Welcome to Annual Conference, Educators!

Ed. Conf. Enters Its 22nd Year

The annual Educational Conference will be held at the Oregon College of Education campus today and tomorrow, April 25 and 26. Present plans indicate that this year's conference will be one of the best ever held on the local campus.

Main speaker of the conference will be Dean Francis P. Powers of the University of Washington in Seattle. He will address the general conference assembly.

The OCE Band, with P. F. McKey of the college music department directing, will open the Saturday morning program by playing "The Star Spangled Banner." After the flag salute, Dr. Charles A. Howard, president of the Oregon College of Education, will give the traditional welcoming address. To conclude the morning portion of the conference program the OCE Choir will sing numbers directed by Miss Louise Woodruff of the college music department.

A large community-style picnic will be held in the gymnatorium at noon on Saturday. People from every part of the state will be here and the lunch hour will give old friends and school chums an opportunity to renew acquaintance. Rooms in the Woodruff of the Monmouth training school, is chairman of the arrangements committee, representing the OCE Faculty club.

Sectional meetings are scheduled for the afternoon. Among the featured speakers are Mr. John E. Staley, principal of the Monmouth High School, and Mr. Carl Starkey of the Journal staff in Portland.

At the close of these various sectional meetings, a general assembly is scheduled in the auditorium of Campbell hall, at which Dr. Paul C. Parker, chancellor of the Oregon State System of Higher Education, will speak.

To conclude the conference day's activities, a tea is being sponsored by staff and key. The tea will be held in the college library.

Schedule of May Day Tentatively Planned

Wolf Knights are planning on a glorious feeding day, May 9. They are working hard to make it the best ever, and have added new ideas to some of the old traditional May Day activities, to make it one that will not be soon forgotten.

They have made a tentative schedule of events for the day which is to start with the coronation of the Queen at 9:30 a.m. Members of Wolf Knights will escort the princesses and attendants at the crowning. Crimson O will present a program for the Queen and her court.

At 10:15, WAA will provide games and tournaments, such as tennis, ping-pong, horseshoes, etc. Everyone will be busy playing some kind of a game until 11 a.m.

At this time the various classes will present the May Pole dance competition with International Relations club offering 15 dances, choosing the judges, and awarding the prizes. Omnium F Campus is collaborating with IHQ in this.

From 12:00 until 1:30 p.m. everyone will enjoy a picnic in the grove. Sigma Epilson Pi is taking care of getting the free cokes. Vantage O is planning a program for the after-dinner period, from 1:00 to 2:00 o'clock. It will be held in the Campbell hall auditorium.

The two campus religious organizations, Bivert Christian Association, and Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship, combined for the selection of a princess, and chose Joanne Bloch.

Noted Speakers Featured Saturday

One of the notable conference speakers is Dr. Paul C. Parker, the new chancellor of the Oregon State System of Higher Education. Dr. Parker's native state is Iowa. After taking degrees at the University of Iowa and at the University of Michigan, Dr. Parker received the Ph.D. from Columbia. As a teacher and as an administrator, he has had a varied experience. For a time he was educational advisor to the University of the Philippines.

During the second World War, Dr. Parker held the rank of Lieutenant-Colonel. From 1923 to 1946, Dr. Parker was dean of the college.

Princesses Named by Nine Organizations

Plans for May Day are getting underway with the selection of princesses by the nine campus organizations.

Staff and key girls selected their president, Avie H. Johnson, to represent them as princess at the May Day festival on May 9.

Theta Delta Phi, men's scholastic honorary organization, chose Lois Gruen as their princess.

Welcome! Oregon College of Education welcomes the teachers of Oregon to the 22nd annual conference on elementary education. The purposes of the conference are, to bring to the campus a much larger number of speakers who have something worth saying, and to provide an opportunity for easy and comfortable contact among the men and women engaged in the various areas of education. At previous conferences, the speakers have chosen their own subjects. They will have an opportunity to say those things which seem most important to them. In this way the best thinking of many of the best writers in American education has been presented to the teachers of our state.

Care has been taken to avoid a crowded program. We hope everyone will have time to visit his friends and to look over the campus. Oregon College of Education is always a friendly place but on this day we hang out welcome signs all over the place. We are delighted that you are here.

C. A. Howard, President
Summer Work and Study Projects Feature Social, Cultural and Spiritual Assistance

More than 400 young people of high school and college age, from many parts of the nation and different races and religions, are expected to participate in work and study projects sponsored by the American Friends Service Committee (Quakers) in Mexico, Europe and all parts of the United States this summer, according to Clarence E. Pickett of Philadelphia, executive secretary of the committee.

In addition, Mr. Pickett stated that the Quaker Committee has sponsored service and educational projects for young people for almost two decades, and that the amount of money credit has been given for work in some of these projects. For specific information about the purposes and description of projects write to: American Friends Service Committee, 37 West Philadelphia, Philadelphia 6, Pennsylvania.

The Real Thing

FRIDAY, APRIL 25, 1947 THE OCE \LAMRON, MONMOUTH, OREGON PAGE THREE

Baseball is one sport in which a small school can match a large school in competition. For example, Linfield whipped Montana 5-0, and lost the second game of the series 6-4 only after pitcher Dunn walked nine men. Dunn allowed the Grizzlies only two hits, but he was too free with his tickets to first base. Linfield has two fine hurlers, Petersen, the basketball star, and Dunn.

John Nasman, Wolf catcher, started out the season in great style against Vanport college in Portland Saturday, April 12, when he collected a double and two singles in four trips to the plate. He lashed out another hit in the Linfield contest last Friday at McMinnville, in his only time at the plate.

The lad from down St. Helens way is hitting a nine men. Dunn allowed the Grizzlies only two hits, yet he doesn't miss a thing.

For those who are interested in football next week-ends. To be back Monday evening a pleasant occasion. Spec­iallyq mention students Thanked for their enthusiastic support.

Double Header Divides Victory

OCE splits a double-header with Multnomah college in Portland last Saturday by dropping the first game 13-7, and coping the nightcap 10-8. In the opener the Portland nine found Hamor's of­ ferings for 11 hits, while the Wolves were held to seven safis­ tered hits in the sixth inning.

In the second contest the Wolves went on a hitting spree gathering 15 base walks, featured by a home run by "Mus" Harris, 250-pound, former Columbia basemen, in the fourth inning. The Multnomah nine collected seven blows and seven runs in the inning. Woon­ter, Multnomah third sacker, hit a round-tripper in the sixth frame. Outfielder Pete Jones led both clubs in hitting, shagging out five hits in six trips to the plate in the two games. Short scores:

Linfield Nine Topples OCE

Bruce Hamilton hurled seven­half hit ball at the Linfield Wolves, but the Multnomah nine dropped a 4-1, decision at McMinnville on Friday. The Wolves were held to a single hit and seven runs. Outfielder Frey, however, drove out the longest ball, a trip­per, in the big fifth inning. The short score:

Station KOAC Wins Award

Radio station KOAD in Corval­lis recently received an outstanding national award of merit from the National Safety Council for "exceptional service to safety in broadcasting safety programs on a regular basis since October 1932."

According to information re­ceived from the headquarters of the National Safety Council, sta­tion KOAC is one of 23 radio sta­tions in the nation given this award of merit for broadcasting safety programs on a continued and regularly scheduled basis for more than five years.

"The state-owned station is proud of this new award of merit from the National Safety Council," says J. M. Morris, program manager of the station. "A great deal of credit for the award goes to the Operator's Division of the Secretary of State's office in Sa­lem for their enthusiasm support of KOAC's educational program service in the field of safety."

"In fact, " she added, "you have noticed it at last."
