Dear Brother John,

I expected to have been in Ills. before this time but the winter has been so severe that the boats could not run but we are expecting a boat every day now so I think we will leave the last of this week for Ills. and if we have luck we will be there in four or five days from the time we start. I expected that you would have written to me before now but I suppose you were expecting me there long before this. When I get there I want to buy about 4 good mares and a two horse wagon so I want you to notice if you see any such for sale before I get there so that I can have some idea where to go to get such as I will have but little time to look around before plowing time. I also have a very fine Sack which I expect to stand there this season you may tell all you see that wants to buy to a good fly Sack that he will be there.

This leaves all well

Yours in haste
Wm. C. Butler
