Dear John and Eliza:

I have just been thinking how well I could enjoy myself if I were at your house to stay, but of this pleasure I cannot partake at present. We must wait patiently until the God of Mammon renders himself propitious, and then I hope to partake fully of this pleasure. I suppose we have a small claim on Illinois yet, and I very much like holding on to it. You would be very glad if you would tell us all about our place when you write again.

Mr. Hatchison has been wanting to write to you for some time but has been hindered by sickness and many other unavoidable occurrences. I think he will write to you in a few weeks, as he is very busy now and will be for some time. He is away from home all the time except now and then a day so that he has a very poor chance to write or even think on any subject except that pertaining to his business, he no amount of two hundred dollars debt which must all be paid this fall. He has not collected but very little money yet, for surveying money is very hard to get at this time.

We have 19 head of cattle, two mares and colts. I don't know how many hogs, two dogs and two children. So this is the amount of live stock Eliza you must write to us when you feel like it and I would be glad if these feelings would come on you every often.
Tell us all about Hannah for I see she can't afford telling anything herself. We want to hear all about the little boys also give my respects to all who enquire after me.

Your loving sister

E. M. B. Hutchinson

As there is some blank paper left I thought I would ask you whether you and James think it would be better for me to sell a part of the timber land off or sell it all together. Likewise whether you think the price of land will rise or is it at a stand still. If you think that land will rise then many had better not sell the old place for a while. I want you to write to me whether you think Wilson will pay off that note when it is due if I had it? I cannot make out for a while especially if you can sell the place I got of Isaac. Isaac is very anxious for you to sell the place near your uncle's house. Also Hutchinson wants it sold and want you to write to us what you think the chance will be to sell it. Write what was done with Hutchinson's farm East of Isaacs last year. Also what you have done with both of them this year.
