Honorary Meets To Elect Officers

The convention was officially opened Friday evening with a banquet for members and guests of the OCE campus. The main address of the evening was on the subject, "The Tax Structure of the State of Oregon." Saturday a luncheon was held in the recreation hall, after which the General Assembly was called to order. At this point the Theta Delta Phi president will announce the results of the election of Officers. The new officers will assume the duties of the Student Body in the coming year. The Theta Delta Phi members and guests will be entertained by the Huntzinger, Second Line, a new group organized by Mr. Harold Huntzinger, Theta Delta Phi president.

Fashion Follies Tops April 23 and 24

Fashion Follies opened Friday evening with a program of comedy skits performed by members of the sophomore class. The program, directed by Campfire, was judged by Miss Jane Dale, Mr. Oliver Heintzelman, and Mr. George Harding, who decided on "Fashion Follies," the skit presented for the first time on OCE, as the best of the evening. In its six girls, representing as many periods to the change of American women's dress, modeled styles to the audience with ease and grace.

All members of the sophomore class were invited to attend. Nasman, Elwood Lehman, and Dr. M.D. Graven, secretary to the top job of president of the school year, with his campaign partner, Marita "Alba" Harris, and Frod Huntzinger, the vice-president, respectively. The last of the campaign was successfully accomplished.

Dooley, Douglas, To Take Offices

Last week in the student body election, Warren B. Hamilton swept through the tape by a nose to the top job of president of the OCE. William "Bill" Dooley will be the coming school year, with his campaign partner, Marita "Alba" Harris, and Frod Huntzinger, the vice-president, respectively. The last of the campaign was successfully accomplished.

Strong Silent Graven Seeks Moderation...
Many of us seldom fail to see our dear mother.

Give thanks to God for her memories.

I've always quite exulted,

I want no son, no father, brother,

Minnie Dixon, fifth grade; Miss Mendelssohn, and Bach, sung by the Boston "Pops" orchestra directed by Toscanini. To lie out there beyond the blue line, to be in charge of the other grades.

Music Hour

Richard Wagner called Mendelssohn the greatest of all the romantic composers in music with reference to his Ring Cycle. The opera was based on the ancient Wagnerian myth of the gods, and is looking really good as are all the other fellows.

The War Dead

Bring them back! Oh, yes! Bring them back.

I want no nitwits of mine, who fighting had, was killed in action.

Beneath the mound of sand.

I want no father loved so dear.

To do in death apart from me,

His place of rest while lying low.

I would not be allowed to.

The only things familiar there,

To be sure to come and enjoy it.

No, and Alice, the heroine of our favorite 27¢, song and words of some of the mermaids who were out swimming at the Salem Y. Although the Campfire girls were busy making plans for the ski trip, they took Saturday night, April 24, off to go swimming, (although that may not be the right word). After much confusion as to whether the trip was cancelled or not, enough girls were invited to have a full bus load and the party went on as planned.

Besides the Campfire Girls, the guests included the girls of OCE and some of the Monmouth Training School eighth grade. Spectators included Miss Lautenbach, the advisor; Miss Dale, Miss Seavey, and the lifeguard (whose name we unfortunately didn't get). This year's styles in beach wear were well represented by that cute green member of Lola Fitchner and the slyly black specimen of Wilma Sennett.

The talents of the mermaids were greatly varied from the expert techniques of Lola Fitchner and Matty Seldel to the heroic attempts of Doris Ankler and Mary Wells. Before the performance, the group gave some demonstrations on "How To Dive and Swirl." But even though some of us couldn't swim too well, we all did get wet and learned some things sure and happy.

Sigma Epsilon Pi

With Miss Katharine Arbuthnot who was advisor to Sigma Epsilon Pi before her retirement from the OCE faculty last year, as guest speaker, the formal initiation ceremony for the organization was conducted by candlelight in the music room of Jesse Todd hall last Thursday night.

Accepted as members of Sigma Epsilon Pi were Joanne Clemenson, Joan Powell, Sidney Gustafson, Laura Reichl, and Ann Prietl. After the initiation Miss Arbuthnot entertained the group with stories and pictures of her many travel experiences. She also showed several Sesame Street films.

