to life. Shaw's "Galatea" is a London comedy about a professor of phonetics, and a student government who put aside their daily tasks to undertake a project of which they both return to their homes and resume their normal life.

The time-honored custom of square dancing at the half. The Violinists' Benefit, a program designed to raise funds, will be displayed on Friday, Feb. 23, at 8:00 p.m. Race Relations discussion will take place on Monday, February 22, at 8:00 p.m. in the Administration Building.

Kappa Pi's Sponsor Hobby Exhibition

The hobby show, a feature of the coming Police Festival week-end, is being sponsored by Kappa Pi, the national art honorary. The hobbins will be displayed on Friday, Feb. 26, in the Student Union. New and old art nouveau, Christmas cards, and basket-ball art rooms. Members of the faculty and students are welcomed to patronize our hobbins for display. The students will be in charge of the hobbins in their hobbies to the offices, where they will be picked up by Kappa Pi members. Students are instructed to see Ann Engborg or to get a note in student post office (Continued on Page Three)

There is still time to send your entries as this year's Festival will be held on the OCE campus this week-end, February 23 to 24, 1951. All entries and above data will foil out for the information of the committee, will be available in the student post office until Wednesday, February 24. There will be a reception for the parents. Friday night there will be a basketball game with the visiting team, and Saturday the first thing Saturday meeting will be registration at Maple hall from 12:00 to 12:30. When you have registered, students will have until 11:00 to take them around the campus to see the various department displays. Then from 11 until 12, there will be a musical program in the Campbell hall auditorium.

At 1:30 until 3:00, a lunch program will be held in the OCE hall dining room. In the Todd hall living room from 3:00 until 3:30, there will be a movie show and meeting and at the same time at Arnold gym there will be the P.E. students' club meeting will be held.

From 3:30 to 5:00, a style show presented by current students will be shown, with a "shopper" feature presented by Mr. Doyle McAninch, president of the OCE students' union. He said that the students should keep in mind that there are such things as professional-mindedness, a path for children, maintaining average grades while in college, and being a good citizen.

The purpose of teacher education was also brought to the attention of the listeners. Gaining a better understanding of children and enlargement of social contacts were considered important. It was pointed out that the student should learn all he can about modern teaching methods but should keep in mind that he must cooperate with the established system of his particular school.

Mr. Beck encouraged the students to take an active interest in the legislation for education. At the short business meeting preceding the discussion, Mr. Beck was elected FTA publicity chairman.

TOGETHERNESS

The man was a Jew in whose name Christianity was founded. Before there was Protestantism, there was Roman Catholicism. These religions together form the spiritual base of our Western culture. Ours is properly described as a Judeo-Christian culture.

That is the way it is on this side of the Iron Curtain. On the other side is the anti-Christian, the anti-Semitism, the philosophy of irreligious materialism. Men who are the state and a materialistic dogma above all other values rule that valley of darkness.

The world of light and the world of darkness contest bitterly for the minds of men. Not forever can the world be divided, white here, black there. Religion against materialism. Spirit against things.

Freedom against tyranny.

Catholic, Protestant and Jew as one against the forces of darkness. In the greater unity that comes of tolerance is our strength. Never before have we so much needed togetherness. Tolerance can light the way.

Miss Claggett Receives Letter Written By English Child Who Has No Hands

By Miss Sylvia Claggett

It was my privilege during my year in England to visit many kinds of schools. Among the most interesting was the Bethesda Home for Children with Cerebral Palsy. The children were especially delighted to welcome an American. It was the first time some of them had seen because they had spent all of their youth in the hospital.

The children were thrilled and cheered on sighted by hands, legs or feet.

No one was prepared for the unqualified response of the young people to the English child. He had a well-adjusted mind and was amazed at the admirable intelligence of the English child, his imagination, and his imagination.

Miss Claggett was overjoyed to share her experiences with the English children. She was thrilled and encouraged to continue her work with these special children. She was determined to make a difference in their lives and help them reach their full potential.

Friendship and understanding may be the most powerful forces in the world. Miss Claggett's letter shows that even the smallest gestures can make a huge difference in the lives of others.
Deadline Set for Supervised Teaching

Students are reminded that February 21 is the last day for students to register for supervised teaching this year. Supervised teaching in the summer session is not offered students without previous teaching experience.

College Book Includes Section About OCE

The new edition of "Mapping Your Education," a book written to provide high school students to serious thought about career planning and to encourage intelligent college choice, has been put on display in the OCE library. There are four pages in this book concerning Oregon College of Education should be of interest to OCE students. Included in the section, besides a full page picture of the building and several students, are the registration figures for fall term, 1950-51, a summary of costs, and additional information on admission policies and procedures, financial aid, part-time employment, student personnel services, and extra-curricular activities.

Lutheran Group Elects Officers

The regular bi-monthly meeting of the Lutheran Student Association was held Tuesday, February 11 at 7:30 p.m. in Todd hall's music room. Pastor Ufer led a discussion of "Communion." At the business meeting, officers were elected for the coming year. Their election will begin Spring term. The officers elected were as follows: Donna Lee Young, president; Donna O'Rourke, vice-president; Mary Ann Bazemore, secretary. Mary Ann, treasurer; and Vivian Mickelson, social chairman. Muriel was made about having a Lenten retreat at the coast but nothing definite was decided.

The OCE LSA group will be host to the OCE LSA some time in the near future at Trinity Lutheran church in Monmouth.

The next regular meeting, consisting of a little study and a social, will be held on Tuesday, February 17 at 7:00 p.m. Donna O'Rourke, social chairman, is in charge of the entertainment. Everyone is welcome to attend.

Smoker Contest To Give Thrills

In the smoker that is to be held at 3 p.m. on Saturday, February 24, there will be four good matches and eight good men.

Jim Godding, a professional fiddler, will meet Bob Price, played in the Folks' Festival at Portland, a short time back. While price claims to fame lies in the Golden Gloves championship of New Jersey.

Dan Ditto, state AAU champ in 1944, meets rough and ready Bob Frickard in the first best contest of the afternoon.

In the wrestling spotlight there are two matches that should make the folks sit on the edge of their seats. In the big and hairy group, two real heavies will square off Dick Vandervand and the opener the scale at 235 pounds, while the small guy of the pair, George Waits weighs in at 215. This is all teen, muscle and a little fat.

In the faster and lighter weight class there promises to be a real show as Varus Rehus, brother of Pacific Coast College Champion Paul Rehus, will tangle holds with wily Ted Forse in which will probably keep the spectators mesmerized.

The referee is also a very capable person, it is none other than Jim Knox as the third man. John Walls will be one of the judges with one still to be chosen.

JV's Nose Woodburn

Coach Paul McRae's JV squad doubled up Woodburn Townies 58-33 in a preliminary game Saturday night on the local maple court.

JV's Roy Borden and Woodburn's Arne Balch took the honors with 13 points each.