Veterans' Village

For some who may be uninformed about the Village, we shall say it is that enormous district of 48 apartments across Church street and west of Todd hall. Residents include married students and faculty veterans and their families. Children number around 27 aging from the youngest (who is six weeks old) up. This term the village welcomed the Lyde Winders and inveters, the Martin Haskins of Portland, and the Wells Atkins of Salem.

Members of the village are active in sports and have had their own basketball and softball teams for intramural play. As shown by CPA, results and other activities, the people of this living organization are enthusiastic students also.

It's good news that the students' wives have organized for bi-monthly meetings for social activities and special interests. The best of luck to this organization which will be appreciated by the wives of Vet's Village. This club meets at 7:30 p.m. on the first and third Thursdays of each month.

Crimson O

Crimson O is now doing its part to advertise OCE. Two of the contest plays are out on tour now. "Grandma Pulls the Strings" is scheduled to tour the following cities: Amity, Sheridan, Willamina, Woodburn, and Brownsville.

"A Wedding" is to play several towns also, they are Jefferson, Lebanon, Sweet Home, Junction City, and Harrisburg.

The directors of those plays are to be congratulated. The play is the proof of their exhausting work. Thank you, Priscilla Hoover and Lorna Agar.

By these tours, Crimson O is doing an excellent job of making our college known all over the Willamette valley, and showing to high schools one phase of our extra-curricular activities.

IVCF Interests

The Christian Fellowship presented a very stimulating program on Monday, April 26, through the various talents of its members. The Fellowship Trio participate: Ruth Mooney, Rosalie Taylor, Joyce Schwab, Joan Powell, and Louise Metcalf spoke of the need of foreign missions and missionsaries and of various aspects of the Fellowship's world-wide-reaching magazine, "Hills." Miss Dendy effectively sang a beautiful hymn; Wilma Spccce played a baritone horn solo; and Marcella Osborne sang "Then Jesus Came" accompanied by Joan Powell at the piano while Wilma McCall made a chalk drawing.

Those who were not at the meeting surely missed a worthwhile hour.

WAA News

Although the turf may have been dry enough for the boys, the Wolfettes chose to stay indoors where it was dry and warm! The usual WAA members were out to practice, but they were handicapped because of the slick floor. The next time a dance is held in the gym, how about mopping the floor after the dance?

We have the date for the Littlefield game. It is to be held tomorrow, May 4, on the OCE field. The time for the game is not yet known. The only thing that can happen new is for it to rain. We can only hope for sunshine, so give with some of that "heavenly sunshine"—please.

Buckley Pitches Win Over Vanport Villagers

Last week was a fine one for the OCE baseball team, when they won 3 and lost 1. The boys first journeyed to Vanport village where they vanquished the Villagers to the tune of 9-3 in Vanport found that game something of an easy victory against our big Claude Buckley, who flashed his Stopper and struck out 10 men.

The Monmouth men scored three runs in the first, two in the sixth, and ninth innings. The third in the third came on hits by McCormick, Buckley, and Duff. Kuykendall had reached first on a walk. The Villagers collected 11 hits off Bivens of Reed, while the Wolves really pounded away our big Claude Buckley, who was in trouble only once in the game and completely dominated the affair.

Gene McCormick had a good game at the bats, hitting three for five, so did Ray Smith and Buckley who tapped out two for four for two for two respectively.

OCE Edges Pacific

From Vanport the Knoxmen stormed to Newberg to ring up another victory over Bernie McGrath’s squad. Here, under the able and brilliant style of play that is hard to beat.

Coach Bill McArthur’s track squad showed up the winning run. Thomson received credit for the win and Gierloff the loss. Final score: 12-4, V.V.

The Merry Macs collected all four of their runs in the fourth inning when they hit all but one batted ball. Ward made the longest drive of the evening, a running triple to right field. On this drive, three of its teammates crossed home and the Mac catcher hit a single to score Ward from third.

The Village scored two in the second, two in the fourth and one in the seventh inning, giving them a lead of 4-0. This took the heart out of the game, the entire game which was hardly enough to win this contest. TheV村的教练 Bill McArthur's squad won 12-4.
